THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Q Does your name appear upon the authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation? A Upon all the rolls I guess.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A Well, it is just guess work, about 1/16 is what I claim.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name, before she was married? A Her name was Martha Jane Kidiffer.
Q Was she a white woman or Cherokee? A Cherokee.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she on the roll of 1880? A I think so.
Q You have been married twenty years? A Yes, sir, I have been married twenty years.
Q Have you any children under 21 living with you? A No, sir, only a couple of grandchildren.

The name of George M. Ward and his wife are found upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and they are entitled to enrollment and will be so enrolled upon the records of the Commission being made at this time.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of July, 1900.

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--5.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

August 21, 1906.

C O P Y

The Honorable ,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D. 4186-1905), June 2, (I.T.D. 5240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12226-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 1110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

JUL 10 1900

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I. T., July 10th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Tottis Barr for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles she testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Tottis Barr.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-two.
Q Where do you reside? A My home is over by the Grove; I come from Nowell down here.
Q What is your post-office? A Right now it is Nowell, I have been there about two months, my home is close to Grove.
Q Is that in the nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A I lived there two years lately, and I used to live there a long time ago; I moved from there to Vinita.
Q Have you always lived in the Territory? A Well now you see my father was killed at Vinita in 1880 and Simpson Melton has always been my guardian, and when pa was killed he took us to Eureka Springs to reside there a while before I was married, and I went to Vinita and was married there.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Hugh Carroll.
Q Is he living? A No sir.
Q How long has he been dead? A I don't know, just how long he was killed in 1883 or 1884, I don't know which.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q To what district in the Cherokee Nation did your father and mother belong? A Delaware.
Q Are their names upon the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Are their names upon the rolls of 1880? A I don't know. Pa was admitted before the council about that time, 1880 or 1881 or 1882, whenever it was council met.
Q Was he a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What was your mother's name before she was married? A Lucy Putman.
Q Was she on the 1880 roll? A She was admitted I guess; she was a white woman. I enrolled myself on the last roll, but Simpson enrolled me on the others.
Examinined by Cherokee Attorney Hastings:
Q What are your sisters' names? A Nora and May.
Q Do you know Lizzie? A That is what they call me.
Examinined by Comm'r Needles:
Q Does your name appear upon the 1894 roll of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And on the 1896 Census roll of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim to have? A I guess I would be one-quarter or one-sixteenth, I don't know which; I guess I would claim one-sixteenth.
Q Did you ever apply to the Cherokee Tribal authorities for citizenship in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q Under what law were you married? A Cherokee law.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes sir. (Produces marriage license.)
Q What is your husband's name? A Ernest J. Barr.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A At Vinita.
Q Is your husband now living? A Yes sir.
Q His name upon the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A He is on the 1896 roll.
Q Do you know the name of his father? A John Barr.
Q Is he a Cherokee? A No sir.

Tottie Barr #2

- Q Is your husband a white man? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you any children under twenty-one years of age? A No sir.
- Q You only apply for yourself and your husband? A That's all.
- Q Where do you live now? A My things are all there at the Grove, but my husband is working at Nowell and I am there some of the time.
- Q Do you live in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee nation? A Since my marriage.
- Q I lived here all the time before my husband was killed, and then I was taken away. He was killed in 1883 or 1884.
- Q Did you live here in 1898, in the Territory, three years ago? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you been living here since? A Yes sir.
- Q Examined by Atty. Hutchings, on part of Cherokee nation:
- Q How long have you been out of the Territory any one time? A We lived in Vinita a long time, I don't know how long.
- Q Hasn't your husband been out of the Territory for three years since you were married? A No sir, he has never been away that long at one time. He went to the Army and was gone quite a while.
- Q Examined by Com'r Needles:
- Q What business is your husband in? A Working in a mill.
- Q Did you ever keep house? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you ever keep house outside the Territory? A We just kind of batched; we never had our things out. When he come back from the Army we batched around, but we never had our things all out. I called my home over there by Grove.
- Q Where did you live when you were outside the Territory, Kansas or Arkansas? A I don't know where, - didn't stay at any place very long.
- Q Have you ever kept house outside the Territory? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A Over there at Nowell, it is just in Missouri.

Commissioner Needles: Your name appearing upon the rolls of 1896 and the rolls of 1894, the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation, and your father and mother having been admitted by the regularly constituted authorities of the Cherokee Nation December 17th 1881 by the Cherokee Council, a record of which will be found on page 10 of the list of admitted and re-admitted in the Cherokee Nation, you are admitted to be enrolled as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Your husband will have to appear himself for his own enrollment.

Note: Tottie Barr found on page 443, #414, 1896 roll, Delaware District, as Tottie Barr.

W.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case, and that the above and foregoing is a full, true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,

Muskogee, I. T., September 2, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Tottie Barr for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen.

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT,
O-O-O-O

It appears from an examination of the Cherokee printed list of persons admitted and readmitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation that Hugh Carrot and Lucy Carrot, father and mother of the applicant, were readmitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee National Council, on December 7, 1881. It also appears that one Lizzie Carrot was readmitted by the same act, and the applicant claims that she is called Lizzie Garrett.

An examination of the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894 for Delaware District shows that the applicant, Tottie Barr, is identified thereon at page 426, No. 1789, as "Toddie Garrott."

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., February 17, 1903.

In the matter of the application of TOTTIE BARR, for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

By the Commission: The name of the applicant, Tottie Barr, was heretofore included in a partial roll of Cherokee citizens approved by the Department, November 5, 1902, her enrollment number being 252.

On January 6, 1903, there was filed at the Department of the Interior, Indian Territory Division, a motion by the Cherokee Nation that said case of Tottie Barr be re-opened, and remanded to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for further hearing. The Department, in its letter of January 19, 1903, allowed said motion, and forwarded such motion to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, with instructions to re-open the case, and give the Cherokee Nation further opportunity to present additional testimony, requiring that Tottie Barr should be given notice of such re-opening, and that she should also be allowed to submit additional testimony in the matter of her enrollment as a citizen of said Nation.

The Cherokee Nation presents satisfactory proof of service of notice on the applicant Tottie Barr, that further testimony would be taken, in the matter of her application, at Vinita, Indian Territory, on February 17, 1903, at eight o'clock a m.

Applicant this day appears in person; and the Cherokee Nation appears by J. C. Starr, its representative.

TOTTIE BARR, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A Tottie Barr.
Q How old are you ? A I am twenty five.
Q What is your post office address ? A Well I guess Noel.
Q Where is that ? A Well, Noel, Missouri.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you born ? A Well, I was born on what is called War Eagle, down in Arkansas.
Q What was your father's name ? A Hugh Carroll.
Q Was he a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q Cherokee by blood ? A Yes sir.
Q What was your mother's name ? A Lucy Putman.
Q She was a non citizen ? A Yes sir.
Q Your father and mother were married, were they ? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live in Arkansas ? A Oh we came right here while I was a little baby.
Q You came right here ? To Vinita ? A Yes sir.
Q Your father and mother came along and brought you with them ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know how long they lived in Vinita ? A They lived here until they died. Both of them died in-- I can't say exactly the year; two or three years, though, after we was re-admitted.
Q Do you know what year that was ? A He was re-admitted in 1881.
Q Were you admitted with him ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have any sisters ? A Yes sir.
Q What were their names ? A Norah, Pearl, and I don't know whether May's name would be May or Ella May.

Q Did you have a sister named Lissie ? A That's me, they call me Tot, and my administrator enrolled me as Tot.

Q I notice one is named Norah Carroll?

A They are all Carroll.

--It appears from any examination of the list of persons admitted and re-admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, prepared by the Cherokee authorities, that the father of the applicant, Hugh Carroll, under the name of Hugh Carret, was readmitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee National Council in December 7, 1881; there also appears on said list the name of Lucy Carret, admitted at the same time. On said list there also appears the name of Norah Carret, whom applicant says is her sister, and also the name of Lissie Carret. Said Lissie Carret appears to have been readmitted along with her family.

Q Where have you lived since you were readmitted in 1881 ?

A Well, then we lived here.

Q Let me ask you this question: how long did your father and mother live after that ? A I can't tell you exactly the year they died.

Q You said two or three years ? A Yes sir, they lived right here in Vinita, until they died.

Q Did you live with them ? A Yes sir.

Q After they died where did you go ?

A After they died my grandfather Carroll came down here from Eureka Springs, and took us there and kept us, and he never wanted us to come back then; he never told us, and he raised us and made us do as he said, and when I was married I came here and stayed.

Q When were you married ? A The 10th day of July, 1894.

Q You lived with your grandfather in Arkansas from the time of your parents' deaths up until 1894 ? A Yes sir.

Q Then you came back to the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir, I was married in the Cherokee Nation. I came here to get married.

Q What is your husband's name ? A Earnest Barr.

Q Was he a Cherokee ? A No sir.

Q He was a white man ? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you marry him ? A Here in Vinita.

Q Was he in business in Vinita ? A No sir, he never was here until I told him I was coming here and get married here and stay here.

Q He lived in Arkansas ? A No sir, he was a citizen of Missouri. He come there and worked there and we was engaged to be married, we was married twice.

Q You were married twice ? A Yes sir.

Q Where first ? A At Neosho, Missouri, the 27th day of June, 1894, and then I come on down here and on the 10th day of July, and stayed.

Q How came you to be married twice ?

A Because I wanted to be married according to Cherokee law.

Q Did he get out a marriage license ? A Yes sir.

Q In what district ? A Delaware.

Q Is he living ? A Yes sir.

Q Is he an applicant for citizenship ? A No sir, he don't want it.

Q Did he apply ? A Not that I know of.

Q You said you stayed here after you were married, stayed in Vinita ? A Yes sir.

Q What did your husband do ? A First one thing and then another, he was a marshal under one of the marshals here a while, and then he didn't do anything the rest of the time.

Q After your marriage how long did you stay in Vinita ?

A Well I don't know exactly how long I stayed here, quite a good while.

Q Can you tell me just about how long you stayed ?

A A year or two years. I can't tell you exactly how many months I was here. Then I went up to Pineville, Missouri, and was gone up there a few months, and moved back down to the Grove in the winter, either just before Christmas 1897 or in 1898 right after Christmas, I don't know which.

Q Did your husband go with you ? A Yes sir.

Q What was he doing in Pineville, working ? A No sir.

Q Just up there visiting ? A Just up there and stayed a few months with his mother.

Q Do you remember when that was you were up there ?

A I can't tell you just how many months we was up there.

Q Then you came back, where ? A To the Grove, over there to Grove, Indian Territory.

Q That is a town called Grove ? A Yes sir.

Q You are not certain whether it was 1897 or 1898 ?

A It was just before Christmas 1897 or just after Christmas, in January, I don't know which.

Q You don't know what year ? A It was either 1897 or 1898. If I moved just before Christmas it was 1897, and if I moved just after Christmas it was 1898.

Q You are sure it was that winter of 1897-8 ? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you stay in Grove ? A Stayed there all next winter. I stayed there all the rest of that winter and all the next summer and all the next winter until up in the spring sometime, I don't know whether it was April or May. I was there that long and then he joined the army.

Q You stayed there a whole year ? A Yes sir I was there the rest of the winter that I moved there, and all the next summer, and the next winter, and up until spring.

Q You came back from Pineville there in the late winter of 1897 or early in the year 1898 ? A Mr. Starr knows what year I came there.

Q I want you to state ? A I don't remember.

Q You came back then in the latter part of 1897 or the early part of 1898, is that it ? A Yes sir, that's right.

Q And he was marshal in Grove for a year ?

A I don't know how long he was marshal.

Q That was during the year 1897, was it ?

A I didn't pay any attention to his marshaling, I don't know how long he was marshal.

Q He was marshal a good share of the time you stayed in Grove ?

A Yes sir.

Q Then that would bring you up to the winter of 1898 ?

A Yes sir.

Q The spring of 1898 ? A Yes sir, either in April or June.

Q And then he joined the army ? A He joined the army.

Q What part of the year did he join the army ?

A Right away after he left Grove, I didn't leave when he did.

Q Was that in the spring ? A Yes sir sometime in the spring, it was getting warm weather.

Q Where did he join the army, right there ? A No sir, he joined at St. Louis and was gone quite a while.

Q How long did you stay in Grove after your husband left ?

A At the time he left I was sick and had been all summer, and when he joined the army I went up there in a few days afterwards and stayed with his mother at Pineville, Missouri, because I didn't have anybody to stay with.

Q That was in the spring of 1898 ? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you stay with his mother in Pineville ?

A Oh I stayed until he got back from the army, I don't know how long that was, it was several months.

Q He stayed in the army longer than several months didn't he ?

A He stayed quite a while.

Q More than a year ? A I don't know how many months he was gone. He come home on a furlough once.

Q Where did he come from ? A Chickamauga, Georgia.

Q Was he in the Spanish war ? A He was stationed there at Chickamauga, Georgia, and they didn't use them but held them there for quite a while.

Q He never went out of the States ? A No sir.

Q You stayed with his mother all the time he was gone did you ?

A Well, you might say I stayed there, I was down here a time or two, but then I pretended to stay with her.

Q Did you have a home down here ? A Yes sir I had my place.

Q Where ? A I sold the one I had just before he went away.

Q Where was that ? A Over close to the Grove, and then just after he come back I come back and bought another place.

Q While he was gone did you own a place here ? A Yes say you sold that place when you went away ? A Yes sir, before he joined the army.

Q So that you had no place of your own during the time you husband was gone, isn't that so ? A Yes sir, but I aint sure whether I come back and bought my place while he was gone or come right after he come back and bought this place, I don't know which. I have had so much to think about, and then when I bought it it had a lease on it, and a lease on part of it, and he stays on the part the lease is on, and I couldn't get possession of it until this year.

Q So that you didn't stay in Grove at all after you left there in the spring of 1898 ? A No, I never lived there.

Q After your husband came back from the army where did you and him stay ? A We just stayed first one place and then another; down here lots of times and ever there.

Q Did you make your home with his mother ? A Sometimes I did. He is a person that is not at home very much.

Q Did you live in town in the Nation here ?

A I guess you might say I did, I come down here and stayed quite a while.

Q Where did you stay ? A At my sister's out here about six miles, and at my cousins'.

Q You stayed at your sister's a while ? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you stay with her during the time your husband was gone ? A Didn't stay with her any while he was gone.

Q Where did you stay while your husband was in the army ?

A I told you I was sick and stayed with his mother most of the time, and pretended to make that my home.

Q The other time where were you ? A I was down here passing around.

Q With relations and friends ? A Yes sir, because I couldn't do nothing.

Q When your husband came out of the army he came home to you at his mother's ? A Yes sir.

Q Did you continue to stay there ? A No sir, just stayed there a little while.

Q Then where did you go ? A I don't know; went down there though a little while while he was at home.

Q Where ? A Noel, Missouri.

Q Did he go to live there ? A Yes sir he went there to work in a mill.

Q That would be about 1899 wouldn't it ?

A I can't say whether it was the year 1899 or what.

Q You say he was in the army about a year ?

A I guess he was.

Q When he came back you went to Noel.

A We visited around; we have not been in Noel since 1899.

Q That was the first place you went to after leaving your mother's ?
 A We moved to you mean. We went to several places.
 Q Is that the first place ? A Yes sir, and that has been just since this last roll was made.
 Q How long did you stay at Noel ? A Well, been there a good deal since then, when I wasn't down here I was there.
 Q When you went there first how long did you stay there ?
 A I was there about two months before I came down here.
 Q You stayed there about two months ? A Yes sir.
 Q Your husband was working there ? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you live anywhere else after that time ? A No sir.
 Q Still continued to stay there. A I stayed there when I was over there.
 Q When you weren't over there where were you ?
 A I was down here.
 Q Was your husband with you ? A No sir.
 Q He was working there at Noel ? A He was working there at the time I was down here at that time.
 Q And you went back to Noel to your husband's home ?
 A When I went back to Noel he was there then.
 Q Well, how long did he work in Noel ? A Well, he never worked anymore but just a little while after I was here that time.
 Q Kept house there ? A Tried to; he wasn't at home much then for a while, and then he come home again and worked at the quarry a while.
 Q Where is that ? A Right there in Noel; and since then he has been at home when he got ready, and when he didn't why he wasn't.
 Q Where has he worked besides Noel ? A Any place, or no place; he has worked at Noel when he had work.
 Q Well now, then, from 1899 up until now ? A No sir.
 Q Did you move away from Noel at any time ?
 A No sir, I never moved nowhere.
 Q Did you ever keep house out of Noel, since then ?
 A No sir. I never pretended to keep house, for I couldn't.
 Q Did you board ? A I just stayed amongst my relations.
 Q What was your husband doing ? A I don't know what he was doing.
 Q Did you have a furnished house ? A Yes sir a rented house.
 Q You furnished it ? A Yes sir.
 Q You kept house in a way ? You didn't board ? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you have a house furnished anywhere else except Noel since your husband came out of the army ? A No. And then last winter he went away down here in the Territory somewhere and worked almost all winter; I don't know where.
 Q Where did you stay ? A At his mother's some of the time, and down here some of the time; I just bummed around.
 Q As a matter of fact, then, you haven't had a home, a furnished house, nor made any place your home in the Territory or in the Nation since the spring of 1898 ? A I have never had no furnished house, but I have never called anything else my home except here. That's over at Grove. I didn't pretend to call anything else my home.
 Q You had a house on the farm at Grove ? A Yes sir.
 Q Is the house furnished ? A Yes sir, there is a house on it, the tenants on it have a house.
 Q Did you ever live on that place ? A No sir, I have never had the chance since I bought it, because it was leased so I couldn't.
 Q But you considered that place near Grove your home ?
 A Yes sir. And I intend to move down there after the lease is out, and that will be out this year after the crop is over.
 Q Where did you consider your home when you got married ?
 A Right here.
 Q In Vinita ? A Yes sir.
 Q Did you own the place near Grove when you married ?
 A My two sisters and I owned a farm about a mile and a half from Grove.

- Q At the time you married ? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you sell that; is that the place you sold when you went with your husband to join the army ? A No sir, it was that one, but it was a little while before he went to the army that I sold that, it was after we married.
- Q Then about the time he came back you bought another place.
- A Yes sir just before or after he come back, I don't know which, I bought the improvements on this place ever there.
- Q What did you buy it for as a speculation or to make it your home ? A I bought it to make it my home; that's what I bought it for.
- Q Did your husband ever vote up in Missouri ?
- A I don't know whether he ever did or not.
- Q Did he take any part in the elections ? A I don't know.
- Q Pay any poll tax ? A No sir never have paid a bit of poll tax one way or the other.
- Q Does your husband consider himself a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A No sir.
- Q Why not ? A He just simply says he don't want it.
- Q Didn't he marry you under a Cherokee license in order to become a citizen ? A He married me under a Cherokee license.
- Q Why did he do that ? A Just simply because I would be married according to Cherokee laws.
- Q You insisted on that in that way ? A Yes sir.
- Q He never has made any claim as a citizen ?
- A Not that I know of.
- Q He never has made any application has he ?
- A Well, when I went to Tahlequah to enroll he went there.
- Q You make application for your own enrollment ? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you make application for him ? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't know whether he made any application or not ?
- A No sir, I don't know, but I kinder think they enrolled him.
- Q Where does he consider his home ? A I don't know; he says he don't want his down here.
- Q Does he consider his home at Noel, Missouri ?
- A No sir, I don't know.
- Q Where is his home ? A I don't know; I can't talk anything about his home, where he wants it and where he doesn't.
- Q You and your husband are not separated ?
- A I can't say we are separated, when he's at home he's there, but he's gone a lot.
- Q He doesn't claim that he has a home in the Cherokee Nation anyhow ? A No sir, he don't claim to want one down here. I tell you he don't say anything about where he wants a home.
- Q When you moved away from Grove in the spring of 1898, what was your purpose and intention in going away ?
- A He went away and left me, and I was sick and had been all summer, and I couldn't stay.
- Q Didn't you have relatives here you could go to ?
- A No sir, because I couldn't live down here very well then; I got worse down here all the time, and I went over there simply because I thought it might do me good.
- Q You didn't go to Missouri to make your home ? A No sir.
- Q Did you, at any time, ever have any intention of making your home anywhere else ? A No sir.
- Q At any time ? A No sir I never did.
- Q You always considered Indian Territory and the Cherokee Nation your home ? A I always have.
- Q That was your intention of coming from Arkansas to make your home ? A Yes sir.
- Q How old were you then ? A Well, it was 1894; I was somewhere about sixteen years old.
- Q How old is your husband ? A He's twenty eight.

Q Where are you living now ? A Well--
 Q At Noel, Missouri ? A I have been staying there a while, what time I wasn't here; I have been here almost as much as I have been there.
 Q You have got that house furnished ? A Yes sir.
 Q You say the reason you haven't moved down here is because you couldn't get possession of your house ? A Yes sir
 Q Has it been leased all the time you have had it ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Was it leased for more than one year ? A Yes sir, leased for several years. I bought the place from a man that told me, that the lease was on the house, and I never bothered them because I found out he leased it to them lawfully, and I never said anything about it, but I have drawn rent for the old ground.
 Q You have drawn rent from it ever since you got it ?
 A Ever since I got it--he gets me two years' rent on the old ground, and ever since that I have drawn rent.
 Q When will the lease be up ? A After this crop is over.
 Q Where were you living when you made application for enrollment ?
 A Why I had just went to Noel.
 Q That, really, has been the only place where you have had a house, where you have had a home ? A Where I have had a house, yes.
 Q You don't want to call it home ? A No sir, I never have.
 Q You have never kept house anywhere else since the spring of 1898 ? A I can't say I have kept house, I have lived with other people to help them to keep house.
 Q Is it your intention, when this lease is out to move your furniture down here ? A That's what I have always intended.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q Has your husband ever lived in the Cherokee Nation since the spring of 1898 ? A He never has.
 Q Ever been in the Cherokee Nation since then ?
 A Yes sir he went down here and worked almost all of last winter, but you couldn't say that is his home, but he has been here several times, but he don't want his home here.
 Q He has never pretended to make the Cherokee Nation his home since he left in the spring of 1898, then ? A No sir.

Examined by the Commission:

Q Where was his home ? A When?
 Q Where has your husband's home been since the spring of 1898 ?
 A Just first one place and then another.
 Q But where is his home, he must have some place he calls home ?
 A No sir, I never heard him talk about it.
 Q Has he ever come down here with you on any of these visits ?
 A No sir.
 Q Has he ever been in the Cherokee Nation since the spring of 1898 ? A Yes, he worked here almost all of last winter.
 Q In the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
 Q What part of the nation ? A I don't know exactly what part, it was down, away down here in the Nation some place.
 Q You weren't with him ? A No sir I wasn't with him. It was railroad work.
 Q You don't know, then, whether your husband will come to live with you at Grove or not, do you ?
 A I am coming whether he does or not.
 Q You don't know whether he will come with you or not ?
 A I think he will when I start, but I can't say. He has always heard me say I was coming.
 Q Did you ever hear him say where he claimed his home ?
 A No sir, he don't claim his citizenship here.
 Q Where does he claim it ? A I don't know.

Q Has he ever testified before the Commission here at all that you know of? A Not that I know of.

Q Your husband is up in Noel now isn't he?

A No sir, I don't know where he is, he's been away for about three weeks.

Q When he turns up he will probably turn up at Noel?

A I don't know; I guess he will.

Q What is your husband's occupation? A I don't know; it aint anything that I know of, he's at first one thing and then another.

Hasn't any trade has he? A No sir.

Q Just a laborer? A Yes sir.

Q Does whatever he can find to do? A That's all.

Q Some of the time he doesn't do anything?

A Lots of the time he doesn't.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q Do you know what made your husband leave Grove in 1898?

A No, I don't; I have heard lots, but I don't know.

Q Well, what did you hear about it? A I don't remember what I heard about it.

Q Wasn't it on account of some trouble? A Well, he got into some trouble, and then he left there, and I never saw him any more but a few minutes at one time until he come home on that furlough.

By the Commission:

Q He went to St. Louis to join the army? A Yes sir, joined the First Missouri Regiment.

Q You didn't consider that a separation in any way when he went away and joined the army? A No sir, I never thought anything about it very much. I just thought he had gone and joined the army, and I was looking out for myself.

Q You expected, of course, he would come back there?

A I didn't know whether he would ever come back or not, I didn't know what to think.

Q He did come back, however? A Yes sir he did come back.

I didn't know whether he would ever come back or not, and didn't think very much about it.

Q How much of the time is he gone from home? A Now?

Q Since he joined the army, how much of the time would he be at home with you, and how much away? A He's gone away a good deal.

Q Does he send his wages home to you?

A Sometimes he does and sometimes he don't.

Q You don't depend on him for a living? A No sir, I don't; but when he gives it to me I take it.

J. C. STARR, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q State your name, age and residence? A My name is J. C. Starr, my age is 32; postoffice, Winita, Indian Territory.

Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Tettie Barr?

A Yes sir, I know Tettie Barr the applicant, and her husband E. J. Barr.

Q How long have you known them? A I became acquainted with Mr. Barr in the fall of 1896, I think it was perhaps in the month of November Mr. Barr came down to Grove to see about renting a business house of some kind, and he come in, and I was postmaster at the time, and he told me he was going to move to Grove; and he did move there soon after that; I don't know whether it was in December, 1896, or in January, 1897, but it was a short time after his visit. Mr. Barr lived there in Greve, and lived there with his wife, and lived there the rest of the winter, and the town of Greve was incorporated in February, 1897. Soon after that, in the following April, they had a city election there, and the election occurred about April 1, 1897, and as soon as the town was organized and officers elected took charge, Mr. Barr was appointed Marshal. I was there myself as Mayor, and he was marshal under me during that year.

Q During the year 1897? A Yes sir. In the year 1898, during the winter, the following winter, in 1897 and early spring of 1898, well in 1898, that is, from the time Mr. Barr was appointed marshal he continued to reside in Greve through the following winter, and in the early spring of 1898 he left Greve and went to Missouri; I remember his leaving. I was at Greve frequently about that time; had a sister sick with consumption and I went to see her frequently along about then, and I remember very well about the time Mr. Barr left.

Q That was in the spring of 1898? A Yes sir.

Q Did his wife leave shortly after that? A Yes sir. Mr. Barr was said to have had some trouble with the district clerk in Delaware District; this occurred in April, on April 20, 1898, and that is about the time he left.

Q Was that supposed to be the cause of his leaving?

A That was said to be the cause, of course I don't know, but he left immediately after that, and he has not resided in the Cherokee Nation since then to my knowledge.

Q Do you know whether E. J. Barr is an applicant to be enrolled by this Commission? A He has made no application himself; he is listed for enrollment from information, by the Commission itself.

Q From the fact of his being on the 1896 roll? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether he has made any effort to identify himself as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir, he has not.

Q Do you know the reason why? A Its on account of this trouble in the clerk's office is the only reason I know of, that he doesn't care to come back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Do you know whether this applicant, Tettie Barr has property in the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know anything about that, only what she says.

Q You don't know that of your own knowledge? A No sir.

J. M. TITTLE, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A J. M. Tittle.

Q How old are you? A I am fifty six years old.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A I am.

Q Do you know the applicant in this case, Tettie Barr?

A I do.

Q How long have you known her? A I have known her pretty near all her life, ever since she was little bit of a thing.

Q Do you know anything about what property she owns or has owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well she had a lot of town property here in the Cherokee Nation from her father's estate after her father died; her father was killed here; and then she had a farm east of here somewhere near Grove, in that section of the country.

Q She inherited that from her father? A Yes sir.

Q What became of that place? A It was sold by the administrator.

Q When? A I don't remember just what year it was, but sometime after her father died, and he bought the place in, and held it, as I understand it, for them himself.

Q The administrator? A Yes sir, that is the way I understood it from him at the time.

Q How long did he hold that place for them?

A Until they became of age, as I understood it. He agreed then, to settle with them; they didn't want the place, and he agreed to settle with them for so much, and keep the place himself.

Q That was done was it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know if Mrs. Barr owns any property in the Cherokee Nation at this time? A Not of my own knowledge.

Q Do you know her husband? A I do.

Q Where has their residence been in the last three, or four or five years? A Well, I can't say just how long it's been, they stayed in Grove sometime, and they stayed here, they come up to my house after they were married and stayed there a while, and then they moved here in town and stayed here, and they were back and forth; they would go during that time to Pineville, and would go back and forth, and the last place I knew of them living was at Grove.

Q Are you intimately acquainted with this man Barr?

A Oh yes sir.

Q Do you know where he claims his residence?

A I don't know.

Q He doesn't claim any rights in the Cherokee Nation, does he?

A Not that I know of. He was claiming rights in the nation at the time he was here, but I haven't seen him since he left Grove, I don't know what he is claiming now.

Q He had some trouble in the Cherokee Nation?

A Its my understanding, yes sir; I have been told that he had some trouble here, and that was one reason he didn't come back here.

Q Have you seen much of this applicant in the last four or five years? A Oh yes sir, I have seen her very often.

Q Did you ever have any talk with her about her intentions as to making her home here? A Yes sir, she has always claimed this as her home.

Q Did you have any conversation on that subject?

A Yes sir, time and again. When she come here she generally come to my house, and in enrollment or anything of that kind she generally come to me to consult me.

Q That was about the time of the enrollment?

A Yes sir, and other times.

Q Prior to that time, say in 1898, did you have any conversation with her about that time? A Oh yes sir, at different times, along somewhere about that time; during the times she was here back and forth she would consult me a good deal; in fact I watched after it a good deal while she was back there, and would report to her and her grandfather, and I assisted in helping them to get enrolled.

Q Did you know her sister Nora? A Yes sir.

Q Has she always lived in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir, I think so, ever since she was married; she bought a place from my daughter up here about five or six miles from here. Her other sister, I haven't saw her. She was a younger one and was taken away to California, and was away there until she couldn't come here and claim her rights.

Q From the various conversations you have had with this applicant in the last four or five years, do you understand and believe that this applicant has always wished to claim a home in this country ?

A I do, yes sir.

Q Do you know whether her husband has maintained a home elsewhere for her ? A I don't know.

Q How often would she come down to the Cherokee Nation ?

A I can't tell you, she's been back and forth, principally without a home, back and forth here ; down here and back up there. It seems that they were just rambling around, and had no home, and he returns back up there a good deal on account of his mother.

Q What is he doing ? A Just one thing and then another, no particular occupation that I know of.

Q Do you know whether he regards himself as a citizen of Missouri ?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know if he has voted up there since he was married ?

A I don't know.

Q Do you know how long he was in the army ? A No sir. I didn't pay any attention to it.

On the same day, the following testimony was introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

F. M. CONNER, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q State your name ? A F. M. Conner.

Q What is your post office ? A Fairland.

Q What is your age ? A Fifty.

Q Are you acquainted with Mr. E. J. Barr and his wife Tottie Barr ?

A I was acquainted with E. J.

Q When did you become acquainted with him ? A In about 1897.

Q Where was he living then ? A He was living at Grove, I. T.

Q Did you ever have any business transactions with him of any kind ? A Yes sir.

Q State what it was ? A Well, in April, 1898, I was at Afton, Indian Territory, and he asked me if I was buying National tickets, I told him I would buy some at a reasonable discount.

Q Did you buy some tickets from Mr. Barr ?

A Yes sir I bought some tickets from him.

Q Do you know when that was Mr. Conner ?

A It was about April 18, 1898.

Q Did you ever hear anything further about these tickets after that, as to how Barr came with them ?

A In about a week I got a letter from the clerk of the district, Mr. Washburn.

Q What did he say about it ? A He asked me, in the letter, if I had bought some tickets from E. J. Barr, and I answered him that I had; and he said the tickets were stolen out of his office.

Q Out of the office of the district clerk of Delaware District ?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, what became of Mr. Barr after that ?

A I learned in a few days after that that they had got out a warrant for him and he had left the country.

SIMPSON F. MELTON, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by J. C. Starr:

Q State your name ? A Simpson F. Melton.

Q What is your age ? A Fifty.

Q What is your post office ? A Vinita.

- Q Are you acquainted with E. J. Barr ? A Yes sir.
- Q Acquainted with his wife Tottie Barr ? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you known Mrs. Barr ? A Well, personally, I reckon about eight years, seven or eight years.
- Q How long have you known her husband E. J. Barr ?
- A About the same length of time.
- Q Where did you first become acquainted with them ?
- A Why with Barr in Southwest City, Missouri, I believe, that's ~~where~~ when he and Mrs. Barr were married, a few days afterward.
- Q Do you know about the time E. J. Barr and his wife moved to Grove, I. T. ? A Why I know about the time, but I don't remember the date.
- Q Do you know where they had been living immediately before removing to Grove ? A Pineville, Missouri, I think, for I was up there.
- Q Were you ever up at Pineville while they were living there ?
- A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know about how long they lived at Grove ?
- A Why they--I don't know how long--they lived there a year I know, maybe longer.
- Q Do you know about when they left Grove, Mr. Barr and his wife ?
- A They left somewhere along the latter part of May or first of June, 1898.
- Q Do you know where they went ? A No, I don't; I heard.
- Q Do you know of the cause of Mr. Barr leaving Grove ?
- A Well, I heard the cause.
- Q What did you hear about it ? A I just heard that he got into some kind of trouble over about Afton about some tickets.
- Q How soon after this trouble about these tickets before Barr and his wife left ? A Barr left first, a few days, I don't know how long, I think about a week, and he come back and got Mrs. Barr.
- Q Where they are your house before they left ?
- A They were there. He come there first, him and his brother, and after his brother was there he went down and brought Mrs. Barr up, and stayed the balance of the night, and went on the next morning; started pretty early.
- Q How long do you think that was after the occurrence about the tickets at Afton ? A I don't think it was over ten days, couldn't have been.
- Q Do you know anything about the place Mrs. Barr claims over south of Grove on Whitewater ? A Yes sir.
- Q Whose place was that before Mrs. Barr laid claim to it ?
- A It would be mighty hard to tell, Tasselmeyer had bought the place from a man named Sutton, but I don't think that Tasselmeyer or Sutton either one had possession of it.
- Q Who made the place ? A A man named Kunkel made the place.
- Q Has he been living on it all the time since he made it ?
- A He had up to the time I knew anything about it two years ago.

Examined by the Commission:

- Q That's the man that leased the place, this Kunkel you spoke of ?
- A In the first place he was a claimant, but he made a kind of a lease, I heard he did, with Alex Sutton, they said they had a contract, but I never seen it. Anyway, he sold whatever claim he had to it to William Tasselmeyer, and he kept it a while and sold what claim he had to Mrs. Barr. Kunkel in the mean while remained on the place, and they couldn't get possession of it, none of them.
- Q Is Kunkel a citizen ? A No sir.
- Q Who is living on it now ? A Well, its my impression he is.
- Q Paying rent is he ? A I don't think he is; I don't think he has ever paid any rent that ever I heard of.
- Q You don't know do you ? A He hadn't paid any rent up to a year ago.

- Q How do you know that ? A Well, my sister was telling me and she was kinder mixed up in it, I don't think Mrs. Barr--
- Q You don't know any more about it than what your sister told you ?
- A Well my sister was Mrs. Tasselmayer.
- Q This Tasselmayer hasn't collected any rent lately ?
- A He's dead.
- Q Well, Mrs. Tasselmayer ? A She hasn't never collected any rent on it.
- Q You don't know whether Kunkel was paying rent to anybody else or not, do you ? A No sir.

Examined by J. C. Starr:

- Q Have either Mr. Barr or Mrs. Barr lived in the vicinity of Grove since they left there in the spring of 1898 ?
- A Not to my knowledge. I have lived there.

MOLLIE WARD, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A Mollie E. Ward.
- Q What is your age ? A I am twenty eight years old.
- Q What is your post office ? A Grove, Indian Territory.
- Q How long have you lived at Grove, Indian Territory ?
- A Twenty eight years.
- Q Have you lived there all your life ? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you living there in the year 1897 ? A Yes sir. That was my post office of course.
- Q Are you acquainted with E. J. Barr and his wife Tottie Barr ?
- A I was acquainted with his wife.
- Q When did you become acquainted with her ? A In 1897, I suppose along about the last of 1897 or the first of 1898.
- Q Where was she living when you became acquainted with her ?
- A She was living in Grove.
- Q Do you know how long she lived there ? A No sir.
- Q Do you know when she left there or about when ?
- A Well I don't know, she left near January 13, after that.
- Q How do you fix that date ? A On my grandma died along about that time, and she was there at that time.
- Q She left soon after that ? A Soon after that.
- Q Do you know where she went ? A No sir, I don't know; she went to Missouri somewhere.
- Q Do you know in whose house E. J. Barr and his wife lived during the latter part of the time they lived in Grove ?
- A She lived in my father's house.
- Q In Grove ? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she living in there up to the time she left ?
- A Yes sir, I think so.
- Q Did either Mr. Barr or his wife Tottie Barr leave any property in Grove at the time they left in the spring of 1898 ?
- A Not that I knew of.

J. C. WELCH, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by J. C. Starr:

- Q What is your name ? A J. C. Welch, is the way I sign my name.
- Q What is your age ? A Fifty three.
- Q What is your post office ? A Grove.

Q How long have you been living at Grove ? A I have been living there by Grove, I don't live right in Grove, I judge, for somewhere about twenty eight or thirty years.

Q Are you acquainted with E. J. Barr and his wife Tottie Barr ? A Well I was slightly acquainted with them.

Q When did you become acquainted with them ? A I don't remember just exactly what year it was, I believe, though, it was in 1897, the first time I ever seen them.

Q Where did you see them ? A There at Grove.

Q Did they move to Grove about the time you became acquainted with them ? A Yes sir.

Q How long did they live at Grove ? A Well sir, I can't tell exactly how long they did live there, I would judge somewhere about a year probably.

Q Do you know about what time they left there ? A They left there, to my best recollection, it was the spring of 1898.

Q Had they been living in a house of yours up to that time ? A Yes sir, they was living in the house when they went away.

Q Did they move away when they left ? A Yes sir.

Q Took all their effects with them ? A They took everything out of my house.

Q Took it away with them ? A I suppose they took it away with them, they took it out of my house.

Q Do you know where they went from there ? A My understanding was Pineville.

Q Missouri ? A Pineville, Missouri.

Q Have they ever lived in that vicinity since then ? A Not that I ever knowed of.

TOTTIE BARR, re-called, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q How long was it after your husband left Grove before you heard that he had joined the army ? A Well now then, he left Grove one day, and I didn't know anything about this trouble at that time, and he went over to Southwest City to a horse race, and I think it wasn't but--oh I guess a day or two or three days after that, I don't know exactly, it might have been two or three days, that he come back to Grove after me and took me home to his mother's up at Pineville, and then he went away and I didn't see him until I got a letter that he was in the army.

Q Did he tell you that he was going to join the army ? A He didn't tell me when he started that he was going to join the army; but he had talked about joining the army before anything come up.

Q How long was it after he went away before you heard that he had joined the army ? A I don't know, it might have been as much as two or three weeks before I got a letter, I didn't know it until I did get the letter.

Q You can't fix the time when he got back from the army can you ? A No sir, I can't I don't know what month he come back in, and I don't know how many months he was gone, it was quite a while.

Q When you moved away from Grove did you take any household furniture with you ? A I took some.

Q Did you move some ? A Yes sir.

Q Did you leave some of it there ? A Yes sir.

Q Is it there yet ? A I never did go after it, I left them at Mr. Melton's sister's, I never did go after it or say anything about it.

Q He took you up to Pineville with him to his mother's ? A Yes sir.

Q Did he say why you were going up there ?

A No sir, he never did talk with me anything about it; he never has.

Q About that trouble ? A No sir.

Q When he asked you to go along up to Pineville, did he tell you that you were going on a visit or why ? A No sir.

Q Did you ask him why ? A No sir, I didn't ask him why, because I knew there was something and I didn't want to know. I simply went up there, and then I come back to the Grove, I didn't stay.

Q You suspected there was something wrong ?

A I had an idea there was.

Q What did you suppose you were going up there for ?

A I supposed then, when I went, that I was going for a few day's visit. Then I come back and got what few things I wanted, and then went back and stayed with her.

Q Did you ever talk with your husband about this trouble at all ?

A Well, I guess he would have been like any otherman and said it wasn't so. I asked him one day about it and he said no it wasn't so. I never cared to talk about it.

Q He never gave that as a reason for going away ? A No sir.

Q You don't know whether that is the reason or not ? A No sir.

Q So far as you know it may be ?

A I don't know if that is it at all.

The Commission. Parties having no further evidence to offer, proofs are closed, and the case is, by agreement, submitted to the Commission for final consideration.

E. C. Bagwell, on oath states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Cherokee Case 78.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Tottie Barr as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on July 10, 1900, Tottie Barr appeared before the Commission at Fairland, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Vinita, Indian Territory, on February 17, 1903.

On November 5, 1902, Tottie Barr was included in a partial list of Cherokees by blood, at number 252, which was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. Thereafter the Cherokee Nation, through its legal representatives, filed with the Secretary of the Interior a motion to reopen said case which was granted, and the Commission, in pursuance of instructions to that effect, reopened said case and received evidence submitted by the Cherokee Nation and the applicant.

The evidence shows that Tottie Barr, sometimes called Lizzie, was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities of said nation, on December 7, 1898, as Lizzie Carrot.

The evidence further shows that she continued to live in the Cherokee Nation for two or three years when, her parents having died, she was removed by her grandfather, as guardian, to the State of Arkansas and continued to live with him until July, 1894, when she returned to Vinita, Indian Territory, being at that time a minor, and was married to one Ernest Barr, a white man. The said Tottie Barr is identified on the Cherokee strip payment roll of 1894 and the Cherokee census roll of 1898.

The evidence further shows that the said Tottie Barr remained in Vinita for about two years subsequent to her marriage when she removed to Pineville, Missouri, where she remained a few months and returned to the Cherokee Nation immediately preceding or subsequent to New Years, 1898. It further appears that her husband joined the army in June, 1898, and she again removed from the Cherokee Nation shortly prior to that time. During her said husband's absence and period of enlistment, she visited out of the Cherokee Nation and Indian Territory. It does not appear that the said Tottie Barr, subsequent to June, 1898, resumed a permanent residence in the Cherokee Nation; it does appear, however, that she is the owner of lands which are leased and intended, upon the termination of said leases, to occupy and locate on said lands, which are situate in the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence further shows that prior to her removal from the Cherokee Nation in 1897, she sold some property she owned and thereafter purchased property in said nation, hereinafter referred to, and was the owner thereof at the time of this application. It is considered that her removal in 1894 was in good faith and her residence in the Cherokee Nation was thereby established.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the decision of the Department in the case of Joseph B. Yeorgin, et al., (I.T.D. 2900-1893), Tottie Barr should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stat., 425), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

November 15, 1902 (I. T. D. 6672), the Department forwarded to this office for consideration in connection with the application of Tottie Barr for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, a motion for further hearing in the case filed by the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation; and the office is now in receipt of Departmental letter of January 13, 1903 (I. T. D. 361), forwarding for consideration, immediate report, and recommendation a motion for a reopening of this case filed by the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

The record relative to the application of Tottie Barr has not reached this office. It is thought, however, that, if the Cherokee Nation can show what it is alleged in the motion will be shown if further proceedings are had, the Nation should have an opportunity to make such showing. From the affidavits attached to the motion it would seem that the Nation will be able to prove the allegations of the motion.

It is respectfully recommended that the motion be forwarded to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes with instructions to reopen the case and give the Nation further opportunity to present evidence. The applicant should be given notice of such reopening and also be allowed to submit additional evidence in support of her claims for enrollment as a citizen of the Nation.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

C.A.W. (S)

Gentlemen:

The attorney for the Cherokee Nation has filed two motions to have reopened the case of Totie Barr enrolled on your roll No. 252, which portion of the Cherokee roll was approved by the Department November 5, 1902.

Reporting the matter January 15, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs did not observe the fact of the enrollment of Totie Barr and supposed that the matter was in regard to a "record" case. He, however, states that if the Cherokee Nation can show that what it is alleged in the motion will be shown, if further proceedings are had, the Nation should have an opportunity to make such showing, and that from the affidavits filed with the motion it would seem that the Nation will be able to prove the allegations in the motion, and he recommended that the motion be forwarded to you, with instructions to reopen the case and give the Nation further opportunity to present additional evidence..

The Department concurs in the recommendation and incloses the two motions filed by the attorney for the Nation. Of course, Totie Barr should be given notice of such reopening and also be allowed to submit additional evidence in the matter of her enrollment as a citizen of said nation.

A copy of the Commissioner's letter is also inclosed.

Respectfully,

Gentlemen:

October 8, 1903, you resubmitted the record in the matter of the application of Tottie (or Lizzie) Barr (Cherokee #75), for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, with your decision of September 11, 1903, granting said application.

It seems that on November 5, 1902, this applicant was included in a partial list of Cherokees by blood, at No. 252, which was approved by the Secretary of the Interior; but, upon a motion of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, the case was returned to you for further investigation.

With his report of March 28, 1904, in the matter, the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision, which was based upon the ruling of the Department in the Yeargain case, be approved. A copy of his letter is inclosed.

The Department concurs in said recommendation. Your decision is accordingly affirmed.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

WASHINGTON.

March 28, 1904.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a communication from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 8, 1903, transmitting the record relative to the application of Tottie Barr for enrollment as citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

September 11, 1903, the Commission held that under the decision of the Department in the Yeargain case, Tottie Barr was entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Tottie Barr is included in the partial list of Cherokees by blood which has been approved by the Department. Subsequent to the approval of this partial list, the attorneys for the Choctaw Nation filed a motion to reopen the case. This motion was granted.

The evidence shows that Tottie Barr was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation December 7, 1889 under the name of Lizzie Carrot. She lived in the Nation two or three years when her parents died and she was removed to Arkansas by her grandfather. She resided there until July, 1894, when she returned to Vinita, Indian Territory and was married to Ernest Barr, a white man. She was a minor when she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1894.

She is identified by scrip payment roll of 1894 and the census roll of 1896. About two years after her marriage she removed to Pineville, Missouri, where she remained a few months and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the latter part of December, 1897.

In June, 1898, her husband joined the army and she removed from the Cherokee Nation shortly before that time. During her husband's period of enlistment she visited out of the Cherokee Nation and although she does not seem to have permanently removed to the Cherokee Nation since June, 1898, she has owned lands within the limits of the Nation which are leased, and from the evidence it appears that she intends upon the termination of said leases to locate and occupy said lands.

From the evidence in this case it appears to the office that Tottie Barr removed to and in good faith permanently located in the Cherokee Nation in 1894, and the office believes that she is entitled to enrollment, and that her prior enrollment should be allowed to stand. The approval of the Commission's decision is therefore recommended.

Very respectfully,

A. C. Tonner,

Acting Commissioner.

In the matter of the application of Anna Hardy for the enrollment of herself and children, Jennie Ethel and Howard Lee Hardy, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of her husband, John Hardy, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

John Hardy, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John Hardy.
Q What is your age at this time? A Forty-two.
Q What is your postoffice? A Miami.
Q Are you the same John Hardy for whom application was made to this Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen on July 10, 1900? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Mollie.
Q Is she living or dead? A She is living.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q When were you and your wife, Mollie, married? A Married April 7, 1895.
Q Who is Anna Hardy? A That is the same woman.
Q Is she sometimes called Anna and sometimes called Mollie? A When we were married and when I went to get the marriage license I called her Mollie; that was her nickname, and she was married under that name, but her proper name is Anna.
Q Had you ever been married before you and your wife, Anna, were married? A Yes sir.
Q How many times before that? A Once.
Q Was your first wife a white woman or Cherokee? A White woman.
Q Was she living or dead when you married your wife, Anna? A She was dead.
Q Had your wife, Anna, ever been married before she married you? A No sir.
Q You her first husband? A Yes sir.
Q She is your second wife? A Yes sir.
Q Have you and your wife lived together as husband and wife since your marriage in '95 up until the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Never separated? A No sir.
Q You have never been married to any other woman since you married Anna? A No sir.
Q You were living together on the first day of September, 1902? A Yessir.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all the time since you were married to your wife, Anna, in '95 up to the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Never lived out of the nation since then? A No sir.
Q Has your wife, Anna, lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since '80 up to the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Are these children, Jennie Ethel and Howard Lee, your children by your wife, Anna? A Yes sir.
Q Are they living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q Were they born, and have they lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since their birth up to the present time? A Yes sir.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. c

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Hueston Smith for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Hueston Smith.
Q What is the middle part of your name? A This is all there is of it.
Q What is your age? A Sixty-six, I believe.
Q What is your Post-office address? A Vinita, I. T.
Q What District is that in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A About nine-teen years.
Q How long have you lived in the Territory? A I've been here since 56'9.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A No sir.
Q How do you make your application; as an inter-married citizen of the Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been outside of the Indian Territory during the past three years? A No sir; just visiting, that is all.
Q Have you made your home steadily for the last nine-teen years at Vinita? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever been enrolled by the Cherokee tribal authorities? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
(Applicant's name appears on Page 171, #2551, on the Roll of 1880.)
Q Does your name appear on the 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess it does.
(Applicant's name appears on Page 323, #397, Cooweescoowee District, Hueston Smith on the Roll of 1896.)
Q Have you children you wish to appear for? A No sir.
Q You have no children under twenty one years of age, living with you? A No sir.
Q Your wife is still living? A Yes sir.

The name of Mr. Hueston Smith is found on the 1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, page 171, #2551; and also on the 1896 census Roll of the Cherokee Nation, Page 323, #397; the applicant is identified as the same person whose name has been enrolled, and he is hereby enrolled by this Commission as an inter-married citizen.

R. R. Cravens, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 10th day of July, 1900.

1. The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the country is of Indian descent, and that the majority of the population of the country is of Indian descent.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 3, 1865. It is a message of condolence to the people of the United States, who have just suffered a great loss in the death of Abraham Lincoln. The President expresses his deep sorrow and sympathy for the people, and he assures them that the Government will do everything in its power to comfort them and to carry out the wishes of the late President.

SPECIAL.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 5, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 (U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 22254, and of Adeline Ratlingourd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 applicants, whose names appear on the roll opposite the numbers following their respective names:

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights ^{with} Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

William Wolfe,

Redgeee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

When you applied to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, you gave your name as William Wolfe, while in the affidavit which you signed as the father of your child, Henry Oscar Wolfe, it is noted that your name appears as Mr. Wolfe.

The affidavit is herewith returned to you, and you are requested to have same corrected so that your name will appear therein as it appears upon the Commission's records, William Wolfe.

Yours truly,

Noting Chairman.

William Wolfe,

Miami, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Mr. C. E. James,

Fairland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of April 2, enclosing birth affidavit in the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Jesse B. Coffman, infant child of G. H. Coffman and Cornelia J. Coffman. It appears from this affidavit that the mother of this child has been married since the date of her enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

It will be necessary that the Commission be supplied with the original or a certified copy of her marriage license and certificate. Please give this matter your prompt attention.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

SPECIAL.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 8, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 (U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 23254, and of Adeline Ratlingourd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Theo. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 8, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 applicants, whose names appear on the roll opposite the numbers following their respective names:

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights ^{with} Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Ada H. James,
Fairland, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

this January 10, 1907.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 30, 1907

Lorenzo James,

Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of January 12, relative to the right of your wife, to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, you are advised that the United States Supreme Court by its decision of November 5, 1906, held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens by blood, according to Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and that such persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens by blood subsequent to said date are not entitled to enrollment.

You are further advised that, on January 10, 1907, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision refusing the application for the enrollment of Ada M. James as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and on the same date said decision was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review.

That part of your letter relative to the disposition of the land reserved by your wife, will be made the subject of a separate communication.

Respectfully,

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FAIRLAND, I. T. JULY 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Albert B. James et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said James being sworn by Commissioner Breckenridge testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Albert B. James.
Q What is your age? A 22.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Miami.
Q Where do you live? A 7 or 8 miles north of this place.
Q What district is your home in? A Delaware.
Q How long have you lived at your present home? A A little over a year.
Q Where did you live before that time? A About 7 miles south of here.
Q How long did you live at that point? A A little over 20 years.
Q Where were you born? A Delaware district?
Q Have you lived continuously in the Territory all of your life? A Yes.
Q Have you ever been out of the Territory? A Only on short visits.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes.
Q What is the name of your father? A Solon James.
We have gone through the evidence of Solon James and will not repeat the interrogatories relating to him; and also examined the record as to Tennessee James and will not repeat the questions relating to her.
Q Does your name appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880 of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
The age of the roll corresponds to the age that he gives at this time and his page is 272 and number 1373 on 1880 roll
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A 1/32.
Q Are you married, Mr. James? A Yes sir.
Q Under what law were you married? A United States law.
Q You make no application for your wife? A Yes, she is a Cherokee.
Q You married her under United States law, but your wife is a Cherokee? A Yes.
Q Have you your marriage license or certificate with you? A No sir.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A 6 miles south of here.
Q What was your wife's name before she was married? A Lucinda Miller.
Q How old is your wife? A She will be 20 years old in October.
Q Is she now living? A Yes.
Q Is her name on the 1880 roll of the Cherokee Tribe? A No sir.
Q What is the name of your wife's father? A Andy Miller.
Q And the name of her mother? A Martha Miller.
Applicant's wife is found duly recorded on the roll of 1896 as Lucinda Miller, page 527 No. 2160, aged at that time 15 years.
Q When were you married? A '99.
Q Have you a license or certificate of marriage? A Yes, but not with me.
Q Is your wife here? A No sir.
Q You and your wife are living together at this time? A Yes.
Q Have you children? A Yes, one.
Q When was that child born? A Last September.
Q Your wife is not a Cherokee is she by blood? A Yes, she is.
Q Have you a certificate of the birth of that child? A Yes.

Q Give the name of your child? A Cherokee Marye, 10 months old.
Well, Mr. James, your name appears duly recorded, as shown in the evidence, upon the roll of 1880, and that of your wife appears upon the roll of 1896; both of you, as shown by the evidence, being Cherokees by blood, and both you and your wife will be enrolled by this Commission as Cherokees by blood, and your child will be similarly enrolled when you perfect the certificate you hand in at this time and forward it to the Commission at its office in Muskogee, the final enrollment being contingent upon this certificate of birth.

Brown McDonald, being sworn by Commissioner Clifton R. Breckenridge, as a Stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full and correct transcript

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FAIRLAND, I.T. JULY 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application by Nancy Tabor for her grand-child, JESSIE TAYLOR, for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen, said Nancy Tabor being sworn by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified:

- Q What is your name? A Nancy Tabor.
Q What is your age? A 62.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q How far do you live from Fairland? A 5 or 6 miles.
Q Is that your permanent home? A Yes.
Q How long have you lived there? A About two months.
Q Where did you live before that time? A We lived over at Duenweg, Mo., but we have only left the Nation about 18 months.
Q Where have you lived the last three years? A In the Nation close to Fairland the biggest part of the time.
Q Where have you lived before that? A 16 years in the Nation, until we went to Duenweg, Missouri.
Q How long did you live at Duenweg? A Went out there last November and came back the 3rd day of May.
Q Where did you live before that? A In the Cherokee nation.
Q Where were you born? A In Tennessee. It is the baby that I am claiming for, not for myself.
Q Tell us something about this baby-- what is it's name? A Jessie Taylor; father's name is Lewis Taylor. She is my grand-child. Its parents are not living. It is an orphan.
Q Was its father a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q By blood? A Yes.
Q When did he die? A Last February a year ago.
Q How old is this child? A Five years old.
Q Where did Lewis Taylor live? A In Illinois district.
Q What postoffice? A Vian.
Q Does his name appear on the roll of 1880? A I suppose it does-- it appears upon every roll.
Q How old was he when he died? A I didn't know his age.
Q What was the name of this child's mother? A Martha Tabor before she was married. Martha Taylor after she was married.
Q When was she married to Lewis Taylor? A In '94 or '95.
Q This paper you hand me is her marriage certificate? A Yes.
Q Was the mother of this child a white woman or an Indian woman? A She was a white woman.
Q This child claims under and through its father? A Yes.

Jessie Taylor, the child for whom application is made, is found duly recorded on the roll of 1896, page 909, No. 1955 Illinois district. There is produced before the Commission a duly authenticated certificate of marriage between Lewis Taylor and Martha Tabor, the ceremony having been performed on the 22nd day of July, 1894, by the Rev. Samuel Bass, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The certificate is duly attested and is accepted by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation as ample evidence of the marriage.

Well, madam, it appearing that the father and mother of this child being dead, and the father's name appearing upon regularly upon the roll of 1880, and the marriage being duly established, and the child's name appearing upon the roll of 1896, its name will be enrolled upon the roll that is being prepared now by this Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FAIRLAND, I.T. JULY 12, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Samuel Duniven et als., for enrollment as Cherokee citizens, said Duniven being sworn by Commissioner Clifton R. Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Samuel Duniven.
Q What is your age? A 32.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A Six miles north of here.
Q Is that your permanent residence? A yea.
Q How long have you lived there? A I lived there about 9 months.
Q Where did you live before that? A Blue Jacket.
Q Where were you born? A In the Southwest part of Arkansas.
Q How long have you lived in the Territory? A About 23 years.
Q Have you lived 23 years continuously in the territory? A With the exception of about 13 months.
Q When was it that you were absent 13 months? A It was about 11 years ago.
Q Have you lived for the last ten years continuously in the Territory? A Yes.
Q And what places have been your home? A Blue Jacket four years and over here ever since.
Q What district is Blue Jacket in? A This district.
Q What is the name of this district? A Delaware.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A No sir.
Q How do you claim? A By marriage.
Q When did you marry? A About 6 years ago.
Q Your wife is a Cherokee by blood? A yes.
Q Does your name appear upon any of the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee tribe? A yes, on the '96, I believe.
Applicant's name appears duly recorded on the '96 roll from Delaware district, page 569, number 122, as Samuel Duniphin.
Q Under what law were you married? A Cherokee.
Q Have you your marriage license or certificate? A Yes.
Q What was your wife's name before ~~you~~ she was married? A Nellie Duncan.
Q Is she now living? A yes.
Q How old is your wife at this time? A 23.
Q What was your wife's full and proper name before you married her? A Ellen Frances Duncan.
Upon consulting the roll of 1880 his wife is found duly recorded as Ellen Frances Duncan, page 246, number 777. The applicant presents to the Commission a duly certified ~~marriage~~ marriage license issued to him on the 12th day of January, 1894, to be married to Nellie Duncan, which he states is the name by which his wife was commonly called. And it also appears in due form upon the back of that license, that the marriage ceremony was duly performed on the 16th day of January, 1894, the marriage having taken place according to the requirements of the Indian law.
Q How long did you say you had been married? A Six years, going on seven years.
Q Do you wish to make application for anyone besides yourself at this time? A My wife and one child.
Q You make application then for the enrollment of your wife? A yes.
Q Now give the names of your children and their ages? A David Nathaniel, four years old.
Q Is that child recorded on the roll of 1896? A Yes.

Well, Mr. Dumiven, it is found that you are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, as shown in the ~~xxx~~ evidence, and your wife is a citizen by blood, and your child is recorded on the '96 roll, and you will all be enrolled by this Commission, you as a citizen by intermarriage, and your wife and child as citizens by blood.

Replying to your letter of the 6th, will say, My name is properly spelled "Samuel Duniphin" but if I am not mistaken it is spelled both Duneven and Duniphin on the enrollment taken at Fairland in June, 1900. As to my wife, she got the order of her Christian name reversed, which should have been Ellen Frances Duniphin.

Yours very truly,

Samuel Duniphin

I, S.

The cause of my name ever being spelled Duneven was a mistake of the clerk when issuing my marriage license, I spoke to him at the time; but he thought that it made no difference as to it.

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--1.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 236 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FAIRLAND, I.T. JULY 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of George Washington Meyers et als., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee nation, said Meyers being sworn by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A George Washington Meyers.
- Q What is your age? A I don't know-- my mother's bible was lost ~~starting~~ in the time of the war, and I don't know exactly my age, but it is somewhere in the forties--- 44 or 45.
- Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
- Q Where is your home? A East of Fairland about one mile.
- Q How long have you lived there? A About 15 years.
- Q Where were you born? A In Sequoyah district; now live in Delaware district.
- Q Have you lived in the Territory all your life? A Yes.
- Q Never lived anywhere else? A No sir.
- Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes.
- Q What is the name of your father? A William Meyers.
- Q Is he living? A No sir.
- Q How long has he been dead? A He was killed the year the war ended.
- Q Was your father of Cherokee blood? A No sir.
- Q What is the name of your mother? A Her maiden name was Ruth Wilson.
- Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
- Q When did she die? A In the time of the war.
- Q Does your name appear upon the '80 authenticated roll of the Cherokee nation? A No sir. (Ought to be "Yes").
- Mr. Meyers name appears duly recorded in the roll of 1880 page 292, number 1850. The spelling of his name on the 1880 roll is "Miers." He appears also upon the roll of 1896, page 504, number 2075, Delaware District, on which roll his name is spelled "Meyers."
- Q Is your name sometimes spelled one way and sometimes another? A Yes.
- Q Should you consider "Myers" as the proper spelling? A Yes.
- Q Are you married? A Yes.
- Q Is your wife living? A Yes.
- Q Under what law were you married? A I was just married by a preacher; under the Cherokee law they did not require me to get any license; I am an Indian by blood.
- Q When were you married? A In '88.
- Q Is your wife now living? A Yes.
- Q Is her name on the roll of 1896? A Yes.
- Q What is her full name? A Rebecca Armitty Meyers.
- His wife's name is found duly recorded as given on page 582, number 390, of the roll of '96.
- Q Is she white or Indian? A A white woman.
- Q Have you any certificate or proof of marriage? A Yes.
- This statement, Mr. Meyers, is simply a typewritten statement signed in typewriting and seems to purport to be a copy of a certificate that might have been given you by the Rev. J. H. Baker to the effect that he married you on the 13th day of June, year not given, at the ~~express~~ residence of the bride in the Cherokee nation. There is a disconnected statement that it was simply to the effect it is 1888 without being anything to indicate that it was the date of the ceremony or the date of the copy.
- Q Were you married in 1888? A Yes.
- Q How comes it that you have got this copy of your certificate of marriage? A I had a little girl and my wife was a white woman and Lake Moore, my lawyer, who is at Fairland now, said that all these people-- their names would have to be enrolled and children that were born would have to be enrolled by the Daves Commission, and he was charging $10 for getting their names on the roll of the Daves Commission. When I went up there he said he would have to have a marriage certificate and I gave him my marriage certificate and he said he would send it to the Daves Commission, and it would be sent back to me, and I paid him $10 and went on, and he asked me several days after about it and he said it had not been returned and he would make me a copy of it.

Q When was that transaction? A It must have been in '97-- it was after that roll was made. The roll of '96.

Q You never got your certificate back yet? A No sir, I have not.

Q Have you children that you want to enroll? A Yes.

Q How many? A Three.

Q Give their names and ages? A Francis Marion Myers, 11 years old. (This name appears duly recorded upon the roll of '96, page 504, No. 2086.)

Q Any other child? A Yes. Edith Myers, aged 8 years. (This child appears duly recorded on the roll of 1896, page 504, number 2 277, Delaware district.)

Q The next child? A Georgie Myers, 4 years old. (This child is found duly recorded on the roll of '96, page 504, number 2078).

Q Is that all? A That's all the children I have.

Q Is your wife an Indian or a white woman? A White woman.

Q You make application for the wife upon the evidence already given in? A Yes.

Your name, Mr. Myers, is found duly recorded on the roll of 1880, and entitled you, with the evidence, to be enrolled as a Cherokee by blood, and your marriage appears from the roll of 1896, and other evidence, properly established; your wife appearing upon the roll of 1896 as your wife, she will be enrolled by the Commission as a citizen by marriage; and your children appearing also upon the roll of 1896, they will be enrolled by the Commission as citizens by blood.

TO : THE DIRECTOR, FBI FROM : SAC, NEW YORK
SUBJECT: [Illegible]

[Extremely faint and mostly illegible body text, appearing to be a memorandum or report.]

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I. T., October 25, 1902.

In the matter of the application of George W. Myers for the enrollment of himself and his four minor children, Francis M., Edith, Georgia and Lelia A. Myers, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Rebecca A. Myers, as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.

GEORGE W. MYERS, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

- Q What is your name, please? A George W. Myers.
Q What's your age, Mr. Myers? A Well, sir, I was raised an orphan boy. I don't know what my age is exactly, I am about forty-five years old or six, somewhere along there. My mother's bible was lost during the War. Forty-five or six, somewhere along there, I don't know.
Q What's your postoffice? A Fairland.
Q You're an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by blood, are you, Mr. Myers? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Rebecca.
Q Rebecca A.? A Yes, sir.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q And an applicant for enrollment by intermarriage? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married to your wife, Rebecca? A I was married in 1888.

The applicant offers in evidence a sworn copy of his marriage certificate, which certifies that he was married to Rebecca Damanny on the 13th of June, 1888, by J. H. Baker.

- Q What became of your original marriage certificate? A Well, I'll tell you. You know it has been five, six or seven years ago there was a lawyer up there at Fairland that had the adopted citizens all to send there certificates to the Dawes Commission and have them enrolled. He was kind of an agent and he had to have the marriage certificate to send to the Dawes Commission and he promised to return mine and he charged me ten dollars. I let Blakemore have mine and he said he sent it to the Dawes Commission and he never did return it and I stopped there yesterday to get the original but he had gone to Joplin, and I will get it tomorrow. A copy of the certificate mentioned above was filed with the testimony in this case.
Q Have you and your wife, Rebecca, lived together all the time as husband and wife from the time of your marriage up to the present time? A Yes, sir.
Q Never were separated? A No, sir.
Q Living together on the first day of September, 1902? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all the time since 1880 up to the present time? A Yes, sir, I lived here all my life.
Q Has your wife, Rebecca A., lived with you in the Cherokee Nation all the time since your marriage in '88 up to the present time? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married in Arkansas? A No, sir, we was married in the Territory.
Q Is your wife living at this time? A Yes, sir.
Q Are these children, Francis M., Edith, Georgia and Lelia A., your children by your wife, Rebecca? A Yes, sir.
Q Are they all living? A Yes, sir.
Q Have they lived all their lives in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

J. W. YOUNG, being sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

Q What is your name, please? A J. W. Young.
Q What's your age, Mr. Young? A My age?
Q Yes. A Thirty-four.
Q What's your postoffice? A Afton.
Q Do you know George W. Myers who is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Speak a little louder, please.
Q Do you know George W. Myers who is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known Mr. Myers? A Oh, twenty-five years.
Q Do you know his wife, Rebecca A.? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known her? A For the last fourteen years. Fifteen.
Q Did you know both of them before they were married? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know when they were married and where they were married? A Yes, sir.
Q Where and when? A At her residence.
Q Where is that? A Down there by Fairland.
Q About when was it, Mr. Young? A '88.
Q How do you know they were married? A I was present.
Q You were present when they were married? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you see the ceremony performed? A Yes, sir.
Q Who performed the ceremony? A I don't know the name.
Q Was he a minister or clerk of office? A I could not say as to that, whether clerk or not.
Q You are sure you was present and saw them married? A I was present and saw them married.
Q And have they been living together as husband and wife all the time since then? A Yes, sir.
Q You never heard of them being separated? A I never have.
Q Have George W. Myers and his wife been regarded by the neighbors there as husband and wife all the time since their marriage?
A Yes, sir.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
FAIRLAND, I.T. JULY 10, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William Kelly et als., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, said William Kelly being sworn by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A William Kelly.
Q What is your age? A 34.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A Fairland.
Q Is that your permanent residence? A Yes.
Q How long have you lived there? A 8 or 9 years.
Q Where did you live before that time? A Here in the Territory.
Q Where were you born? A In Vernon county, Missouri.
Q How long have you lived in the Territory? A 30 years.
Q Continuously for 30 years? A Yes.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A No sir, I guess not.
Q You claim as an intermarried citizen? A Yes.
Q You are in the Delaware district? A Yes.
Q How long have you been married? A 15 years.
Q To your present wife? A Yes.
Q Were you married under Indian law? A Yes.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate? A Yes.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A Here in the Territory, Delaware district.
Q What was your wife's name before she was married? A Delia Harlan.
Q Your wife is still living? A Yes.
Q How old is your wife? A 33.
Q What is her father's name? A Ab W. Harlan.
Q What district does he live in? A Delaware.
Q Now Mr. Kelly, you married in 1885? A Yes.
Mr. Kelly submits a marriage license duly executed by the Clerk of the Delaware district authorizing him to be married to Delia H. Harlan, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood, as stated in the license bearing date 29th day of December, 1885. It also appears upon the back of this certificate that the marriage ceremony was performed on the 30th day of December 1885, all being duly certified. Presented by Mr. Kelly and accepted as to the fact by the counsel for the Cherokee Nation. Mr. Kelly likewise hands to the commission a certificate of admission to citizenship, which he says is the certificate admitting to citizenship his wife. This certificate is a duly certified document admitting Samuel L. Harlan and Caroline Harlan to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and Mr. Kelly admits that the person so named Caroline Harlan is the same that is at present his wife, but this admission to citizenship bears date 9th day of October, 1888, so that if they were married in 1885, they were married prior to the admission of his wife as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, his wife not being admitted until 1887.
Q Did you ever make application, Mr. Kelly, to be admitted the same as your wife, to citizenship? A No sir, I did not think it was necessary.
Q Did you ever make application to the Dawes Commission in '96?
A No sir.
Q This is your first application for the rights of a citizen? A Yes. She was supposed to be a citizen at the time, but I had this thing fixed afterwards.
Q I understand you to say that this is the first application you ever made to be admitted as a citizen? A Yes.
Q Well in justice to you I should call your attention to the fact that you are enrolled on the roll of '96, as you did apply for enrollment and secured enrollment at that time.

Upon consulting the roll of '96 of the Cherokee Nation Mr. Kelley's name appears on page 597, number 292, as duly enrolled as William T. Kelly.

Q Is that William T. Kelly the same as yourself? A I suppose so.
Q You have given your name, Mr. Kelly, as William Kelly, is that your full name? A William Thomas Kelly.

Q Your full name is William Thomas Kelly? A Yes.

Upon consulting the record of 1896 it is found that he is recorded as the husband of Caroline Kelly.

Q Will you please state how your name happens to be on the roll of 1896? A I was married in '85.

Q Did you apply to have yourself enrolled there? A No, I guess not.
Q How did they know of you? A They put me down as an adopted citizen.

Q Did you appear before anybody? A I had my folks enrolled-- I suppose I was enrolled.

Q How did you come to be enrolled--- can you give me an account of the matter--- did you appear before officers? to be enrolled? You appeared before the proper authorities, didn't you? A Yes.

Q And asked to have yourself and your wife enrolled? A Yes.

Q How many children have you Mr. Kelly? A Three.

Q Do you want to make application for them? A Yes.

Q Please give their names and ages? A Myrtle Armenta, 10 years old.

Q When was she born? A July 10, 1890. (This child appears duly recorded on the roll of '96, page 490, number 1686, two years after the admission of her mother to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.)

Q The next child? A William Howell, 7 years old. (This child appears duly recorded on the roll of '96, page 490, number 1687.)

Q Have you any other children? A Yes, one more, Manie Delilah Kelly, two years old the 6th of this month.

Q Mr. Kelly, you hand me a duly-executed certificate of the birth of this child to you and your wife and it is sufficient evidence, a certificate that has been furnished you by this ~~Sanctioning~~ Commission and has been properly filled out. The Commission will keep this certificate as a record in this case.

Q You make application now for your wife? A Yes.

Q And in connection with her application you furnish the certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship? A Yes. This shows that she was duly admitted on the 9th day of October, 1888. Your wife has been duly identified on the roll of 1896.

Q Mr. Kelly have you had any children except those we found reported here? How many children have you lost? A Three.

Q Have their names ever been recorded on the tribal rolls? A I think two.

Q Give me their names? A Eva May was the eldest one.

Q When was she born? A In '88.

Q And when did she die? A February 9, 1894.

Q What other child has died? A Ollie Jaunita, died November 9, 1898.

Q Did your father apply for citizenship to the Dawes Commission? A Yes.

Q And for his family? A Yes.

Q Were you included in that? A Yes.

Q And rejected? A Yes, I think so.

Q What was your father's name? A J. D. Kelly.

Q On what ground did your father apply, do you remember? A No, I don't.

It appears, Mr. Kelly, by the records of this Commission that you applied to the Dawes Commission for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation in 1896, and that the Commission rejected your application; you appealed from the decision of the Commission to the United States Court in the Indian Territory and the court upon trying the case affirmed the judgment of the Commission and decided that you were not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and that judgment is final; consequently the Commission will be under the necessity of rejecting your claim.

- Q You did not apply for the children in the case? A No sir, I did not apply for myself, my father did it.
- The decision of the Attorney General of the United States is that the decisions of the Dawes Commission in these cases are final unless appealed, and if appealed the decision of the United States Court becomes final and there is no appeal from that, consequently your application will have to be rejected.
- Q Mr. Kelly, it appears from the evidence that has been adduced and that is of record in this case inquiry your wife is entitled to enrollment, and also that your children are entitled to enrollment, and the decision of the Commissioners present now is that they will be duly enrolled upon the roll that is being prepared by this Commission. We are of opinion that you are not entitled to enrollment—that your marriage and other evidence you have adduced do not carry that right to you. We will say, however, that our action is to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior, subject to his approval, and you will be permitted to offer any additional evidence and any proper papers that you desire to the Commission and they will be received and forwarded with your case. I return to you the marriage certificate and the certificate of your wife's citizenship.

In the matter of the application for identification as Mississippi Choctaws of Roxanna Freeman for herself and her minor son, William Clyde Freeman.

Applicants represented by attorney J. G. Ralls; No appearances.

Roxanna Freeman being first duly sworn testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Roxanna Freeman.
Q What is your age? A Forty-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived there? A We have lived there eight years I believe.
Q Where did you live before that? A Mayville, Arkansas.
Q Where were you born? A Sherman Texas.
Q How long did you live in Texas? A I was twelve years old when we left Texas.
Q And went to Arkansas? A Yes sir.
Q And lived there until nine years ago? A I lived in the Territory part of the time.
Q But for nine years continuously you have lived in the Territory?
A Yes sir.
Q Is your father living? A No, Sir; he is dead.
Q Is your mother living? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's name? A Jackson B. Dumas.
Q What is your mother's name? A Lucinda Dumas.
Q That is her name now? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she a middle initial? A Lucinda Caroline.
Q You claim through your father or money? A Through my father.
Q How much Choctaw blood do you claim? A One-sixteenth.
Q Has your father ever been recognized in any way or enrolled as a member of the Choctaw tribe of Indians by the Choctaw tribal authorities or the United States authorities in Indian Territory?
A No, sir.
Q When, and where, if you remember, were your father and mother married? A They were married in fifty-three and I believe they were married at Ripley, Mississippi; I am not sure about that.
Q By a minister and under a license? A I could not tell you.
Q You think you could produce evidence of their marriage later? A my brother has sent for it.
A reasonable time will be allowed for that purpose.
Q Have you a husband living? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A D. W. Freeman.
Q You make any claim for him as having Choctaw Indian blood?
A No sir.

#2.

- Q His blood is white is it? A No sir, it is Cherokee.
Q You make the claim then that he has Cherokee blood? A Yes sir.
Q But not Choctaw? A No sir.
Q Have you any children under 21 years of age and unmarried?
A One.
Q You want to make application for that one? A Yes sir.
Q What is the Child's name? A William Clyde Freeman.
Q How old is he? A He is eighteen.
Q And he is the son of D. W. Freeman? A Yes sir.
Q And lives with you at your home? A Yes sir.
Q Has your husband been enrolled as a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not he has made application for the enrollment of this son? A Yes sir.
Q As a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Has the son been enrolled? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been enrolled as a Cherokee? A Yes sir as an adopted citizen.

It appears from an examination of the records of the Commission that the applicant and her minor child William Clyde Freeman have been listed for enrollment by the Commission as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; the applicant in chief under the name of Roxie L. Freeman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and her minor son as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and their names appear on Cherokee roll card field number ninety-one. The name of the applicant in chief is found upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation as a citizen of the Delaware District, number 993 as R. S. Freeman and the name of her son William Clyde Freeman is found upon the 1896 census roll as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, Delaware District, number 1218.

At this point in the examination it developing that the applicant Roxanna Freeman and her minor child William Clyde Freeman having been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation the examination, at the request of the applicant in chief, is discontinued.

SPECIAL.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 8, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 (U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

George W. Scott	22178	Jeel Kelly	22468
George W. Elliott	22181	Jane Crittenden	22501

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

-5-

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 23254, and of Adeline Ratlinggeurd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Theo. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 applicants, whose names appear on the roll opposite the numbers following their respective names:

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights ^{with} Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

O. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Joseph LeMaster for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Joseph LeMaster.
Q How old are you? A 28.
Q What is your post office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A 5 miles south of Fairland.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A About five years.
Q Where did you live prior to that? A I lived in the Flint district.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you make application for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you upon the roll of 1880? A I am.
Q From what district? A Flint District.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A All my life.
Q Have you been outside the Territory to reside within the past three years? A I have not.
Q Are you married? A I am.
Q What is your wife, Cherokee or white person? A Cherokee by blood.
Q Is she upon the roll of 1880? A She is.
Q What is her name? A She appears upon the roll of 1880 as Mary J. Adair.
(The name of Joseph LeMaster appears on the roll of 1880, page 577, No. 806, Flint district. The name of Mary J. Adair appears on the roll of 1880, page 680, No. 6, Sequoia district.)

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Subject:
Error on final roll.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, May 13, 1912.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

(Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.)

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the matter of an error in the final roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. On this roll Milton J. McCullough, whose name appears opposite No. 288, is listed as a male. Affidavit has been filed in this office showing that this is an error, and the fact of an error also appears in the testimony given in the matter of the application for her enrollment on July 11, 1900, a copy of which, together with the affidavit referred to, is enclosed.

In view of the showing made in this matter, I have the honor to recommend that authority be granted to change the letter (M), appearing in the sex column, opposite No. 288 on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens, to the letter (F).

Very respectfully,

nation of sex

The Honorable,
the Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of May 13, 1912, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, and other papers relative to an error appearing on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in reference to the designation of the sex of Milton J. McCullough whose name appears opposite No. 288 on said roll. It appears that Milton J. McCullough was designated as a female.

The Office, therefore, recommends that the letter "M" appearing in the sex column opposite the name of Milton J. McCullough at No. 288 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation be canceled and that the letter "F" be substituted therefor, and that this office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar correction upon the copies of the rolls in their possession.

Respectfully,

Afton, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of March 23, stating that when you applied to this Commission for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you exhibited your marriage license and certificate to the Commission and the same was returned to you. Your letter asks if it will be necessary for you to file this marriage license and certificate with the Commission.

In reply, you are advised that it would be well for you to send this document to the Commission, so that a certified copy of the same may be made and filed with your application.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

A. Original testimony July 1-00
B. Memo of application " "

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., September 28, 1903.

In the matter of the application of Wesley B. Hillen for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, for the enrollment of his wife Samantha Hillen as a citizen by blood, for the enrollment of his stepchildren, James, Oren A. and Nolan E. Duncan, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his step-grandson, Oren W. Duncan, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Cherokee Nation appears by W. W. Hastings.

Francis M. Conner, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q State your name, age and postoffice address? A Francis M. Conner, Fairland, I. T., age fifty.

Q Are you acquainted with Wesley B. Hillen, the applicant in this case? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him? A About twenty-five years.

Q Where was he living when you first learned to know him? A I have known him ever since he was born. He was living in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Is he a Cherokee or white man? A White man.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes sir.

Q What is her name? A Samantha.

Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
JULY

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Wesley B. Hillen for enrollment as an intermarried Cherokee citizen, and for the enrollment of his wife and his wife's minor children as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows

Q What is your name? A Wesley B. Hillen.
Q What is your age? A 53.
Q What is your post office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A 4 miles north of Fairland.
Q How long have you lived there? A About 7 years.
Q Where did you live prior to that time? A I have been in the Territory nearly all my life.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q Do you make application as a Cherokee by intermarriage? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Samantha.
Q Is she upon the roll of 1880? A I don't know.
Q What was her name before she married? A Samantha Duncan.
Q What was her father's name? A Garrett Lane.
(The name of Samantha Duncan is found on roll of 1880, page 246, No. 776, Delaware District.)
Q When were you married? A In 1893.
Q What was your wife's age? A She was born in 1846.
Q That would make her 53? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you your marriage certificate? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any children by Samantha Duncan? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever applied to the Dawes Commission before for enrollment? A No, sir.
Q Have you ever applied to any of the authorities of the Cherokee Nation for enrollment? A No, sir, I am on the 1896 roll.
(On roll of 1896, Delaware District, page 574, No. 260.)

Wesley B. Hillen's name being found upon the authenticated roll of 1896, and he presenting a certificate of his marriage, which is examined and found satisfactory evidence as to his legal marriage under the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and his wife, Samantha Hillen, being found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, page 246, No. 776, Delaware District, and being fully identified as the identical Samantha Duncan who was then enrolled, which is conclusive evidence of her rights to citizenship, Wesley B. Hillen and his wife, Samantha Hillen, will be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation on the rolls of the same which are being made by this Commission.

-----o-----
Samantha Hillen, being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Samantha Hillen.
Q What is the name of your first husband? A My first husband was James Swiss.
Q When did he die? A He died in 1863.
Q Did you live with him till the time of his death? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of your next husband? A Frank Barnett.
Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.
Q When did he die? A He died in 1864 I believe.
Q Did you live with him until the time of his death? A Yes, sir; he died in 1870, I think.
Q Then your next husband is Mr. Hillen? A No, sir, Buford A. Duncan.
Q When did he die? A He has been dead 10 or 11 years I think.
Q Did you live with him until the time of his death? A Yes, sir.
Q What was the name of your next husband? A W. B. Hillen.
Q Is Buford Duncan's name upon the roll of 1880? A Yes, sir, I think he was, but he is dead.

Wesley B. Hillen, - 3.

Mr. W. T. Hutchings, for Cherokee Nation: Did you have a husband by the name of Carter, James Carter? A Yes, sir.

Q Is James Duncan alive? A Yes, sir.

Q When were you married to Mr. Carter? A I don't know just when.

Q Is he dead? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he upon the rolls of 1880? A I don't know whether he was or not.

Q You lived with him until he died? A Yes, sir.

Q You never were divorced from any of these husbands? A No, sir, not until death divorced us.

Commissioner Needles: What is the name of your oldest child?

A James N. Duncan.

Q How old is he? A He will be 31 in November.

Q What is his district? A Delaware.

(On roll of 1880, page 248, No. 778, as James Duncan.)

Q What is your next child? A Oran A. Duncan, he is 18.

(On 1896 roll, Delaware district, page 461, No. 894, as Oran Alberty Duncan.)

Q What is the name of the next one? A Nolan Lee, he is 15 years old.

(On 1896 roll, page 461, No. 895, from Delaware district.)

Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.

The name of James N. Duncan appearing on the authenticated roll of 1880, and the name of the mother of Oran A. Duncan and Nolan Lee Duncan appearing upon the roll of 1880, and the names of the children appearing upon the roll of 1896, they will be enrolled by this Commission.

Mr. Hutchings: How is it that you were re-admitted to citizenship in 1888, what was the cause of that? A I was out of the Territory and I reservated, and I have got my certificate to show that I was re-admitted.

Q You had gone out and lost your citizenship? A I had never lived out of the Territory, my mother had a place in Kansas, and I came back from there.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 22, 1902.

Mr. James H. Duncan,

Fairland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of affidavit in the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Gran W. Duncan, the infant son of James H. Duncan and Lula H. Duncan.

It appears that the mother of this child is a white woman. It will, therefore, be necessary that you file with the Commission, before the affidavit as to the birth of this child can receive further consideration, your original marriage license and certificate.

Please give this matter your prompt attention.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11th, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Robert H. Long for the enrollment of himself and minor children as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Robert H. Long.
Q How old are you? A 55.
Q What is your post office address? A Fairland, I.T.
Q Where do you live? A I live five miles west.
Q Do you make your residence there? A For the present.
Q How long have you lived there? A About 4 months.
Q Where did you live previous to that time? A Down close to Alby Switch.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you live there? A One year, or two years.
Q Where did you live prior to that time? A At Afton.
Q How long did you live at Afton? A I lived at Afton and south of Afton about three or four years I guess.
Q Where did you live previous to that? A I lived in Missouri a while; I was in the ministry work.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A I don't know just how long I was there.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name upon the roll of 1880? A No, sir, I am not on any roll.
Q Do you make application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mahale Long.
Q Is she living? A No, sir, she is dead.
Q Is her name on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I know of.
Q In what district of the Cherokee Nation do you belong; did she belong? A She came from Tennessee in 1856.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A The last time, except the time I went off to Missouri, I have been here 50 years, I came here in 1863.
Q Your name doesn't appear upon any of the rolls? A No, sir.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A We always claimed 1/8.
Q Did you ever apply to the Cherokee tribal authorities? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted or rejected? A They never took up my case that I know of.
Q Did you take, or did the Nation take an appeal in your case to the United States Court in the Indian Territory? A No, sir, I took an appeal from the Council to the Dawes Commission.
Q You say the Dawes Commission never took up your case? A No, sir, the council never did.
Q Did you apply in 1898 to the Dawes Commission for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted or rejected by the Commission? A I was rejected by the Dawes Commission.
Q Did you appeal from the decision of the Commission to the United States Court in the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you admitted or rejected by the United States Court? A I was admitted.
(Applicant presents certified copy of the judgment in the case of Robert H. Long et al. against the Cherokee Nation. Record is as follows: Citizenship Docket A, Robert H. Long et al. against the Cherokee Nation; filed September 7, 1898; answer filed; application denied; appealed to the United States Court, and judgment affirmed as to L.B.

Robert H. Long - 2.

Long and his children, and their application denied; as to Robert H. Long and his children, re-referred to the Master. In the United States Court on November 10, 1899, judgment of the Commission rejecting the applicant reversed as to the following named persons, Robert H. Long, Louella Berry, N. Long, Isaac H. Long, Manda ~~Martina~~ E. Sandy, Ivan Long, Mary C. Long, Lucinda Long, Ivan Berry, Lemuel Berry, Lucinda Berry, born May 5, 1897, Lemuel D. Long, Manda or Manda Long, Ida Long and Thomas Long. By order of the United States Court of December 5, 1899, former judgment heretofore entered reformed by adding to the list of those admitted to citizenship the name of Cynthia Long, whose name was by oversight omitted from former judgment.)

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your wife a Cherokee or white person? A She is a white person.

Q Was she admitted to citizenship? A No, sir.

Q You don't claim for her? A Yes, sir, I would like for her to get on of course.

Q Have you any children under 21 years of age? A Yes, sir, I have four under 21.

Q They have been admitted by the Court? A Yes, sir.

Q What are their names and ages? A Ivan Long is 20, Cynthia Long, she is Maple now.

Q Is she is married she will have to appear for herself. A The next is Mary C. Long, she is 11 years old, and Lucinda Long is 9.

Q Are they all? A That is all I have minors.

Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you lived in the Territory continuously since 1898? A Not all the time, I have save the last schooling, 13 months.

Q What do you mean by the last schooling? A I was engaged in the mission work and my Baptist brothers up at Boliver and Billings agreed to pay my children's schooling.

Q Did you send them there? A Yes, sir.

Q You moved your family there? A Yes, sir, I was here part of the time on the work.

Q When was that? A Last December was a year ago, that would be 1897, wouldn't it; last December was a year ago.

Q How long did you live there; how long did you reside in Missouri that time? A I resided there until the first of March, 1900.

Q And you have resided here since? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living here with your family in 1898? A Yes, sir, till we went up there.

Q In June, on the 28th, 1898, were you in the Territory with your family? A No, my family was at school, I was here.

Q Where was your wife? A She was with the children.

Q Where were the children? A They were at Billings.

Q Where is Billings? A In Missouri.

Q Then as I understand, you were living in Missouri in June, 1898?

A I went there last September is a year ago, would that be 1898; I was here in 1898.

Q You think then you were in the Territory, Mr. Long, in July, 1898?

A Yes, sir, I was here in the Territory in 1898; I went the first day of December, last December is a year ago.

Robert H. Long having applied to the Daves Commission in 1898 for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, said Commission having refused his application, and said Robert H. Long having appealed the same to the United States Court for the Indian Territory for the Northern District, and said Court having reversed the decision of the Daves Commission as to Robert H. Long, and his children, Ivan Long, Mary C. Long and Lucinda Long, and admitted them to the rights of citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, and proof having been made, satisfactory to this Commission that the said children are now living with their father, the said Robert H. Long, the said Robert H. Long and the said children are hereby ordered to be enrolled upon the rolls as citizens of the Cherokee

In the matter of the application of Martha E. Bandy for the enrollment of herself and child as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Martha E. Bandy.
Q What is your age? A 25.
Q What is your post office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A About 5 miles southwest.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A I have been there about 5 or 6 months.
Q Where did you live before that? A I lived in Missouri one year, and then I lived here, I have been here ever since I was little, I don't know how long.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name upon the rolls of 1880? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Robert H. Long.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q He is not on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I know of.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Lucinda Long.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q She is not on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, she is a white woman.
Q To what district do you belong? A Delaware.
Q Have you lived in the Indian Territory all your life? A Ever since I was small, I can't tell you how long.
Q Where were you living in July, 1898? A In the Territory.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A George Bandy.
Q When were you married? A In 1895.
Q Are you the identical Martha E. Bandy who was admitted to citizenship in the case in which your father applied before the United States Court? A Yes, sir, the same one.
Q How were you married, by the Cherokee laws? A No, sir, by the United States laws.
Q You don't apply for citizenship for your husband? A Not as a Cherokee; I don't unless he can come to be adopted.
Q Have you any children? A I have two, one is dead.
Q What is the child's name? A Jasper.
Q When was it born? A In 1898.
Q What day and month? A January 7.
Q Was this child born after you were admitted by the United States Court or before? A It was born in 1898, the 7th day of January.

Martha E. Bandy presents a certified copy of the judgment of the United States Court admitting her to citizenship, and she is hereby ordered enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission.

- Q How old is this child? A He is 2 years old.
Q There ought to be a certificate of birth as to this child; we will give you an affidavit, and upon the filing of the proper certificates and proofs of birth of Jasper Bandy, for whom you apply for enrollment, the said child will be duly enrolled.

JUL 15 1900
RECEIVED

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Susan Peck for the enrollment of herself and children ~~as~~ as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Susan E. Peck.
Q What is your age? A 37 years.
Q What is your post office? A South West City, Missouri.
Q Where do you live? A I live 4 miles southwest of that.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A 1 and a half years.
Q Where do you live? A Going Snake district.
Q How long did you live there? A I was born and raised there.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you upon the rolls of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your name at that time, before you married? A Susan E. McPherson.
(On roll of 1880, page 454, No. 1167, Going Snake district.)
Q Is your mother living? A No, sir.
Q What was her name? A Elizabeth Morris before she married.
Q Was she an Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she upon the roll of 1880? A I suppose she was.
Q What was her name when she died? A Elizabeth McPherson.
Q When did she die? A She died when I was 9 years old.
Q Is your father living? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A James R. Peck.
Q Is he a Cherokee? A No, sir, he is a white man.
Q Do you apply for admission for him; is he here? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you marry? A March 18, a year ago.
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of the oldest living at home? A Richard Henry Potts, he is 18; I have been married twice.
(On roll of 1896, page 579, No. 1666, as Henry Potts, Going Snake District.)
Q What is the next one? A Mary E. Potts, she is 8 years old.
Q Was she known as Trixie Potts? A Yes, sir.
(On 1896 roll, page 779, No. 1667, as Trixie Potts, Going Snake District.)
Q What is the next one? A There are only two that are living.
Q Is Gerlie dead? A Yes, sir.
Q You have no children by Mr. Peck? A No, sir.

The name of Susan E. Peck being found upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation of 1880 as Susan E. McPherson, and she being identified as the identical person, the same is conclusive of her rights to be enrolled, and she is ordered to be enrolled accordingly. The names of her children, Richard Henry Potts and Mary E. Potts, being found upon the roll of 1896 as above, and the testimony being conclusive that they are the identical children enrolled, and they being alive and living with their mother at this time, they are ordered to be enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

On the matter of the application of Nancy Ann Clay for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Nancy Ann Clay.
Q How old are you? A I have got no record of my age, but I guess I am about 63.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you upon the roll of 1880? A It ought to be.
Q What is your post office address? A Southwest City, Mo.
Q Where do you live? A About 4 miles of Southwest City.
Q How long have you lived there? A I guess about 23 years.
Q You have lived there continuously for that time? A Yes, sir.
Q You make application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What district do you belong to? A Delaware.
(On 1880 roll, page 235, No. 508, Delaware district.)
Q Of course your father and mother are not living? A No, sir.
Q Are you married? A No, sir.
Q Do you apply for any person besides yourself? A No, sir.

The name of Nancy Ann Clay being found upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation for the year 1880, this is conclusive evidence of her citizenship. She is hereby ordered to be enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission, she having satisfied the Commission as to having resided in the Territory during the last 20 years.

FLOSSIE LONG, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

Appearances:

Applicants in person;
W. W. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

MANDA A. LONG, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name ? A Manda A. Long.
Q How old are you ? A I am twenty six years old.
Q What is your post office ? A Fairland.
Q Are you the wife of Lemuel D. Long ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember appearing before the Commission at Fairland on July 11, 1900, and making application for yourself and your husband and some children ? A Yes sir.
Q Who did you make application for at that time ?
A I first enrolled myself and that one child-- Q What is that child's name ? A Flossie; and then I gave them the papers Mr. Long got, and he gave them to me to have him and his children enrolled, and I taken them with me and gave them to the Commissioner.
Q What papers do you refer to, the judgment of the United States
Court was it ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have a copy of that judgment with you when you went to enroll ? A Yes sir.
Q What did you do with it ? A I gave it to the Commissioner.
Q The Commissioner who examined you ? A Yes sir.
Q Did you call his attention to any names on that judgment ?
A He asked me if I wanted my husband enrolled, and I told him yes, and I thought he would enroll him and his children, as their names was on there, and I thought they was enrolled all the time until herelately.
Q You never gave the Commissioner the names of these children ?
A No sir.
Q He just asked you if you wanted to enroll your husband, and you gave him the copy of this judgment that you speak of ?
A Yes sir.
Q Now you say the Commissioner asked you if you wanted to enroll your husband ? A Yes sir.
Q Did he ask you about anybody else ? A No sir.
Q What did you tell him when he asked you if you wanted to enroll your husband ? A I told him yes.
Q Did you tell him anybody else ?
A He never asked about anybody else.
Q You simply gave him this paper ? A Yes sir.
Q Well, who did you intend to enroll when you went there ?
A Well, I intended to enroll him and his children.
Q As well as yourself and your child ? A Yes sir, he was busy taking the census and he couldn't go, and he gave me those papers and told me to have him and his children enrolled too.
Q And you thought you did that, did you, by giving the Commissioner this paper that you speak of ? A Yes sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with your husband before you went out there, anything as to whom you were going to enroll ?

A Yes sir, he gave me the papers, and told me to take them, and when I went to be enrolled, why to enroll him and his children, and I gave them the ~~ex~~ papers and I thought they put the names all down.

E. C. Bagwell, on oath states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Manda A. Long for the enrollment of herself, her husband and children, as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Manda A. Long.
Q What is your age? A 25.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your name upon the rolls of 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Is that the name you had in 1880? A No, sir, it was Manda Murphey.
Q What is your post office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A In Fairland.
Q How long have you lived there? A About 5 years.
Q Where did you live prior to that time? A Cow Skin Prairie.
Q How long did you live there? A I don't know, pretty near all my life.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your name before you married? A Manda Murphey.
Q What was your district in 1880? A Delaware district.
Q What is your father's name? A Jim Murphey.
Q What was your mother's name? A Belle Murphey.
Q Were your father and mother both Cherokees? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have a sister named Susie E. Murphey? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a sister by the name of Maude? A No, sir, I guess that is me.
(1880 roll, page 257, No. 1737, Delaware district, as Maud E. Murphey.)
Q What is the name of your husband? A L. D. Long.
Q Is he a white man? A No, sir, he is an Indian.
Q Is he Lemuel D. Long? A Yes, sir.
Q Where is he? A He is in Vinita.
Q Do you make application for his admission? A Yes, sir.
Q Was he admitted by the United States Court? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir, I have one.
Q What is the name of the child? A Flossie Long.
Q How old is she? A 2 months old.
Q Have you a birth certificate? A No, sir.
(The name of Lemuel D. Long appears on 1886 roll, page 580, No. 308, Delaware district.)
Q What is the exact date of your marriage? A 1895.

The name of Manda E. Long being found upon the authenticated Cherokee rolls of 1880 as Maude E. Murphey, and being identified as the same person who was enrolled upon said roll as Maude E. Murphey, her name appearing there is conclusive evidence of her citizenship and her rights to enrollment, and she is therefore enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission. Her husband, Lemuel D. Long, presents a ~~certified~~ copy of the judgment of the United States Court for the Indian Territory, William M. Springer, presiding, admitting him to citizenship as a member of the Cherokee tribe by blood. Satisfactory proof having been made of the residence of Lemuel D. Long, as well as that of his wife, Manda E. Long, the said Lemuel D. Long is also admitted to enrollment upon the rolls now being made by this Commission; and their child, Flossie Long, will be ordered enrolled when affidavit and proof of the birth of the child is forwarded to this Commission and filed by them.

Q. Is it Lemuel? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How old are you? A. I am 52 years old. They got my name wrong. In 1900, when you made the roll at Fairland, I was census taker. Our work was more than we expected and Mr. Darrough, he was pushing us and he wouldn't let me go before the Commission; so I just gave my wife the certificate of admission and she went and enrolled me.
Q. She didn't give your right name? A. She gave my right name but not my right age.
Q. What is your age? A. I was born the 14th of September, 1850.
Q. What is your post office? A. Fairland.
Q. Are you a Cherokee by blood? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long have you been residing in the Cherokee Nation?
A. I come here about '66.
Q. Where did you come from? A. I come from Arkansas.
Q. Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since 1866?
A. Off and on. Of course I have been out like every one else.
Q. Your name doesn't appear on the roll of 1880? A. No, sir.
Q. Have you been admitted to citizenship? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you any certificate of your admission? A. Yes, sir.
* (Applicant presents certificate of admission.)
Q. You hand me here a decision of the United States court in Indian Territory for the Northern district, admitting Robert H. Long and Lemuel D. Long, et al, to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. Are you the Lemuel D. Long mentioned in this judgment?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you make application to the Dawes Commission in 1896?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And were denied by the Commission, were you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then you took an appeal? A. I appealed to the United States court.
Q. And the court reversed the judgment of the Commission?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. It also appears that among the persons admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the judgment of said court are Isiah H. --- who is that? A. That is my brother's boy.
Q. Which are your children? A. Mauda and Ida and Thomas were the ones admitted.
Q. Mauda is a child of yours? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say three children were admitted? A. Yes, sir; and three rejected on account of non-residence.
Q. Who is the mother of those children? A. Julia Long.
Q. Was she a white woman? A. Yes, sir; she was a white woman.
Q. When were you married to her? A. I was married in 1883.
Q. Is that wife living now? A. No, sir; she is dead.
Q. When did she die? A. She died in '90.

Q. Did you and your wife live together from 1883 up to 1890?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you living in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir. She had consumption and I took her to the mountains in '88.

Q. The mountains where? A. Colorado mountains. It didn't seem to do her any good and she wanted to come back.

Q. Those three children embraced in that application are your children by your first wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you and your children been living in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir. I have been here most of the time. I was down to the Indianola Marble Company, working down there, and their grandmother was living with them. She had a son at Pawnee, Oklahoma and she wanted to take them there.

Q. They were at Pawnee, Oklahoma? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they there at the time you were admitted? A. No, sir. They have been with me. When the old lady died I went after them.

Q. How long have they been living with you in the Cherokee Nation? A. They have been living with me ever since--- I went after them in March, 1900.

Q. Before that time they had been living with their grandmother in Pawnee, Oklahoma. A. Yes, with their grandmother.

Q. Your home, all that time, was in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir; I was here, and when I made application they were here.

Q. So that you have been residing in the Cherokee Nation practically since 1866? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Has your home been in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A. Yes, sir; principally all the time.

Q. Since you were admitted by the United States court your home has been nowhere but in the Cherokee Nation? A. I have never been out of the Territory but once, that is coming up on the P. G. road to Neosho.

Q. You haven't lived out of the Territory for the past 20 years? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you married since--- A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your present wife's name? A. Her name was Manda Murphy.

Q. She give her name Manda A.? A. Yes, sir. She is a Cherokee.

Q. When did you marry her? A. I married her the 15th day of December, 1895.

Q. Have you been living with her ever since? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Why didn't the children by your first wife stay with you and your present wife? A. Well, their grandmother wanted them. After her death I went and got them. My last wife was a young woman and you know sometimes two families don't get along together.

Q. Since their grandmother's death they have been living in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you any children by your present wife? A. Yes, sir; one. We got one little boy dead. He was never enrolled.

Q. In 1900 your wife appeared in Fairland and made application for her own enrollment, her child Flossie and for your enrollment but she did not enroll your three children? A. She just gave the Commission this paper. I told her to do that.

Q. What paper is that? A. This paper here. (Certificate of admission.)

Q. The paper that you gave your wife was a copy of this judgment? A. It was that. (Certificate of admission)

Q. This paper which you now present? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you tell her? A. I told her to take the paper and give it to the Commissioner and he would enroll me and my three children. I don't know whether I spoke to Mr. Starr or not but I did to Mr. Hastings. I told him it was impossible for me to go over there and stand around and wait. I was working for the government.

Q. What was your position at that time? A. I was enumerator; taking the census.

Q. Taking the federal census? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You couldn't get away yourself to make this application? A. No, sir.

Q. You say, Mr. Long, you told your wife to take a copy of this, a copy of the judgment of the United States court, and hand it to the Commission? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And told her to see that you and your three children were all enrolled? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any talk with her after that, after she come back? A. Yes, she said she did so. She said she gave it to the Commissioner.

Q. Did she tell you she enrolled them? A. She didn't say whether she enrolled them or not. She supposed she enrolled them. I supposed that too.

Q. You had no intimation until you came today that these three children had not been enrolled? A. No, sir; I didn't.

Q. How old is your wife Manda? A. She is about 26 years old.

Q. She is a Cherokee? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much Cherokee blood does she have? A. I think a sixteenth. Her father and mother both was a Cherokee.

Q. Give me the names and ages of those three children by your first wife? A. Mauda was born----

Q. Mauda L., is it? A. Mauda L. yes, sir. She was born August 10th, 1885.

Q. She is now about 17? A. Yes, 17 past.

Q. What is the next one? A. Ida. She was born October 14th, 1887.

Q. About 15 years? A. Yes, past 15.

Q. What is the next one? A. Thomas, born May 1st, 1889.

Q. About 13? A. About 13 years old.

Q. Your first wife was admitted with you? A. No, sir; she was dead.

Q. Now, have these three children lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives except the period they were out in Pawnee, Oklahoma, with their grandmother? A. No, they were out in Colorado with me at the time I took their mother out there. Then we come back to live.

Q. With these two exceptions they have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did they stay at Pawnee with their grandmother? A. They must have been out there about 4 or 5 years.

Q. They went out there at the time you married your present wife, Manda? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of course you supported them right along? A. Yes, sent them money.

Q. Now, they have been living with you and your present wife in the Cherokee Nation for the past two years? A. All but the little boy. The little boy is with his uncle at Pawnee, Oklahoma.

Q. Has he been there since 1895? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You still have the custody of him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And control over him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You support and maintain him the same as you do your other children? A. Yes, I send him money to buy his clothes.

It appears from an examination of the original testimony of Manda A. Long that the following question was asked her by the examiner in the field: "Have you any children?" to which she replied: "Yes, sir; I have one." It further appears from the statement of the examiner in the field that the applicant, Manda A. Long, at the time of her application, presented a the certified copy of the judgement of the United States court which is now introduced in evidence by Lemuel D. Long; but it does not appear that Manda A. Long was interrogated as to the children of Lemuel D. Long by his first wife, which children are embraced in the judgment of the United States court; and it does not appear that any application was made for the enrollment of such children. It does not appear that she called the attention of the examiner in the field to the fact that three of the persons named in said judgment were the children of her husband, Lemuel D. Long, by a former wife.

Q. Now, I understand you to say, Mr. Long, that you supposed that your wife Manda A. had carried out your instructions?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And had made application for your three children by your first wife. A. Yes, sir. I didn't know but what they were enrolled all the time or I would have looked after it before this.

Q. And you had no knowledge or intimation of the fact that application had never been made for your children until you came here to-day? A. No, sir; I didn't. The Commissioner wrote me sometime ago asking--saying I didn't state where the children was at the time they was enrolled down there. I answered his letter.

Q. Which children? A. My children.

Q. Your three children by your first wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you write to them? A. Yes, sir; I wrote to them and told them. I have got an answer from them I think in my trunk at home.

Q. What did they say? A. They said it was satisfactory.

Q. Do you remember when that was the Commission wrote to you?

A. No, I don't. I know I had been away, been away a week or two. When I come home my wife said there was a letter for me. It has been about--may be last spring. I wouldn't say positive. I guess it was early last spring.

Q. Now, Mr. Long, section 30 of the act of Congress approved July 1st, 1902, and ratified by the Cherokee people in August, 1902, provides that: "During the months of September and October, in the year 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment of such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens of the Cherokee Nation on or before the first day of September, 1902, but the application of no person whomsoever for enrollment shall be received after the 31st day of October, 1902."

A. Yes, but you see that application had been made before that time. It was the Commissioner's duty to enroll those children when he had that decision. He knew I worked for the government and knew well I couldn't go there and stand five or six days to get in. My wife gave him that paper and also the Cherokee attorneys have a copy of it. I supposed they were enrolled.

Q. Do you contend, Mr. Long, that your wife Manda virtually made application at Fairland? A. Yes, I do.

Q. At Fairland on July 11th, 1900? A. Yes, sir. I think she would state that also. Of course she is a young woman and she was ~~embarrassed~~ embarrassed I presume.

Q. In view of the contention which you make, that an original application has heretofore been made for the enrollment of these three children, Manda L., Ida and Thomas Long, do you now insist that the rights of these three children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation should be passed upon at present?

A. Should be passed upon now, at present?

Q. Yes. A. Yes, sir; I do. If I had had knowledge of this it is presumed that I would have taken advantage of that law.

Q. And if the Commission should decide that there has not, in any sense, been a proper application for the enrollment of these children, do you now insist on having them enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir; I do.

Q. Those children, Mauda L., Ida and Thomas Long, do not appear on any of the rolls, do they? A. No, sir. You can see there where they were admitted.

Q. Your name appears on the roll of 1896? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How was it your three children didn't appear with you?

A. You see I didn't have my rights at that time and I married a Cherokee woman and I married according to the Cherokee law.

Q. You are a Cherokee by blood, are you not? A. Yes, sir; but I have been admitted since. Of course if I hadn't been admitted my rights would have been cut off entirely.

Q. You insist that these three children have exactly the same status that you have? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Those three children, Mauda L., Ida and Thomas, are living now, are they? A. Yes, sir.

In the United States Court for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, at Muskogee, I.T,
Robert H. Long,)	On appeal from the Lemuel D. Long et al.)	United States Commission to the Five vs	(Civilized Tribes.
The Cherokee Nation.)

DECISION OF COURT ON RE-HEARING.

SPRINGER, JUDGE:-

A re-hearing was allowed in this case on the 8th day of April, 1898, and parties were permitted to take additional testimony. The additional testimony clearly establishes the fact that the principal claimants, Robert H. Long and Lemuel D. Long, in connection with the testimony theretofore filed, are Cherokee Indians by blood, and that they took up their residence in the Cherokee Nation prior to November 20, 1868, and that they have regarded that Nation as their residence ever since that time. The Cherokee Council passed an act October 15, 1841, to the effect that all Cherokees, who resided out of the limits of the Nation previous to the adoption of the constitution should not be required to memorialize the National Council for admission to the rights and privileges of citizenship, it was considered that they had the right of returning without the action of the Council. This act was repealed Nov. 20, 1868. It will thus be seen that from October, 15, 1841, until November, 20, 1868, a period of twenty-seven years, a general invitation was extended by the Cherokee Nation to all Cherokees who may have been residing out of the limits of the Nation previous to the adoption of the Constitution to return to the Nation and enjoy the rights and privileges of citizenship without being required to memorialize the National Council for admission, (See General Opinion of this Court in Citizenship cases, printed by Interior Department, in pamphlet form, 1899)

It appears from the additional testimony that some of the children of the principal claimants are not residents of the Cherokee Nation. Such non-residents are certain of the children of Lemuel D. Long:-namely:

Charles Long
O. L. Long, and
Mrs L.M. Smiley, (nee Long) (Written also Smille)

The judgment of the United States Commission, the five civilized tribes rejecting the claim of said non-residents, namely Charles & O.L. Long and Mrs L.M. Smiley, is affirmed, and their application to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is denied.

The judgment of said Commission rejecting the claim of the other claimants is reversed, and their application to be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation is allowed, and it is therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the said claimants to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation are citizens of said Nation. The persons admitted to citizenship in said Nation by this decree are as follows:

1- Robert H. Long, 2.-Leauella Berry (nee Long), 3.-Isaiah H. Long, 4.-Martha E. Randy, 5.-Ivan Long, 6.-Mary C. Long, 7.-Lucinda Long, 8.-Ivan Berry, 9.-Lemuel Berry, 10.-Eva Berry, and 11.-Lucinda Berry, (born May 25, 1897, after application was made to U.S. Commission,) 12.-Lemuel D. Long, 13.-Mauda L. Long (or Manda L. Long,) 14.-Ida Long, and 15.-Thomas Long. In all fifteen (15) persons.

The record in this case shows that on July 31, 1900, Paula, an Indian, before the Commission at Fairbault, Indian Territory, was admitted to the citizenship of herself, her husband, J. B. Hart, and their child, Florens Hart, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Such proceedings in the matter of said application were held at Fairbault, Indian Territory, on July 31, 1900. Paula, a Cherokee by blood, was enrolled in the Cherokee Nation as a Cherokee citizen and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on November 1, 1900, at Fairbault, Indian Territory. J. B. Hart is a potential citizen of Cherokee Nation by blood approved by the Secretary of the Interior on January 16, 1901, at Fairbault, Indian Territory.

The bill of the Cherokee Nation is shown to be a long, continuous line of petitioners, and the petitioners of the Cherokee Nation are the only ones shown. It is shown that the mother of the applicant is dead, and that the applicant is the only one of the Cherokee Nation continuously since his admission to citizenship therein. It is considered that the applicants, being the only ones of the Cherokee Nation, their citizenship by treaty is non-terminable, and that June 1, 1880, was approved. It is further shown that they were living and in good health on September 1, 1880, and that the Cherokee Nation treaty of the act of Congress, approved July 1, 1880 (Chapter 41).

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the decision of the Department in the case of Martha Smith et al., (ITD 8423-1902), Mauda Long, Ida Long and Thomas Long should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, it appears that you applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for citizenship in the Cherokee nation for yourself and family, and that among the names of your children admitted to citizenship at that time, there appears the names of Ida Long and Thomas Long, whose ages at that time were 10 and 7 years respectively.

When you applied to this Commission at Fairland, Indian Territory, for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, no mention was made of your two children Ida and Thomas. Will you please advise the Commission if these children are still alive, and if so what is their present whereabouts.

Please give this matter your prompt attention.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 23 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that the age of Lemuel D. Long, whose name appears thereon opposite No. 22248, is erroneously given as 32.

On January 9, 1903, in connection with an application for the enrollment of two minor children, Lemuel D. Long, appeared before the Commission and testified that his correct age is 52 and not 32.

The Commission respectfully recommends that the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected so that the age of the said Lemuel D. Long, will appear thereon as 52 instead of 32, and that the Commission be directed to make similar changes on the copies of the schedule returned to it.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of January 16, 1903, (I.T.D. 328), there is enclosed herewith report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 21, 1903, in which it is stated that the age of Lemuel D. Long, Cherokee roll No. 22248, is erroneously given as 32. The Commission states that his age should be given as 52, and requests authority to make the proper correction on its partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

The office recommends that the Commission be authorized to make the correction, and that it be directed to make the proper correction on the partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its files.

Gentlemen:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the record in the matter of the application of Lemuel D. Long, et al, Cherokee #101. The case is sent in order that the Commission may consider the matter developed in the testimony taken at Vinita on January 9 and April 1, 1903, relative to three children of Lemuel D. Long by a former wife, and which children are included in a judgment of the United States Court in a case appealed from this Commission under the act of June 10, 1896.

All the original applicants, viz: Lemuel D. Long, his wife Manda A. Long and his child Flossie Long, have been scheduled, their enrollment numbers being respectively 22248, 307 and 308.

Your attention is also respectfully called to the correspondence between the Commission and Lemuel D. Long, copies of which are herewith enclosed.

Commissioner in Charge,
Cherokee Land Office,
Tahlequah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 11, inclosing copy of the Cherokee Advocate of July 9, with a marked article therein alleging that the Cherokee rolls are not treated as closed on September 1, 1902. You state that you have been advised that in Cherokee straight case No. 101, Lemuel D. Long et al., the Commission has recently granted the right of enrollment to three children of Mr. Long who had not been applied for on or before September 1, 1902. You state that you have no personal recollection of the case, and you ask that same be held for further consideration and that you be furnished with the record therein.

In reply there is herewith inclosed the original jacket and record in Cherokee straight case No. 101, Lemuel D. Long, et al., in which will be found a copy of the Commission's decision of March 5, 1904, granting the application for the enrollment of Mauda, Ida, and Thomas Long as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. This decision was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review, together with the protest of the attorney for the Cherokee Nation against said decision, on June 30, 1904.

The record in this case shows that application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of these children on January 9, 1903, at Vinita, Indian Territory, and that they were admitted to citizenship by this Commission in 1896 under Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896. The Commission's decision cites Departmental letter in the Creek enrollment case of Martha Smith, et al., a copy of which is herewith inclosed. In said letter the Department holds that those persons who were admitted by the Commission in 1896 need not make a second application in order to be placed upon the rolls now being prepared by this Commission.

The newspaper clipping inclosed with your letter is also herewith returned.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 30, 1904, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, by Manda, Ida and Thomas Long.

March 5, 1904, the Commission found that the applicants were entitled to enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood.

The record shows that the applicants filed their original petition with the Commission under the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321) for admission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; that the Commission denied their petition; that an appeal was taken to the United States Court for the Northern District of Indian Territory; that the decision of the Commission was reversed by the Court and the applicants admitted to citizenship by the Court.

The Cherokee Nation has filed their protest against the applicants admission.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to the applicants is recommended.

LRS

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

On June 30, 1904, you transmitted the record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Manda, Ida and Thomas Long, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. It appears that the applicants named therein were admitted to enrollment by the United States Court in the Indian Territory upon appeal from the decision of your Commission rejecting the applicants under the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321).

It appears that L. D. Long, father of the applicants, was also admitted to enrollment by said United States Court, and that his name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens approved by the Department January 16, 1902. It also appears that the mother of the applicants is dead; that the father has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since his admission to citizenship therein; that the applicants lived for four or five years with their grandmother in Oklahoma, and that they were on January 9, 1903, living with their father in the Cherokee Nation, and had been living with him for two years prior thereto. The applicants being minors, it is considered that their residence was the same as that of their father.

You state in your decision "on January 9, 1903, at Vinita, Indian Territory, L. D. Long appeared before the Commission and made application for the enrollment of his minor children, Mauda, Ida and Thomas Long, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation."

On March 5, 1904, you decided that the applicants were entitled to enrollment, following the decision of the Department in the case of Martha Smith, et al., (I. T. D. 6425-02). The attorneys for the Cherokee Nation protested against your decision, claiming that the applicants are not entitled to enrollment under section 30 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which provides that "the application of no person whomsoever shall be received after October 31, 1902."

Reporting August 27, 1904, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommended that your decision be approved. A copy of his letter is herewith inclosed.

It appears from the evidence that on July 11, 1900, Mauda A. Long, wife of L. D. Long, and step-mother of the minor applicants, appeared before the Commission at Fairland, I. T., and made application for the enrollment of herself, her husband, and some children. She states that she gave to the Commission a copy of the judgment of the United States Court, which judgment contained the names of L. D. Long and the applicants herein. It therefore appears that application was made for the enrollment of the applicants on July 11, 1900, and that they should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Your decision holding the applicants should be enrolled is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan

Acting Secretary.

Harriett. R. Harlin,.....Plaintiff.

vs

No. 2290

Davis. L. Harlin.....Defendant.

Now on this day this cause came on for hearing, regularly upon the docket. The plaintiff appeared in person and by J.W. Lyons her Attorney, and the defendant appeared not.

And it appearing to the Court that the defendant has waived issuance and service of summons, and agreed to make a general appearance, in said cause, which waiver and agreement in writing is now on file, and has failed to plead, answer or demur to plaintiff's petition, and is in default, A jury being waived the cause was submitted to the Court, and the Court having heard all the evidence, arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, now finds for the plaintiff, finding that the allegations contained in the petition are true; that the plaintiff has been a resident of Cherokee County, State of Kansas, for more than one year last past, and that she is now a boni fide resident of said County; that on or about the _____ day of _____ 1866 this plaintiff and defendant were duly and legally married, in the State of Missouri; that the said plaintiff and defendant lived together from that time until the _____ day of March, 1881, that during said time said defendant was guilty of extreme cruelty, by beating and striking this plaintiff, in a rough rude and angry manner; that he was guilty of adultery with one Larric Mills, a common prostitute, that he failed to provide for this plaintiff the necessaries of life; that there are now living ,the issue of said marriage, four children, to wit:-

Cordelia J, aged thirteen years; Edgar H. ,aged eight years; Lewis S., aged four years;and Delbert N. aged two yaers; that the said defendant is an unfit person to have the care,custody and control of said minor children.

It is therefore by the Court ordered,adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff,Harriett R.
Harlin,and the defendant David L. Harlin, be,and the same are hereby dissolved,set aside and wholly held for naught, and the parties contract ing the same are hereby wholly released from the obligation thereof.
It is further by the Court ordered that the plaintiff Harriet R.
Harlin have the sole care,custody and control of the minor children aforesaid to wit- Cordelia, J. Harlin, Edgar H. Harlin, Lewis S. Harlin and Delbert M. Harlin,and that the said plaintiff Harriett. R. Harlin have and recover of and from the said defendant David L. Harlin, the costs of this proceeding taxed at six and 50/100 dollars.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 9, 1907.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, has been designated by the Secretary of the Interior, as the official to make and approve appraisals of the value of improvements upon land in the Cherokee Nation which were made prior to November 5, 1906, by white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens prior to December 16, 1895, and who have the right under the Act of Congress approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), to sell improvements.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage who have made permanent and valuable improvements on lands of the Cherokee Nation and who claim the right to sell the same under and by virtue of said Act of Congress of March 2, 1907 (Public 180), must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, and designate the land upon which are located the improvements which they claim the right to sell by virtue of said Act; and if any such intermarried citizen shall fail to appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes prior to April 1, 1907, it will be considered that he makes no claim to the benefits conferred by said Act. Such appearance and designation of improvements must be made before the Commissioner at his office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time between Monday, March 11th, 1907, and Saturday, March 30th, 1907, inclusive, or at any of the following named places between the dates named at which places the Commissioner will have a representative to receive said designations and hear testimony relative thereto:

Bartlesville, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Tulsa, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907, to Saturday March 30th, 1907, inclusive.

Claremore, Ind. Ter., Monday March 18th, 1907, to Saturday March 23rd, 1907, inclusive.

Nowata, Ind. Ter., Monday March 25th, 1907,

Designations must be made in person by the intermarried white claimant, or in case proper proof is made that he is physically unable to appear, by some adult member of his immediate family, or in case proper proof is made of the fact that the intermarried white claimant is physically unable to appear and has no adult member of his immediate family, by a person holding a properly executed power of attorney; provided, that in every case the designation must be made by a party familiar with the character, ownership, location and value of the improvements to be designated. At the time of said designation the testimony of any competent person will be taken by the Commissioner as to the location, character and value of said improvements.

No former intermarried white claimant will be permitted to designate improvements upon more land than he would have been entitled to take in allotment for himself had he been admitted to citizenship. If any intermarried white claimant has made a tentative selection of a full allotment he will not be allowed to designate improvements upon other land.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that if any citizen of the Cherokee Nation entitled to select an allotment shall claim that the improvements on land tentatively selected by a former intermarried white claimant, or held by him, do not belong to said intermarried white claimant, or makes any adverse claim to said improvements, or to the right of the intermarried white claimant to sell said improvements under the Act approved March 2, 1907 (Public 180), said citizen must appear before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes either at Muskogee, Indian Territory, prior to April 1, 1907, or at one of the places above designated and within the dates above designated and make formal complaint before the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of his contention. At Muskogee, Indian Territory, between March 11th and March 30th, 1907, inclusive, and at the other places herein named during the hearings at said places as herein fixed, plats will be open for inspection showing the location of tentative allotments made by former claimants to citizenship by intermarriage and all other land on which such claimants claim improvements, so far as indicated by the records of this office.

All persons interested should take careful note of the limitation of time herein provided for, within which designations and complaints may be made, and that they must be made by appearance before the Commissioner.

TAMS BIXBY,
Commissioner.

RECEIVED
JUL 12 1900

Department of the Interior,
Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Edgar C. Harlin for the enrollment of himself and children as Cherokees by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Edgar C. Harlin.
Q What is your age? A 38.
Q What is your post office address? A Chetopa, Kansas.
Q Where do you live? A I live in the Territory.
Q What part of the Territory? A The northeast part.
Q How long have you lived there? A I have lived there about 9 years.
Q Where did you live prior to that time? A Down here on Grand River.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you make application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you upon any of the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation, the 1896 roll? A No, sir.
Q Do you apply for citizenship by reason of being admitted by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
(Applicant presents a certified copy of the records of the Citizenship Commission of the Cherokee Nation, signed by D. W. Alberty, Asst. Exec. Secy. of the Cherokee Nation, under the great seal of the Cherokee Nation, showing that he was admitted to citizenship on the 8th day of October, 1898, by the authority of the Cherokee Commission appointed for that purpose.)
Q Your name is on the roll of 1896? A Yes, sir.
(On roll of 1896, page 477, No. 1347, as Edgar Clinton Harlin.)
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married? A In 1892.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee or a white woman? A Yes, sir, a white woman.
Q Have you your certificate of marriage? A I have, but I didn't bring it, I have got witnesses here.
Q You must bring that certificate of marriage. What is your wife's name? A Mary J. Bennett.
Q How old is she? A 30 years old.
Q Is her name upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess it is on the 1896 roll.
(On 1896 roll, page 574, No. 353, Mary J. Harlin.)
Q In what district in the Cherokee Nation do you and your wife belong? A Delaware.
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir.
Q Are they under 21 and living with you? A Yes, sir.
Q What are their names and ages? A Claude Harlin, he is 6 years old.
(On 1896 roll, page 477, No. 1348, as Claude Harlin.)
What is the next one? A Esther Viola, 4 years old.
(On 1896 roll, page 477, No. 1349, as Ester Viola Harlin, Delaware District.)
Q What is the name of the next one? A Luther Albert Harlin, he is 2 years old; he isn't on the roll.
Q All these children living with you at home? A Yes, sir.

Edgar C. Harlin's name being found upon the authenticated roll of 1896, as shown in the testimony, and also presenting a certificate of citizenship as shown in the testimony, and making satisfactory proof of his residence in the nation, that he resided in the Nation at the time of the passage of the Act known as the Curtis bill, and his children, Claude, and Esther Viola, being found upon the roll of 1896,

COMMISSIONER OF THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
EDGAR A. MARLIN JUL 2.

and proof being made that they reside with him and have since their birth, the said Edgar A. Marlin, his wife, Mary J. Marlin, and two children, Elsie and Esther Viola, are hereby admitted to citizenship and ordered enrolled upon the rolls of this Commission now being made. His child, Esther Albert Marlin, will also be enrolled when the said applicant furnished this Commission with the necessary proofs as prescribed by the Commission of the birth of said child. And the said applicant is required to furnish to this Commission his certificate of marriage, upon the receipt of which the enrollment of his wife will be completed.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Fairland, I. T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Othie A. Smith et al for enrollment as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles he testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Othie A. Smith.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-two.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name upon the authenticated rolls of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q What is your post-office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you reside? A Fairland.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A Ten years.
Note: His name is found upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation of 1880, page 312, #2288.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Florence B.
Q Is she a white woman or a Cherokee? A Cherokee.
Q Her name on the authenticated rolls of 1880? A Yes sir, I suppose so.
Q What was her name before she was married? A Florence Breedlove.
Note: 1880 roll examined, and this woman found on page 220, #130, Delaware District.
Q Is your wife living? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life.
Q Have you any children under twenty-one years of age and living with you? A Yes sir.
Q Give their names and ages? A Lee Breedlove Smith, six years old. (On 1896 roll, page 527, #2681, Delaware District.)

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule number 23 of citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that the classification of Johnathan Gore, appearing thereon as number 32251, should be changed from "intermarried white" to "adopted white." This applicant is identified upon the Register of the members of the Shawnee tribe of Indians, who removed to and located in the Cherokee Nation in accordance with an agreement entered into between the Shawnee tribe of Indians and the Cherokee Nation on the 7th day of June, 1869, and approved by the President of the United States on the 9th day of June, 1869, as number 386.

Following the decision of the Commission, approved by the Department on October 31, 1902, in Cherokee case D-386, John M. Barlow, the Commission respectfully recommends that the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected, so that Johnathan Gore will appear thereon as an adopted white, that under the column marked "Blood" the letters "A.W." should appear instead of "I.W.", and that the Commission be directed to make similar changes upon the copies of the schedule returned to it.

Secretary of the Interior, -2.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt, by reference from the Secretary of the Interior, of your letter of September 28, complaining that you have not yet received certificates showing land selected by you as your allotment in the Cherokee Nation for the reason that you are classified upon the Commission's records as a citizen by intermarriage. You now claim the right to enrollment as a member of the Shawnee tribe of Indians who acquired citizenship in the Cherokee Nation under the provisions of an agreement between the Shawnees and Cherokees, dated June 7, 1869.

In reply, you are advised that, when you made application for enrollment, you stated to the Commission that you claimed the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage. Your name is, however, identified upon the Shawnee Register and the Department has this day been requested to authorize the Commission to change your classification upon the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation from "intermarried white" to "adopted white."

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge

Dear Sir:

At the time you made application for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, on July 11, 1900, at Fairland, I.T., you spoke of an orphan child living in your family, and for whom you desired to make application for enrollment.

You are requested to inform the Commission if an application was made for the enrollment of this child, also its name.

THE HONORABLE

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 19, 1903, in which it is stated that Johnathan Gore, whose name appears on the Cherokee approved partial rolls opposite No. 22251, has been classed as an "intermarried white", and that he should be classed as an "adopted white."

The Commission requests authority to make the proper change, and states that Gore removed to and located in the Indian Territory in accordance with the provisions of the Cherokee-Shawnee agreement of June 7, 1869, and that he is of Shawnee blood.

The Commission invites attention to Departmental letter of October 31, 1903 (I.T.D. 6562) relative to the application of John M. Harlow for enrollment as a Cherokee.

It is respectfully recommended that the Department's rolls be changed in this particular and that this office and the Commission be authorized to make proper correction on their respective rolls.

Gentlemen:

The Department is in receipt of your letter of October 19, 1903 (Cherokee 107), referring to schedule No 223 of citizens by blood and intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and reporting that the classification of Johnathan Gore, appearing thereon as No. 22251, should be changed from "intermarried white" to "adopted white." You state that this applicant is identified upon the register of the members of the Shawnee tribe of Indians who removed to and located in the Cherokee Nation in accordance with an agreement entered into between the Shawnee tribe of Indians and the Cherokee Nation on June 7, 1869, as number 386. You refer to your decision, approved by the Department October 31, 1902, in Cherokee case D-385, John M. parlow, and you recommend that said schedule be corrected so as to show that Johnathan Gore is an adopted white instead of an intermarried white.

Concurring in your recommendation, you are directed to

Sarah M. Thomas,

Needmore, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

This office is in receipt of your letter of February 2, 1907, referring to the decision of the Commissioner dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. You state that you were married to Thomas C. Thomas, a Cherokee by blood, in July, 1874.

In reply you are advised that the Supreme Court of the United States by its decision dated November 5, 1906, held that persons who intermarried according to Cherokee law with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The records in the possession of this office show that your marriage occurred in 1879.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 17, 1906

Mrs. Joseyphine Holland,
Grove, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Replying to your letter of December 3, in reference to the right of your grandfather, James H. Cohee, deceased, to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and who you state, was married before 1875, you are advised that the United States Supreme Court in its decision of November 5, 1906, held that white persons who intermarried according to Cherokee law with Cherokee citizens, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

If you claim that said James H. Cohee, deceased, is entitled to enrollment under the Court's decision, you will be permitted to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time within the near future, and submit such testimony as you may desire relative to his marriage to his Cherokee wife, by reason of his marriage to whom he claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and as to the date of his marriage.

The Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906, provides that the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, after March 4, 1907, and the matter should, therefore, receive your immediate attention.

Dear Sirs:

In reply to your letter of December 24, you are advised that you have been entered as attorneys of record for James H. Cohee, applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

A copy of the testimony had in this case is enclosed.

The original marriage record of Delaware District, Cherokee Nation, in the possession of this office, shows that on March 20, 1879, a Cherokee license was issued James H. Cohee to marry Martha Buffington.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I. T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Isaac Nidiffer et al for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles he testifies as follows:

Q What is your name? A Isaac Nidiffer.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-two.
Q What is your post-office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A I lived about four miles north of Fairland.

Q You make your residence there? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A I have lived there and here at Fairland about fifteen years.

A Continuously? A Yes sir.
Q Never lived in the Territory since that? A No sir.
Q You are a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q And make application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name on the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.

Note: 1880 roll examined, and applicant found on page 293, #1893, Delaware District, as Isaac Nidiffer, Jr.

Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is your wife, a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A I was married in 1898.
Q You don't claim citizenship for your wife? A No sir.
Q Have you any children? A Yes sir.

(Applicant presents certificate of marriage to wife.)

Q What is your wife's father's name? A Mark Wall. And her mother's name was Sarah E. Wall.

Q Have you got a certificate of its birth? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate.)

Q You and your wife are living together? A Yes sir.

Q Under what law were you married? A United States law.

Com'r Needles: The name of Isaac Nidiffer appears upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee nation of the year 1880, page and number as indicated in this testimony, which is conclusive proof as to his rights of citizenship, he is declared admitted and enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this commission. Proof having been made as to his marriage with Alice L. Wall in the year 1898, license and certificate being presented, his child, Beulah Nidiffer, is also admitted to citizenship, and ordered enrolled, he having presented the proper affidavits and proofs as to the birth of said child. By the reason of his marriage after the year 1895 his wife is not to be enrolled.

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case and that the foregoing is a full true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of July 1900.

Q

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes
Fairland, I. T. July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Sion M. Perry et al for enrollment as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles he testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Sion M. Perry.
Q What is your age? A Forty-two.
Q What is your post-office address? A Fairland.
Q Where do you live? A Three miles south-west of Fairland.
Q You make that your residence? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A About fifteen years.
Q Continuously? A Yes sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q You make application for Cherokee citizenship by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A Yes sir.
Note: 1880 roll examined, Delaware District, page 301, #2071 S. M. Perry, twenty-three years old.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q Is your wife a white woman or a citizen? A White woman.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A No sir, not with me.
Q When were you married? A In 1892.
Q What is your wife's name? A Augusta Lampkin before I married her.
Q Is she upon the roll? A 1896 rolls I guess.
Note: 1896 roll examined, page 585, #432, Augusta L. Perry.
Q Under what law were you married? A Cherokee.
Q Where were you living at the time of your marriage? A Same place I am living now.
Q Your wife is now living? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any person here that knows you were married? A Yes sir, number of them here I guess.
Com'r Needles: You can send your certificate of marriage to us.
Q Have you any children? A Yes sir.
Q Give the names and ages of those living with you at home under twenty-one years of age and unmarried? A Floyd L., seven years old; (On 1896 roll, page 519, #2506.) Earl W. Perry, five years old. (On 1896 roll, page 519, #2507 as Earl Perry.) Almeda Perry, three years old. That's all.

Com'r Needles: The name of Sion M. Perry being found upon the roll of 1880, this is conclusive evidence as to his citizenship, and he having made satisfactory proof that he has lived continuously in the Indian Territory for the last twenty-eight years, he is therefore admitted to citizenship by this Commission and his name will be recorded upon the rolls now being made. His wife Augusta L. Perry's name being found upon the authenticated roll of 1896, will be admitted to citizenship upon the filing with this Commission of a certificate of marriage with the applicant. His children as named in the testimony now taken, their names having been found upon the roll of 1896, numbers and pages as specified in the testimony above, will be ~~enrolled~~ enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation when said certificate of marriage shall be filed with the Commission as in the case of his wife. The youngest child, Almeda Perry, its name not being upon the rolls of 1896, the affidavit of its mother and of midwife attending her as to birth of said child, is filed, and is conclusive as to her being the child of said applicant.

M.D.Green, being first duly, sworn states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case, and that the above and foregoing is a full true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Sten M. Perry et al #2

Cherokee Nation, and is not objected to by them, but is assumed to be correct. This is shown to the representatives of the Cherokee Nation at Washington in the Indian Territory here.

Case of marriage between you and your wife, Virginia P. Lambkin, 1885, of your marriage to Virginia P. Lambkin, yes sir.

Q And you now produce the document I hold in my hand as evidence, yes sir.

Q Did you produce any evidence of your marriage yesterday, yes sir.

Q You were with me yesterday, and now appear in confidence that is your name, yes sir. Show me, Bella.

Answered, yes, as follows:

By Commissioner, Breckenridge, as under oath administered to him on the 1st day of May, 1885, in the presence of the Cherokee citizens, being examined by me, in the presence of the master of the publication of the Further proceedings in the matter of the application of Sion M. Perry et al for enrollment as Cherokee citizens; being examined by Commissioner Breckenridge as under oath administered to him on yesterday, he testifies as follows:

Q What is your name? A Sion M. Perry.

Q You were duly sworn yesterday, and now appear in continuance of your case? A Yes sir.

Q Did you produce any evidence of your marriage yesterday?

A No sir.

Q And you now produce the document I hold in my hand as evidence of your marriage to Augusta L. Lampkin? A Yes sir.

Q What you have here seems to be duly signed and executed certificate of marriage between you and your wife, Augusta L. Lampkin, a Cherokee citizen, at Wyandotte, on the 14th day of January, 1892, by N. S. Browning, an ordained minister. Where is Wyandotte, in Kansas? A Wyandotte Mission, in the Indian Territory here.

Com'r Breckenridge: This is shown to the representatives of the Cherokee nation, and is not objected to by them, but is assented to as proper certificate of evidence of marriage.

M.D.Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case and that the above and foregoing is a full true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

THE RECORDS, FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Q You present this marriage certificate? A Yes sir.
Q Are you living with Porter Bond now? A Yes sir.
Q And have lived with him since you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any children? A Yes sir.
Q How many? A Two.
Q What is the name of the oldest? A Tottie, three years old.
Q Next one? A Mabel, eleven months old.
Q Are these children alive and living with you at home? A Yes sir.
Q Have you certificate as to their birth? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate.)

Com'r Needles: The name of Ida May Bond appearing upon the authenticated rolls of 1896 of the Cherokee Nation, and satisfactory proof having been made as to her residence, and also the fact that her mother is now a resident of the Indian Territory and on the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation of 1880, and objection being made to her enrollment by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation who are present, she is declared to be entitled to enrollment, and her name entered upon the records made by this Commission. The names of her two children, Tottie Bond and Mabel Bond do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation, they having been born since the last roll was completed; said applicant presents proof as to the birth of these two children, which is considered ~~satisfactory~~ satisfactory proof by the Commission, and their names are ordered to be enrolled upon the rolls made by the Commission.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case and that the above and foregoing is a full true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
FAIRLAND, I. T., JULY 11th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF J. D. Muskrat et al, for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A J. D. Muskrat.
Q What is your age? A Forty-eight.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Afton.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q How far do you live from Afton? A About a half mile.
Q Do you make your application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father living? A No sir.
Q Do you claim through your father? A Yes sir.
Q Is he on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q What is your father's full name? A Daniel Muskrat.
Q Is your mother living? A No sir.
Q Was she on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name? A Polly Muskrat.
Q You are on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
(Roll of 1880, examined, and on Page 291 thereof, #1845, appears the name of the applicant)
Q What is the J. in your name for? A Joseph.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q Are you making application for any one besides yourself?
A My wife and family.
Q Where is your wife; here? A No sir; she is at home.
Q Is your wife an Indian or adopted? A Adopted.
Q Have you your marriage certificate? A I have some kind of an instrument of writing here.
Q When were you married? A I was married the 10th day of August, 1884.
Q What is your wife's full name? A Florence Price Muskrat.
(Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 581 thereof, #359, appears the name of applicant's wife, Florence Price Muskrat.)

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 3, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

Referring to schedule No.1 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that Florence P. Muskrat, whose name appears thereon opposite No.368, has been erroneously classed as a citizen by blood.

In response to a General notice, requiring all intermarried citizens to prove their status on September 1, 1902, the applicant appeared and during the examination then had, it was developed that she is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of said Nation, and not as a citizen by blood.

The Commission respectfully recommends that the schedule be corrected so that the said Florence P. Muskrat will appear thereon as a citizen by intermarriage, and that in the column marked "Blood," opposite her name, the letters "I.W." be placed to show that she is an intermarried white person.

Respectfully,

Signed

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.
Washington, Dec. 12, 1902.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report dated December 3, 1902, from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in which it is stated that upon inquiry the Commission has found that Florence P. Muskrat, whose name appears on Cherokee schedule No. 1 opposite No. 368, has been erroneously classed as a citizen by blood. The Commission states that she is a citizen by intermarriage, and recommends that in the column marked "blood" opposite her name the letters "I. W." be placed to show that she is an intermarried white person. The schedule referred to shows that Florence P. Muskrat is a quarter blood.

It is recommended that the Department make the change suggested by the Commission on the schedule retained by it; that this office be authorized to make the same change on the schedule in its files; and that the Commission be directed to make the proper change on the schedules forwarded to it.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

The Department is in receipt of your report of the 3rd instant, recommending that authority be granted to change schedule No. 1 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, so that the name of Florence P. Muskrat (No. 368) will appear thereon as a citizen by intermarriage instead of as a citizen by blood as is now the case, and that in the column marked "Blood" opposite her name, the letters "I. W." be placed to show that she is an intermarried white person.

The authority requested is hereby granted, and you are advised that the Department has corrected its copy of said schedule to conform to the above, and that the Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been directed to make a like correction on the schedule in his office. A copy of the Acting Commissioner's report, concurring in your recommendation, is inclosed.

Respectfully,

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

McKees, Indian Territory, February 18, 1907

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

January 26, 1907 (I.T.D. 1394-1907), the Department affirmed the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of the applicants embraced in the consolidated Cherokee intermarried white cases of Queen Watkins, et al., 22168, et al, and struck the names of the persons mentioned in the decision, except that of Florence P. Muskrat, No. 368, from the approved partial roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and authorized the Commissioner to strike their names from the roll in his possession.

This office is directed to make further report as to Florence P. Muskrat.

In reply you are respectfully advised the records of this office show that on July 11, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of, among others, Florence P. Muskrat, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; that she neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than by reason of her marriage, on August 11, 1884, to her husband, Joseph D. Muskrat, a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and whose name appears upon an approved partial roll of such citizens opposite No. 367. Neither Florence P. Muskrat nor her husband, Joseph D. Muskrat, was ever married prior to their said marriage, and they have lived together continuously from the date of their marriage up to and including September 1, 1902.

It is presumed that the Department desires a report in the case for the reason that the name of Florence P. Muskrat appears upon the approved partial roll as an intermarried white citizen at such a low number compared to all other numbers at which the persons in the Queen Watkins et al., cases appear upon the roll.

The name of Florence P. Muskrat was first placed upon Schedule Number 1, of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Department November 3, 1902, as a one-quarter Cherokee Indian, and on December 3, 1902, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes reported that she had been erroneously classified as a citizen by blood, and recommended that the schedule be corrected so that her name would appear thereon as an intermarried white citizen instead of as a citizen by blood.

December 19, 1902 (I.T.D. 7685-1902), the Department concurred in the recommendation of the Commission and advised that it had corrected the copy of said roll in its possession and authorized the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Commission, to make such correction upon the copies of said roll in their possession.

Vinita, Indian Territory, January 24, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 1 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that the name, Mary A. Harlin, appearing thereon opposite No. 373, should be corrected to Mary A. Seiler.

On January 23, 1903, there was filed with the Commission, a marriage license and certificate showing the marriage on July 12, 1900, of Mary A. Harlin to John Seiler.

Section 25 of the Cherokee Agreement, proclaimed August 12, 1902, provides that "The roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen hundred and two", and as the correct name of No. 373 appears to have been Mary A. Seiler on that date, the Commission respectfully recommends that the copies of the schedule retained by the Department and in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected so that the name of No. 373, will appear thereon as Mary A. Seiler instead of Mary A.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of JOHN LEMASTER as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That on July 11th, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of John Lemaster as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 3rd, 1902 and October 24th, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, John Lemaster, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law February 13th, 1871 to his wife Narcissa Lemaster, nee Buffington, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Flint District No. 805 as a native Cherokee, and whose name appears upon the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 377. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said John Lemaster and Narcissa Lemaster resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1st, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5th, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, John Lemaster is entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28th, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A.M., on Wednesday, January 2, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

J.M.H.

Acting Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 1, 1907, in response to a notice to your father, John Lemaster, to appear before the Commissioner on January 2, 1907, for the purpose of giving testimony in connection with his right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. You state that your father is dead, and that you have his marriage license and certificate in your possession. You ask information in the premises.

In reply you are requested to have properly executed the enclosed blank form of death affidavit, showing the exact date of your father's death, and to forward his marriage license and certificate to this office by return mail.

If anything further is needed in the case, you will then be informed of the same.

Respectfully,

Muskogee, Oklahoma, October 4, 1909.

Mrs. Narcissa Lemaster,
Fairland, Oklahoma.

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your daughter, Jessie Lemaster, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 382, died on April 15, 1901.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Narciissa Lemaster - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before November 4, 1909, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Jessie Lemaster on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Sir:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your sister , Jessie Lemaster, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 382, died on April 15, 1901.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Joe Lemaster - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before November 4, 1909, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Jessie Lemaster on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

(Registry receipt No. 20330 signed by Joe Lemaster returned to this office.)

Muskogee, Oklahoma, November 15, 1909.

Subject:
Enrollment of Jessie
Lemaster, Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Jessie Lemaster, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, whose name appears on the approved roll of such citizens opposite No. 382.

The record in this case shows that on October 24, 1902, there was filed with this office an affidavit of death executed by John Lemaster, father of Jessie Lemaster, and Mary Lamar, an acquaintance, showing the death of Jessie Lemaster on April 15, 1901.

On June 15, 1909, the testimony of Joe Lemaster, a brother of Jessie Lemaster, was taken, in which he stated that his said sister died in April, 1901, and that he knew that on account of the date of her death she was not entitled to an allotment of land. On the same date the testimony of Jane Lemaster, a sister-in-law of Jessie Lemaster, was taken, her testimony being substantially the same as that of Joe Lemaster.

Secretary - 2.

On October 4, 1909, Narcissa Lemaster, the mother, and Joe Lemaster, brother of Jessie Lemaster, were notified by registered mail of the information secured by the office relative to the date of her death, and of the provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), that no person whose name was on the roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that they might within a stipulated time appear at this office to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said Jessie Lemaster was not entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation. Both of these notices were received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipts, but no response thereto has been received.

The record further shows that no allotment of land has been made to this citizen nor has any application for an allotment been filed.

The record in this case clearly shows that Jessie Lemaster died prior to September 1, 1902, and I, therefore, respectfully recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved roll of Cherokee citizens opposite

Secretary - 3.

The name of Jessie Lemaster, No. 352:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Copies of all the record pertaining to the death of this citizen are enclosed herewith.

to the Five Civilized Tribes, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of November 15, 1909, relative to the enrollment case of Jessie Lemaster, you are advised that on November 27, 1909, the Department authorized placing on the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite the name of Jessie Lemaster at No. 382 thereon, a notation that she died prior to September 1, 1902, and was not entitled to land or money.

A copy of approved Office letter of November 26, 1909, is enclosed for your information and guidance.

NOV 26 1909

The Honorable,
the Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith, a letter of November 15, 1909, from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the enrollment case of Jessie Lemaster, whose name appears opposite No. 382 on the final approved roll of citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation. It is provided in Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 716), that no allotment of land or other Tribal property shall be made to any person or to the heirs of any person whose name is on said roll and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It appears from the enclosed papers, that Jessie Lemaster died prior to that date.

The Office recommends that on the final approved rolls of citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation, in the possession of the Department, there be placed opposite the name, of Jessie Lemaster, at No. 382 thereon, the notation:

Q"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civil-

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
United States Court, Indian Territory,
First Judicial Division.

ss.

At a stated term of the United States Court in the Indian Territory, First Judicial Division, begun and had in the Court Rooms, at Muskogee in the Indian Territory, on the 2nd Tuesday of May, being the 12th day of that month, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety One and of the Independence of the United States of America, the One Hundred and fifteenth,

Present, the Hon. James M. Shackelford, Judge of said Court. On Tuesday the Sixteenth day of June 1891, among the proceedings had were the following, to-wit:

T. D. Chatham

v

959

R. J. Chatham

This day came the Complainant,

T. D. Chatham

by his solicitor, H. H. Hubbard, and none appearing on behalf of the defendant, R. J. Chatham, and the said R. J. Chatham having been duly served with process of this Court more than 20 days prior to the commencement of this term, and having been three times solemnly called in open Court to plead, answer or demur to said Complainants' bill, came not but made default. Thereupon, this cause coming on to be heard upon the bill, and the testimony taken herein under the direction of the Court, and the Court being fully advised in the premises, doth find that the matters and things in the bill contained are substantially true as therein set forth, and that the defendant did wilfully desert and absent herself from the plaintiff for the space of one year without reasonable cause.

Therefore, It is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be and the same are hereby dissolved, and that all and every duty, rights and claims accruing to either of said parties by reason of their marriage, shall henceforth cease and determine, and that said parties be severally at liberty to marry again in like manner as if they had never been married.-- It is further ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs and charges of this suit.

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
United States Court, Indian Territory
First Judicial Division. ss.

I, Wm. Nelson Clerk of the United States Court, within and for the First Judicial Division and Territory aforesaid, do hereby certify, that the foregoing manuscript is truly taken, and correctly copied from Court Journal "4" Page 151 of said Court.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Seal of Court, at Muskogee, this 19th day of June A. D. 1891.

Q How old is your wife? A About fifty.

You have me ~~xxx~~ marriage licence, under the Cherokee law, to Mrs. Mary A. Miller, dated the 21st of October, 1891, and the instrument shows that you were married to Mrs. Mary A. Miller, on the 23rd of October, 1891; it seems to be in regular order, except that her name here appears as Miller instead of Muskrat; her name appeared on the 1880 roll as Muskrat; how did she get the name of Miller?

A Muskrat died; then she married Miller.

Q Do you know his other name? A No sir, I can not tell you.

Q You are not applying for any children? A No sir.

Your wife appears to be duly recorded on the official record of the Cherokee Nation of 1880; your name is recorded on the Roll of 1896; and your marriage licence and certificate appear in due form, and your residence conforming to the requirements of law, your wife will be enrolled as a Cherokee by blood, and you as a Cherokee by intermarriage., and I return this marriage certificate to you.

R. R. Cravens, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of July, 1900.

C. R. Breckenridge COMMISSIONER.

Q She was living? A Yes, sir.
Q Had you and she been divorced prior to your marriage to Mary A.? A Yes, sir.
Q Where were you divorced? A At Wagoner.
Q Have you filed a certified copy of the decree of divorce with the Commission? A No, sir.

It will be necessary, Mr. Chatham, before your enrollment will be complete that you file a certified copy of the decree of divorce from your first wife.

- A I have it at home.
Q Now, your wife, Mary A., is your second wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, had your wife, Mary A., been married prior to her marriage to you? A Yes, sir.
Q How many times had she been married? A Twice.
Q What was her first husband's name? A Johnson Muskrat.
Q Was he a white man or Cherokee? A Cherokee.

Q Was he living or dead when you married your wife, Mary A.?
A Dead.
Q What was her second husband's name? A Miller.
Q He was a white man, was he, or a Cherokee? A I can't tell you that.
Q Was he living or dead when you married your wife, Mary A.?
A He was dead.
Q How long had he been dead when you and your wife, Mary A., were married? A I can't tell you that, either.
Q Several years? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, have you and your wife, Mary A., lived together all the time since your marriage in '91 up until the present time? A Yes, sir.
Q You and she never been separated? A No, sir.
Q Living together, were you, on the first day of September, 1902, as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation all the time since your marriage to your wife, Mary A., in 1891 up to the present time?
A Yes, sir.
Q Never lived out of the Nation since then? A No, sir.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee Nation all the time since '80 up to the present time? A Lived all her life, I guess, right there.

Retta Chick, being first duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony and proceedings in the matter of the foregoing application, and that the above is a true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

this January 10, 1907.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 9, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letters of May 31, 1905 (I.T.D. 6156-1905), June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, 1906 (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 236 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902, there are inclosed herewith affidavits as to the death of certain of said persons. The number of the enrollment card on which these persons are listed, the number opposite which they appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens, and their names are as follows:

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--5.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the Honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this

Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 9, 1906, you forwarded affidavits as to the death of 68 persons whose names appear on the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and recommended that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office, and that you be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession you having complied with departmental instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons.

Reporting August 23, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs, and you are authorized to strike the names of said persons from the copies of the approved rolls in your possession, as follows:

Q Do you live in the Territory? A. Yes sir.
Q In what district? A. Cooweescoowee
Q How long have you lived in Cooweescoowee district? A. I have lived there about eleven years, but I have been out some of the time.
Q Where have you lived during the last three years? A. In the Territory most of the time.
Q What are you doing in the Territory? A. Farming.
Q How did you come to be out of the territory? A. I go out to send my children to school.
Q How long have you lived at your present home? A. Eleven years.
Q Did you not state you have not lived there all the time; how long did you live there the last time? A. I have not been there a great while.
Q About what time? A. Six months.
Q Where were you before that six months, in the States? A. In Kansas yes sir.
Q How long were you there that time? A. I went there in October.
Q Last October? A. Yes sir; just moved partly; went up there and sent my children to school.
Q And you have been here six months? A. No sir three months.
Q When, where and how long have you lived here? A. I live on Cabin Creek, and I have been going to the State sending my children to school.
Q Where were you born? A. Fulton County, Illinois.
Q When did you leave there? A. 1871.
Q Then were did you go? A. Harvey County.
Q In 1871? A. Yes sir.
Q How long did you stay there then? A. I do not remember.
Q When did you leave there? A. I do not know, but if I left- I have been here about nineteen years; I lived there until I came here.
Q How much of that nineteen years have you been away from here; A. Half of the time. A. No sir.

Q Is that all? A. Yes sir.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative—

Q How far is that place in Kansas to which you go from the Territory to educate your children? A. About five and a half miles.

Q Do you own a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

Q How long have you owned a farm? A. I made it there.

Q When? A. About eleven years ago.

Q Have you owned it continuously ever since then? A. Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in Kansas at any one time? A. Not over a year.

Q What do you do in Kansas? A. Just go backwards and forwards and work on the farm.

Q You have a farm; you rent part of it, and cultivate part of it yourself? A. Yes sir.

Q And you have been doing this every year? A. Yes sir.

By the Commission: The farm you work on is in the Territory? A. Yes sir.

Q Where were these children born? A. In the Territory, all except one of them.

Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative—

Q Where are they living now? A. In the Nation now.

Q How long have they been back this time? A. Not long.

Q About how long have they been here—ten days or a week? How long; you know? A. No I honestly do not.

Q Have you been there a day or two, or— do you own a house up there in Kansas? A. Yes sir.

Q How long have you owned it? A. Got it last October //

By the Commission—

Q Your house is in Kansas? A. Yes sir

Q Do you not live in Kansas? A. No sir, not all the time.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative—

Q Where did you live before you married this woman? A. In Delaware District.

Q How long did you live there prior to your marriage? A. Six years

Q Did you ever live in Kansas where you now live before your married? A. No sir.

Q How far from there did you live? A. About sixty miles, at Independence

Q Have you any business at all in Kansas? A. No sir.

Q Follow any profession or work? A. No sir.

Q What size farm have you in the Territory? A. Big as I can hold, I guess; about three quarters I guess think.

By the Commission-

Q Have you a house in the Territory? A. Yes sir two or three.

Q Did you ever live in one of them? A. Yes sir both of them.

Q You have passed most of your time there? A. Yes sir.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee representative-

Q Mr. Davis, you were married prior to this marriage? A. Yes sir.

Q Where? A. In Harvey County.

Q When were you first married? A. I do not know as I can tell you.

Q About what year? A. I think it was about 1881; I would not be positive.

Q Were you ever divorced from that one? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you a record of that fact? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you any record of it? A. Not with me no sir.

Q When were you divorced? A. I never saw her (meaning his wife) or hear of her; I have a divorce over home.

By the Commission-

Q By decree of court? A. Yes sir.

Q What court? A. Supreme Court I suppose.

Q Supreme Court of the United States, Kansas or the Indian Territory A. Kansas.

Q Where is your evidence of divorce? A. It is at home.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee representative-

Q Where? A. At home.

By the Commission-

Q Mr. Davis, it appears from the evidence and the record that your wife was duly admitted to citizenship as a Cherokee by blood, as shown by certificate exhibited and proved here, dated June 30th 1888. It appears from the marriage license that you and she were duly married 2nd day of August, 1888; your name also duly appears recorded as indicated in the evidence, on the certified roll of 1888 1896; she is accepted as a Cherokee by blood, and your wife, Artilla Davis will be so enrolled on the roll that is being prepared by this Commission, and your children above named, being found being found duly recorded on the authenticated roll of 1896 will likewise be enrolled on the rolls being prepared by this Commission; and when a certificate of birth that will be furnished you is properly filled out, and either handed or sent to this Commission, then your two children, Joel Albert and William Jefferson will be enrolled in the same manner.

The question of your residence has been gone into with considerable care, and there is no objection made to any of the points made so far by the representatives present of the Cherokee Nation, and that is to quite an extent persuasive to the Commission under the present circumstances, particularly on the point of residence; but there is a question as to whether you were properly divorced from your former wife, and that, you are not prepared to establish at this time by any documentary evidence. Your application as an intermarried citizen will be set upon what we call a doubtful card and will be held for the present in abeyance, and you are advised that the evidence needed in your case is official evidence of your having been lawfully divorced from your former wife; a certified copy of the decree of the Court granting your divorce showing that the divorce was lawfully obtained, and at the time of your lawful marriage, as shown by your record today, do you understand?

A I guess I do.

Q You have to furnish birth certificates as to the birth of these two children and a certified copy of the decree of the Court, granting your divorce.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John W. Chandler as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Fairland, Indian Territory, July 11, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of John W. Chandler, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 22, 1902.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, John W. Chandler, is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to Cornelia C. Chandler, nee Sharp, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, her name being found opposite No. 398 on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, on February 6, 1879. Said applicant did not therefore, marry, in accordance with Cherokee law a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, John W. Chandler, is not entitled under the provisions of section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 493), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 ap-

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights ^{with} Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to it by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the roll in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

SPECIAL.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On February 5, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 (U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 22284, and of Adeline Ratlingourd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

WASHINGTON. February 28, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from Commissioner Bixby, dated February 21, 1907, enclosing record in the matter of the application for the enrollment of John W. Chandler as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, together with the Commissioner's decision, dated February 21, 1907, denying the application.

The record shows that the applicant is a white man, and possesses no right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such as he may have acquired by reason of his marriage to Cornelia C. Sharp, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, on February 6, 1879. He did not therefore marry, in accordance with the Cherokee law, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

The decision of the Commissioner, denying the application for enrollment, is in accordance with the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, and it is recommended that it be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner.

File with Cherokee straight No. 126.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, I. T., October 24, 1901.

In the matter of the application of John D. Blaylock et al for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

STATEMENT AND ORDER.

Commissioner Breckinridge: In Cherokee straight case No. 126, entitled John D. Blaylock, et al., it appears upon review ~~the~~ of the testimony and field judgment as recorded that there are some considerable variations of name.

Mellie Jane Blaylock is given in the testimony as Melly Jane, as being on the 1896 roll as Nilly Jane and is evidently put down in the judgment with a combination with the name of her sister, Artilla Catherine, this child being there put as Jane Artilla. The preponderance of testimony is considered to be in favor of this child as recorded on the enrollment card, namely, as Mellie J., and this corresponds with her signature to a subsequent affidavit of the birth of a child.

As for the next child, Artilla C. Blaylock, her name is given in the testimony as Artella Catherine, on the 1896 roll as Artillia Catherine and she is reported as referred to in the judgment simply as Catherine. No reasonable doubt is entertained of the correctness of the name of this child as stated on the enrollment card, namely, Artilla C.

The four minor children are considered to be correctly named as now recorded on the enrollment card, the variations in their names in the cards and the testimony and record being slight.

The affidavits of birth of the two younger children have been duly filed, and in explanation of the name of the child Meda Chancellor, whose name has been added in this case since the original application July 11, 1900, there has been filed a marriage license and certificate, the former dated August 4, 1900, and the latter August 8, 1900, showing that Mellie J. Blaylock was married to one Thomas Chancellor, and this child Meda is a child of that marriage, the same having been born on the 27th of February, 1901.

It should be remarked here that no change is made in the enrollment proceeding as originated for Mellie J. Blaylock, and she is reported under her maiden name as her application was taken; but she has been indexed under both names, referring to the same case, and a memorandum has been made upon the enrollment card of the original application of the facts of her marriage and of the birth of her child, Meda, the name of which child is added on that card, same thus listed for enrollment in that case.

It is ordered that a copy of this statement be attached to each copy of the testimony of the case above referred to.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this October 24, 1901.

C. A. Breckinridge
Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., October 9, 1902.

In the matter of the application of John D. Blaylock for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Sarah Ann, and children Mellie J. Chancellor and Artilla C., Lottie Ann, Julius T., Alice Evaline, Lillie May and James J. Blaylock, and grandchild, Meda Chancellor, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation; he being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John D. Blaylock.
Q How old are you? A Soon will be fifty-two.
Q Where do you live? A I live in Delaware District.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q Are you the identical John D. Blaylock who applied to this Commission in July, 1900, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of the wife through whom you claim your right to enrollment? A Sarah A. Blaylock.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q By blood? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A I was married to her in '79 in the State of Missouri and in '83 I was married under Cherokee license to her.
Q In the nation here? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q When? A I don't remember just when. (Presenting certificate of admission.)
Q Now this certificate shows that your wife was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation on the 30th day of June, 1888? A Yes.
Q Do you claim your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage through this wife? A Yes sir.
Q Were you ever married before you married her? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before? A No sir.
Q Have you your marriage license and certificate with you?
A (Presenting certificate.)
Q You stated a while ago that you were married to her in '83; this license shows you were married in '93? A Yes, in '93; it was '93 instead of '83, I made a mistake.
The applicant's Cherokee marriage license and certificate is filed herewith and made a part of the record in the case, as is the certificate showing the admission of his wife to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Now has your wife lived here in the Cherokee Nation continuously since her admission to citizenship? A Yes sir.
Q Is she living here at the present time? A Yes sir.
Q Have you always lived here since your admission? A Yes sir.
Q Are you living in the nation now? A Yes sir.
Q Have you and your wife lived together continuously since your marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Are you living together now? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living together on the first day of September, 1902? A Yes sir.
Q How many children have you; are the children for whom you applied in 1900 all living at this time? A No sir, the baby one is dead.
Q Is Mellie J. Chancellor living? A Yes sir, but her child is dead.
Q Is Artilla C. Blaylock living? A Yes sir.
Q Is Lottie Ann living? A Yes sir.
Q Julius T.? A Yes sir.

2--John D. Blaylock et al

Q Alice Evaline? A Yes sir.

Q Lillie May? A Yes sir.

Q And James J.? A ~~Yes sir~~ He is dead.

Q Your daughter's child, Meda Chancellor, is she dead? A Yes sir, her child is dead. I don't remember when it died at all.

Q Now these children have always lived in the Cherokee Nation as long as you have lived there? A Yes sir, born and raised there.

Q Living here at this time? A Yes sir.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

CERTIFICATE OF ADMISSION TO CHEROKEE CITIZENSHIP.

OFFICE OF COMMISSION ON CITIZENSHIP,

TAHLEQUAH, CHEROKEE NATION.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN—GREETING:

This is to certify that the following named, to-wit: Sarah A. Blaylock and her four children, viz: Mary Elizabeth, Nelly Jane, Artela and Lotta Ann Blaylock, aged respectively 26, 7, 5, 3 and 1 years, did, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, approved December 8th 1888, and amended Feb'y. 7th 1888, entitled "An Act providing for the appointment of a Commission to try, and determine, applications for Cherokee Citizenship," make such application to and before said "Commission" on the 26th day of September 1887; that the proof submitted by the above named applicants in support of their said application has been found, and is hereby declared and certified to be sufficient and satisfactory to the said Commission according to the requirements of Section Seventh of said Act of the National Council - and that, by virtue of such finding of fact by the Commission, and in conformity with the Fourteenth Section of said Act, the above named parties (applicants for citizenship) are, from this, the date of said finding and decision of the Commission as announced and recorded, re-admitted by the National Council, as provided in said Fourteenth Section, to the rights and privileges of Cherokee citizenship under Section 2, Art. I of the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation; and this certificate of the said decision of the Commission and of re-admission by Council is furnished to the said parties accordingly.

In witness whereof, I hereunto sign my name, as Chairman of the Commission, on this the thirtieth day of June 1888.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, February 3, 1910.

Mrs. Mellie J. Chancellor,
Fairland, Oklahoma.

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your child, Mada Chancellor, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 428, died on November 20, 1901.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

-- Mellie J. Chancellor---2

You are, therefore, notified that on or before March 7, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Veda Chancellor on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902;
not entitled to land or money."

Madam:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your child, James J. Blaylock, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 424, died January 28, 1901.

The Act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Sarah Ann Blaylock--2

SUBJECT:
Enrollment of James J.
Blaylock and Mada
Chancellor, Cherokees.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the cases of James J. Blaylock and Mada Chancellor, citizens of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No's. 424 and 425, respectively. No application to select allotments of land having been made for James J. Blaylock and Mada Chancellor an investigation was begun to determine the dates of their death, and on November 10, 1909, Mary E. Trickett, sister of James J. Blaylock, and aunt of Mada Chancellor, testified that James J. Blaylock died in January 1901, at the age of nine months, and that Mada Chancellor, who was one month elder than James J. Blaylock, died in the same year at the age of nine or ten months. On the same date Sarah Ann Blaylock, mother of James J. Blaylock and grand mother of Mada Chancellor, presented for inspection her family Bible in which the death of James J. Blaylock was recorded as having occurred January 28, 1901, and that of

No. 2.

Meda Chancellor as of November 20, 1901. The records also show that on October 9, 1902, John D. Blaylock, father of James J. Blaylock, executed an affidavit that his said son died about January 18, 1901, and on October 13, 1902, Mellie J. Chancellor, mother of Meda Chancellor, executed an affidavit that her said child died November 20, 1901.

On February 3, 1910, Mellie J. Chancellor, mother of Meda Chancellor, and Sarah Ann Blaylock, mother of James J. Blaylock, were notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office as to the dates of the death of their children, and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 716) that no person whose name was on the final roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and advised that they might within a stipulated time appear at this office and show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation be placed on the roll showing that the said Meda Chancellor and James J. Blaylock were not entitled to participate in a division of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation.

No. 3.

These notices were received as is evidenced by the return of the registry receipts properly signed but no appearance has been made.

The record in these cases appears clearly to establish that James J. Blaylock and Meda Chancellor died prior to September 1, 1902, and I therefore recommend that the following notation be placed upon all copies of the approved rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite the names of James J. Blaylock and Meda Chancellor, No's. 424 and 425, respectively: "Died prior to September 1, 1902, not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record pertaining to the death of these citizens are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

MAR 25 1910

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of March 9, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes relative to the death of James J. Blaylock and of Meda Chancellor, whose names appear upon the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite numbers 424 and 425 respectively.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that the above named persons died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L., 716), provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on the Cherokee roll, and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It is recommended, therefore, that opposite the names of James J. Blaylock and Meda Chancellor upon the above mentioned rolls there be placed the notation -

"Died prior to September 1, 1902;
not entitled to land or money."

L-21184-2

and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on the copies of the roll in their possession.

Very respectfully,

[Handwritten signature]

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William J. Wilson for enrollment as an intermarried Cherokee, and for the enrollment of his wife and children as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A William J. Wilson.
Q What is your age? A 35.
Q What is your post office address? A Grove, I.T.
Q Where do you live? A In the Cherokee Nation, Delaware district.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A About 10 years.
Q Where did you live prior to that time? A Southwest City, Mo.
Q Where were you born? A In Arkansas.
Q How long have you lived in Arkansas? A All my life.
Q Do you live there now? A No, sir, I lived there until that time.
Q How long did you live in Arkansas? A 17 years.
Q How old were you then? A 17 years old.
Q Where did you go to from there? A To Texas.
Q How long did you live in Texas? A One year.
Q Where did you move to from Texas? A Maysville, I.T.
Q What district? A Delaware.
Q How long ago was it? A I can't tell hardly.
Q Have you lived in the Nation for the last ten years? A Yes, sir.
Q Continuously? A Yes, sir.
Q You are not a Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q You make application for citizenship by intermarriage? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife here? A No, sir.
Q Is she alive? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name? A Mary A. Fields.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she on the rolls of 1880? A Yes, sir.
(On 1880 roll, Delaware District, page 258, No. 1054, as Mary Ann Fields.)
Q When were you married to Mary A. Fields? A In 1892.
Q Have you lived with her continuously since your marriage?
A Yes, sir.
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir, Bertha Lee.
Q How old is she? A 7 years old.
Q The certificate of marriage which you present represents that you married Miss Mary Fields? A Yes, sir.
Q Is Miss Mary Fields, that is mentioned in that certificate of marriage the Mary Ann Fields on the roll of 1880, the identical person?
A Yes, sir.
Q This you know to be so? A Yes, sir.

Mary Ann Fields, your wife, being upon the roll of 1880, is conclusive as to her citizenship. You present a marriage license and a marriage certificate dated on the 6th day of May, 1892, showing that you were married at that time to Mary Fields, who is identified as Mary Ann Fields as appearing upon the roll of 1880; consequently you are admitted as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and your wife, Mary A. Wilson, known as Mary Ann Fields on the roll of 1880, is admitted as a citizen by blood. And your child, Bertha Lee Wilson appearing upon the rolls of the Cherokee Nation of 1896, and being identified as the child of you and your wife, Mary A. Fields, is also admitted to citizenship, and will be enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission.

William J. Wilson, Jr.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

 ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Oklahoma, I.T., July 11, 1900.

In the application of Thomas Jones for the enrollment of his name and those of his children by blood, duly examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Thomas Jones.

Q How old are you? A I am about 52 years.

Q Where do you live? A I live out here about 6 miles from the Delaware district.

Q How long have you lived there? A About 18 years.

Q Continuously? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you make application for Cherokee citizenship by blood?

A Yes, sir.

Q Are you upon the roll of 1880? A No, sir.

Q What evidence have you got of your citizenship? A I have not it now.

Q In answer to the last question you present a certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship, issued by the Commission on Citizenship on the 13th day of June, 1888, signed by J. T. Adair, Chairman of the Commission on Citizenship, attested by the Clerk of said Commission, and approved and endorsed by J. B. Hays, Principal Christian of the Cherokee Nation, under the seal of the Cherokee Nation, granting citizenship to Thomas Jones and his nine children, William H. Jones, Estela Jones, Leroy A., John S., Hattie S.C., Patsy E., J.E., Joel, and Arville Jones. Are you the identical Thomas Jones mentioned in this certificate? A Is there another one on there, I never heard you call the name of Hense.

Q Is J. H. the same as Hense? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you the identical Thomas Jones mentioned in this certificate?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you apply for citizenship by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.

Q Is your wife a citizen? A I don't know whether she is or not.

Q Do you apply for citizenship for her? A I don't know that I did.

Q Do you apply for her now? A I don't know, sir, I thought she was admitted when I was.

Q She is not admitted in this certificate; her name wasn't put in there? A No, sir, her name wasn't put in there.

Q When were you married? A In 1865.

Q Was she a white woman? A Yes, sir.

Q You have been living with her since 1865? A Yes, sir, ever since 1865.

Q Were you remarried after you were admitted? A No, sir.

Q Yes you on the roll of 1896? A Yes, sir.

(On 1896 roll, page 486, No. 1597, Thomas Jones, Delaware district.)

Q What is the name of the oldest child living at home and unmarried? A That is James Henderson, he is 17.

(On 1896 roll, page 486, No. 1601, as James Henderson Jones, Delaware district.)

Q What is the next one? A Joel.

(On 1896 roll, page 486, No. 1602, as Joel Thomas Jones.)

Q What is the next one? A Arbila, she is 13 years old.

Q Is Myra Arville Jones as entered upon the roll of 1896 the same person as Arbila Jones named in this decree? A Yes, sir.

Q What is the next child named? A That is all, the others is married; there is one of them children dead.

Q Which one of these children is dead? A Hattie.

Thomas Jones - 2.

Q Any others of them dead? A No, sir.

Q Are those children as named over by you living with you at your house? A Yes, sir.

The names of Thomas Jones, and his children, James Henderson, Joel, and Arvilla Jones -

Q Is the youngest child named Arvilla or Arbila? A Arville is what I call her.

The names of yourself and your children, having been admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the Citizenship Commission, evidenced by the copy of said decrees as described in the testimony, and your name and those of your said children appearing upon the authenticated roll of 1896, and you having given evidence sufficient to satisfy this Commission of your legal residence in the Cherokee Nation, you are therefore admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and will be enrolled upon the rolls that are now being made by this Commission.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witness, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 12th day of July, 1900.

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., June 19, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Thomas Jones for the enrollment of his wife, Ann Jones, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Supplemental testimony.

Thomas Jones, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Thomas Jones.
Q How old are you? A About fifty-five.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q What district do you live in? A Delaware.
Q You make application for the enrollment of your wife as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q Do you claim that she is a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes.
Q What is your wife's name? A Ann Jones.
Q How old is she? A She is 58 years old.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Does she live at Fairland with you? A Within six miles of Fairland.

There is offered in evidence a certified copy of marriage record of County of Greene, State of Missouri, showing that on the 17th day of December, 1865, Thomas Jones and Ann Hampton were united in marriage by James H. Kerr, a minister of the Gospel. This license and certificate is filed herewith.

- Q Were you ever married before you married your wife? A No sir.
Q Was she ever married before she married you? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of her first husband? A Joe Hedrick.
Q Was he living when you married her? A No sir, he was killed at the time of the war.
Q Have you and your wife lived together continuously since your marriage? A Yes sir.
Q Living together at the present time? A Yes sir.

It appears from the records of the Commission that on the 11th day of July, 1900, at Fairland, Indian Territory, Thomas Jones appeared before the Commission and made personal application for the enrollment of himself and three children as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. It appears from the evidence had in the matter of his application that he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship on the 15th day of June, 1888.

- Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation, Mr. Jones? A I come here twenty years ago this fall.
Q Have you been living in the nation continuously since that time? A Yes sir.

Q Were these three children James H., Joel Thomas and Arvilla born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

- Q Your wife has lived here continuously since you came? A Yes sir.

The 1896 census roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of Thomas Jones is found in Delaware District on page 486, No. 1597.

Ann Jones is found on page 578, No. 281, as an adopted white in Delaware District.

3-Thomas Jones et al.

Q What was the name of your wife's father? A Joel Hampton.
Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead, died the time of the war.
Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A I can't tell you, her maiden name was Hampton.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir she is dead.
Q Your wife's parents never claimed to be citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q
Thomas Jones applies for the enrolment of his wife, Ann Jones, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; he makes satisfactory proof of his marriage to his wife on the 17th day of December, 1865; he avers that he and his wife have been living together continuously since that time and are living together at the present time. It appears from the testimony in this case that the applicant has been residing in the Cherokee Nation the past twenty years and his wife has been living there the same length of time. It appears from the testimony in the matter of his application that he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by an act of the Cherokee Commission on Citizenship on the 13th day of June, 1888. The said Thomas Jones is duly identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896; his wife is also identified on said roll as an adopted white. On May 15, 1902, the Commission rendered a decision in the matter of the application of Elizabeth C. Mulkey, the said Elizabeth C. Mulkey having been married to her husband prior to his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation. On said date the decision of the Commission was forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and final decision. The decision of the Commission was that the said Elizabeth C. Mulkey should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and under date of June 5, 1902, the Secretary of the Interior affirmed the decision of the Commission enrolling said Elizabeth C. Mulkey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. It appears from the evidence in this case that Ann Jones was married to her husband prior to his admission to citizenship, but in view of the decision of the Commission rendered in the case of Elizabeth C. Mulkey which decision has already been approved by the Department the said Ann Jones will be listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation with her husband and children on Cherokee Roll Card, Field No. 130.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 25th day of June, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
MUSKOGEE, I. T., JANUARY 2, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ann Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES: Applicant appears in person.
Cherokee Nation represented by H.M. Vance, on behalf of W. W. Hastings, Attorney.

ANN JONES, BEING FIRST DULY SWORN by B. P. Rasmus, notary public, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Ann Jones.
- Q What is your age? A I am 62 years old; will be 63 in February.
- Q What is your post office address? A Fairland, Indian Territory.
- Q You are an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, are you? A Yes sir.
- Q What is the name of your husband, through whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Thomas Jones.
- Q Is Thomas Jones living or dead? A He is dead.
- Q When did he die? A Last April.
- Q When were you married to Thomas Jones? A I was married on the 17th of December, in '65.
- Q Where were you living at the time you were married to Thomas Jones? A We were married in Missouri. My home was in Arkansas, but the war had drove us off from there; he had been a soldier and we met in Missouri and was married in Missouri.
- Q Was your husband, Thomas Jones, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time you married him? A Well, I couldn't say that; he had lived here and his name was on the old settlers' roll, and he drew money here; since the war he drew by the same roll.
- Q Do you know about how old your husband was at the time of your marriage to him? A I think he was about 19.
- Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to him? A Yes sir.
- Q Was your former husband dead at the time you married Thomas Jones? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Thomas Jones ever married prior to his marriage to you? A No sir.
- Q From the time of your marriage until the date of his death did you and your husband continuously live together as husband and wife? A Continuously lived together, yes sir.
- Q Where did you live during those years? A We lived in Arkansas after we was married; then we moved to the Territory and lived awhile; and moved back to Missouri; and then moved back to the Cherokee Nation.

- Q When did you and your husband first remove to the Cherokee Nation for the purpose of making it your permanent home? A Well, I would have to study awhile. It was when my first children were small; they were not big enough to go to school when we first moved here.
- Q Well, about how many years ago was that? A I think that we come here in '74 to make it our home.
- Q You say that you removed here for the purpose of making the Cherokee Nation your permanent home about the time of the birth of your oldest child? A It was after the birth of my first child.

Q What is the name of your oldest child? A His name is William Jones.

Q You have a child named James H. Jones, have you? A Yes sir.

Q Is he younger than William Jones? A Yes sir.

Q About how old is William Jones? A Well, he was born in 1866.

Q After you removed to the Cherokee Nation, did your husband make application for admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A After we moved here to stay he did, and was readmitted.

Q Do you remember the date of his readmission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A I think it was '87.

Q Have you the certificate showing the admission of your husband to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I haven't got it, but he was a pensioner; I sent my record with my claim and it has never come back.

The proceedings had at Fairland, Indian Territory, July 11, 1900, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Thomas Jones et al. as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, shows that on that date the said Thomas Jones produced a certificate of admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation, showing that on June 13, 1888, he was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the duly constituted authorities thereof.

Q Was your husband recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation prior to the time he was admitted to citizenship in 1888? A He drew money here.

Q During what years did he draw money? A I couldn't tell; I do not know. It was old settlers' money that he drew, and after we moved back he drew by the same roll, because he told me.

Q From the date of the admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation of your husband, you and he continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation until the time of his death, did you? A Yes sir.

The applicant, Ann Jones, is identified on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, Delaware District, No. 281. But neither her name, nor the name of her husband, Thomas Jones, can be identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880. The said Thomas Jones is included in the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 431.

WILLIAM H. JONES, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, notary public, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William H. Jones.

Q What is your age? A 40 years.

Q What is your post office address? A Fairland.

- Q You are a son of Ann Jones who has just testified, are you?
A Yes sir.
- Q What was your father's name? A Thomas Jones.
- Q Is he living or dead? A He is dead.
- Q Where were you born? A I was born in Arkansas.
- Q Do you remember about the time that your father and mother removed to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, I remember when they moved here.
- Q About what year? A It was somewhere about 1874.
- Q Your father was admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation in the year 1888, was he? A Yes sir.
- Q Prior to the date of his admission to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation ~~was he~~ recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A I dont know anything about that more than what I have heard the old man say; we was allowed to go to school.
- Q You do not know of his being admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation prior to 1888, do you? A No sir.
- Q Was your father born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, that is what I have always been told,- that he was born in the Cherokee Nation.
- Q And his absence from the Cherokee Nation prior to 1888 necessitated his being readmitted on his return to the Cherokee Nation, did it? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know about the time your father first left the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she correctly recorded the above and foregoing testimony, and that the same is a full, true and correct transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of ANN JONES as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Fairland, Indian Territory, July 11, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Ann Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 19, 1902, October 7, 1902, and January 2, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Ann Jones, is a white woman, and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage to one Thomas Jones December 18, 1865; that the said Thomas Jones was not at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and did not become a citizen of said Nation until his admission to citizenship therein by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation on June 13, 1868. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry in accordance with Cherokee law a citizen of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. Neither the said applicant, Ann Jones, nor her husband, the said Thomas Jones, can be identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Ann Jones, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 21, 1906.

Ann Jones,

Fairland, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1876, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Wednesday, January 2, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 5, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated January 19, 1907, relative to the placing of the names of certain white intermarried citizens, who are entitled to enrollment under the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, on a separate roll with a separate series of numbers.

On January 19, 1907, the Office forwarded to the Department the Commissioner's report in the matter of the applications for enrollment as intermarried Cherokee citizens of Queen Watkins, et al. and John L. Bates, et al., and recommended that their applications be denied in accordance with Commissioner Bixby's decision.

The Commissioner reports that the names of 1143 applicants for enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation appear on the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens; and that all of these persons were embraced in the decisions forwarded to the Department on January 19, 1907, except the following 192 ap-

The Commissioner says that all these persons are differently classified from those embraced in the decisions previously forwarded to the Department, and a separate decision will be rendered in each case.

The Supreme Court of the United States, in its decision in the Daniel Red Bird case, held that white persons who intermarried with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee law, prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and have equal per capita rights ^{with} Cherokee Indians by blood in the lands constituting the public domain of the Cherokee Nation, and are entitled to be enrolled for that purpose, but such intermarried whites acquired no rights and have no interest or share in any funds belonging to the Cherokee Nation except where such funds were derived by lease, sale or otherwise, from the lands of the Cherokee Nation conveyed to ~~the~~ by the United States by the patent of December 1838.

Under this decision, therefore, intermarried white persons entitled to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation have a different status from all other Cherokee citizens, and in order to avoid confusion and simplify the matter of the enrollment of such citizens, the Commissioner recommends that the names of all the applicants herein named be stricken from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens retained in the Department and in this Office, and that he be authorized to take similar action on the copies of the Bell in the possession of his office.

In the opinion of the Office, this action will avoid confusion in the future, and it is recommended that this Office and the Commissioner be authorized to take the action suggested by him.

Very respectfully,

G. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Sir:

On February 5, 1907 (Land 7538), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated January 19, 1907, in the matter of certain persons who are enrolled as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

You refer to the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States (203 (U. S., 76), and state that in accordance with said decision you have recommended that the names of 1,143 applicants, by reason of intermarriage, should be stricken from the partial roll of Cherokee citizens.

Your recommendation with regard to these persons was approved by the Department on January 26, 1907.

You now transmit the names of 193 persons who are entitled to certain rights in the Cherokee Nation by reason of intermarriages which took place with citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation in accordance with Cherokee laws prior to November 1, 1875, and who by reason of said marriages are entitled to certain rights in and arising from the lands of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the different status of these persons you state that you intend to render a separate decision in each case.

To avoid confusion you recommend that authority be granted for striking the names of the 193 persons named from the approved partial roll of the Cherokee Nation, and that those of the persons named who may be found hereafter entitled to enrollment shall be placed upon separate schedules under a new series of numbers.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

You are advised that the Department has this day stricken the names of the following persons, which appear opposite the numbers after their names, from the approved partial roll of Cherokee citizens in its possession:

The Indian Office has been requested to take similar action upon the rolls retained by it, and you are authorized to cancel said names from the rolls in your possession.

Your attention is called to the fact that authority was granted on January 26, 1907, for the cancellation of the name of Thomas D. Chatham, opposite No. 22254, and of Adeline Batlingourd, opposite No. 23260, which you now again recommend for cancellation. Apparent typographical errors in the roll numbers have been corrected in three instances.

You are instructed to prepare and transmit for departmental action new schedules, with a new series of numbers, containing the names of those persons who may be found to be entitled to enrollment.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

February 26, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 30, 1907, transmitting the record relative to the application of Ann Jones for enrollment by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

On July 11, 1900, application was made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Ann Jones as a citizen by intermarriage.

On January 30, 1907, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to enrollment.

The record shows that the applicant is a white woman who claims to be entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation by reason of her marriage on December 18, 1865 to Thomas Jones, who was not admitted as a citizen by blood of that Nation until June 13, 1888.

It is considered that the applicant did not marry a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

In accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the case of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant is recommended for approval.

Very respectfully,

In the matter of the application of Leroy A. Jones for the enrollment of himself and child as Cherokees by blood; being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Leroy Jones.
Q How old are you? A 30 years old.
Q Where do you live? A I live down south about 6 miles.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q In what district? A In the Delaware district.
Q Do you make your residence there? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived there? A About 18 years.
Q You have been living there continuously then for the last 18 years? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you make application as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What evidence have you got that you are a Cherokee by blood?
A My papers there.
(Applicant presents certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship issued by the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, signed by J. T. Adair, Chairman of the Committee on Citizenship, attested by Cornell Rogers, Clerk of the Commission, and approved and endorsed by J. P. Mays, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, and under the great seal of the Cherokee Nation, in which certificate Leroy A. Jones is admitted to Cherokee citizenship, the certificate dated June 13, 1888.)
Q Does your name appear upon the authenticated rolls of 1896?
A Yes, sir.
(On 1896 roll, page 486, No. 1598, as Leroy Ayres Jones, Delaware District.)
Q Are you the identical Leroy A. Jones mentioned in this certificate of citizenship, and whose name appears upon the record of 1896?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a citizen? A No, sir..
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your wife a United States citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q Got it with you? A Yes, sir.
Q I would like to look at it. A It is at home.
Q When were you married? A About 2 years ago.
Q What is your wife's name? A Rosetta Jones.
Q What was her name before you married? A Rosetta Carey.
Q Have you any proof of your marriage to her, anybody that you can prove your marriage by? A I don't think there is anybody here.
Q Before your wife and child can be admitted you will have to make proof of marriage. Is your wife white? A Yes, sir.
Q Is your father here? A Yes, sir.
Q Does your father know anything about your being married? A Yes.

Thomas Jones, being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name, Thomas Jones? A Yes, sir.
Q How old are you? A I am 52.
Q Do you know Mary Leroy A. Jones? A Yes, sir, I raised him, I ought to.
Q Do you know whether he was married or not? A He said he was, I never went to the wedding.
Q What do you think about it? A I reckon he is, he lived with the woman.
Q Have they been living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir, they lived at my house all the time for the last two years until the last fall, and I moved them up in a house on my place.

Leroy A. Jones - 2.

Q You were not at the wedding?

A No, sir.

Leroy A. Jones, recalled:

Q Who married you? A I can't think of his name: it was Preacher

Prim. Q What kind of a preacher was he? A I can't tell you what kind he was.

James Baker, being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A James Baker.

Q How old are you? A 27.

Q Do you know Leroy A. Jones? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether he is married or not? A Yes, sir.

Q How do you know he is married? A I have seen his license and marriage certificate.

Q Do you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know he has been living with her since that time? A Yes, sir.

Leroy A. Jones, recalled:

Q How many children have you got? A Just one.

Q What is it named? A Thomas.

Q When was it born? A Sometime about the 10th of April, last April.

The name of Leroy A. Jones appearing on the certificate of admission as recited in the testimony, and he having satisfied the Commission by the evidence that he has resided in the Cherokee Nation a sufficient length of time to qualify him to be a citizen, and he having produced satisfactory proof of the marriage of himself and Rosetta Carey, he and his child, James Thomas Jones, are hereby admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood, and they will be enrolled on the rolls now being made of Cherokee citizens.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witnesses, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 12th day of July, 1900.

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--5.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

C O P Y

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12223-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

Commissioner.

There have been several instances of this same difficulty in the past. In 1902, the Government was unable to obtain the necessary information for the purpose of the investigation. The information was not obtained until the year 1903.

1. The first of these is the fact that the
 2. Government has been unable to secure
 3. the necessary funds to carry out its
 4. policy of non-interference in the
 5. internal affairs of the country.

Q What evidence have you got of your Cherokee citizenship? A That paper.
(Applicant presents certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship issued by the Cherokee Citizenship Commission, signed by J. T. Adair, Chairman of the Committee on Citizenship, attested by Cornell Rogers, Clerk of the Commission, and approved and endorsed by J. P. Mays, Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, and under the great seal of the Cherokee Nation, in which certificate John S. Jones is admitted to Cherokee citizenship, the certificate dated June 13, 1888.)
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Mary Jones.
Q How long have you been married; when were you married? A I was married in 1891, I believe.
Q Are you upon the rolls of 1896? A Yes, sir.
Q What district were you in in 1896? A Delaware.
(On 1896 roll, page 487, No. 1621, as Johnson Levi Jones, Delaware district.)
Q What is your middle name? A Levi.
Q Were you ever called that? A No, sir.
Q What is your wife's name? A Mary, or Mollie.
(On 1896 roll, page 487, No. 1621, as Johnson Levi Jones, Delaware district.)
Q Are you the identical John S. Jones that is mentioned in this certificate of citizenship? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you the identical person on the 1896 roll as Johnson Levi Jones? A I reckon so.
Q Have you any children? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you your certificate of marriage with you? A No, sir.
Q When were you married? A I was married in 1891.
Q What was the date of your marriage? A I don't know, sir.
Q Have you got a certificate of marriage at home? A No, sir.
Q Did you ever have any? A No, sir.
Q Or any marriage license? A No, sir.
Q Where were you married? A I was married down at home.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I haven't got any license or certificate or anything.
Q Who married you? A Preacher Belcher.
Q Did he give you a certificate? A No, sir; we are all on this last roll.
(On 1896 roll, page 578, No. 387, Mary O. Jones, Delaware district.)
Q Is there anybody here knows whether you were married or not?
A No, sir, nobody ever seen us married.
Q Anybody here know you and your wife? A Yes, sir, my father does, we have been living right by him.

John L. Jones - B.

Thomas Jones, being duly sworn, and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Thomas Jones.
Q Do you know John Levi Jones? A Yes, sir.
Q Know whether he was married or not? A I never seen him married.
Q Do you know his wife, the woman he calls his wife? A Yes, sir.
Q What is her name? A Mary.

Q How long have they been living together? A Ever since they were married.
Q How long has that been? A I don't know.
Q Were they living together before they were married? A No, sir.
Q About how long ago was it since they were married? A I don't know, they have been married nine or ten years, I have known the girl ever since she was a little girl.
Q They have been known as man and wife in that community for the last 8 or 10 years? A Yes, sir.

John L. Jones, recalled:

- Q How many children have you got? A Two.
Q What is the name of the oldest one? The oldest one is name Coleman Franklin, he is 8 years old.
Q Is he upon the rolls of 1896? A Yes, sir.
(On 1896 roll, page 487, No. 1622, Delaware District.)
Q What is the name of the next one? A There is one that died.
Q What is the one that is alive? A Samuel Elamander Jones.
Q How old is he? A 5 years old.
(On 1896 roll, page 487, No. 1623, Samuel Elamander Jones, Delaware District.)
Q Are these children alive and living with you at home? A Yes, sir.

The name of John L. Jones appearing upon the certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship as mentioned in the testimony as above he is hereby admitted to citizenship, he having satisfied the Commission by his testimony that he has resided in the Territory a sufficient time, and his name will be entered upon the rolls now being made by this Commission. He having given satisfactory proof of his marriage with Mary O. Jones, she is admitted to citizenship as an intermarried citizen, and will be enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission; the said John L. Jones and his wife appearing upon the authenticated rolls of the Cherokee Nation of 1896, numbers and pages as designated in this testimony, and the names of his two children, Coleman Franklin and Samuel Elamander Jones, appearing upon the authenticated rolls of 1896, and proof being made that they are alive and living with him and his said wife, they are also admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation as citizens by blood and will be enrolled upon the rolls now being made by this Commission.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony of the above named witnesses, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct translation of his stenographic notes.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 18th day of July, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fairland, I. T., July 12, 1900.

In the matter of the application of James T. Baker for the enrollment of his wife and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by commissioner Brackbridge he testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A James T. Baker.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-seven.
Q What is your post-office address? A Fairland, Delaware District.
Q Is this your permanent residence? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived here? A Five years.
Q Where did you live before that time? A In Missouri.
Q When did you first move to the Territory? A Five years ago this coming August.
Q Have you lived here continuously ever since? A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q How do you apply? A As intermarried.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate.)
Q Are you applying for enrollment for yourself? A No sir, for my wife and two children.
Q You are not applying for yourself? A No sir.
Q I see by the marriage license that you furnish that you were married in February 1897, which of course would render futile an application for yourself, as the law is construed by the Commission, but you apply for your wife and how many children? A Two.
Q Is your wife a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What was her name before she was married? A I think she appeared upon the roll as Betsy E. Jones before she was married.
Q What is her age? A She is nineteen years old.
Q Was her father upon the roll of 1880? A No sir.
Q What was his name? A Thomas Jones.
Q Did she claim through her father? A Yes sir.
Q Was he an Indian? A Yes sir.
Q And not on the roll of 1880? A He was admitted in 1888, I have got a certificate here. (Produces certificate.)
Q You hand me here what purports to be a duly signed and certified certificate of admission to Cherokee citizenship under date of June 30th, 1888, in this I find the name of Betsy E. Jones, daughter of Thomas Jones, is that your wife? A Yes sir.
Q Your marriage license speaks of her as Bertha Jones?
A Her name is Bertha Jones, they always called her Betsy ever since she was a little child, and her father enrolled her that way.
Q Is this Bertha Jones mentioned in this marriage license and Betsy E. Jones one and the same person? A Yes sir.
Q Who knows that besides you? A Her father is here.

Thomas Jones, being sworn and examined by commissioner Brackbridge, testifies as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Thomas Jones.
Q Where do you live? A I live out here about six miles.
Q What is your post-office? A Fairland, Delaware District.
Q Are you the Thomas Jones mentioned in the certificate approved 30th of June 1888 as being admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Is the Betsy E. Jones mentioned in there your daughter?
A Yes sir.
Q Is she the same as Bertha Jones who is represented as having been married in 1897 to James Thomas Baker? A Yes sir.
Q These two women are one and the same? A Yes sir.

James T. Baker for his wife and children

Q And you acknowledge that this is the husband of Betsey E. Jones mentioned in the Cherokee certificate spoken of and given in this marriage license and certificate as Bertha Jones? A Yes sir.

Note: 1896 roll examined, page 486, #1600, Berthy Elizabeth Jones, Delaware District.

Com'r Breckenridge: Betsey E. Jones is identified on the 1896 roll as Berthy Elizabeth Jones.

Q How many children have you? A Two.

Q You want to apply for them do you? A Yes sir.

Q Please give the names of these children? A Thomas Porter Baker.

Q How old is he? A Born in December, 1897.

Q Have you a certificate of the birth of that child? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate)

Com'r Breckenridge: Birth of this child is duly established by certificate properly filled out and attested on form provided by the commission, and filed herewith.

Q Give the name of the other child? A Hattie Ophelia, born 27th day of May, 1900.

Q Have you a certificate of the birth of that child? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate.)

Com'r Breckenridge: Birth and age of this child is also duly established by certificate furnished by the Commission, properly filled out and attested, and it is filed with this case.

Q Is that all you want to apply for? A Yes sir.

Commissioner Breckenridge: The adoption of your wife to citizenship being duly established as indicated in the testimony, and your marriage being duly established, and the birth of your children, your wife and your two children whose names are given above, Thomas Porter Baker and Hattie Ophelia Baker, will be duly enrolled upon the roll being prepared by this commission.

M.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the foregoing case and that the above and foregoing is a full true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--5.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the Honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this

Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 18th, 1901.

Mr. Joel E. Frazier,
Fiarland, I. T.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter of the 16th inst., advising us that the correct name of your wife is Polly C. Frazier, has been received. The affidavit as to the birth of your son, Franklin B. Frazier, is therefore returned to you herewith. You are requested to have the Notary before whom the document was executed correct the name of your wife from Polly S. Frazier to Polly C. Frazier and return promptly to this office.

Very truly yours,

Acting Chairman.

Inclosure--C. #137.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12220-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "The Vinita Republican," both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Vinita, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in "The Vinita Republican" was on March 9, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Secretary--5.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 2, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6184-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12328-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any one of the persons enumerated in his report was living on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this

Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. M. Leupp.

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 1, 1902.

Grawford Conner,

Fairland, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of birth affidavit in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your child Francis William Conner, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Also marriage license and certificate showing your marriage on July 11, 1901, to Miss Anna M. Ballard. The marriage license and certificate is returned to you, copies of same having been made for the Commission's files.

The birth certificate is herewith returned to you and your attention is called to the fact that when listed for enrollment your wife's name was given as Anna Ballard, while she signs affidavit as Anna M. B. Conner. You are requested to have the affidavit corrected so that your wife's given name will appear therein as she is listed for enrollment, Anna B. Conner.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Q It would be Sallie M. Pate? A Yes sir.
Q You have some children you wish to enroll? A Yes sir.
Q All under twenty one years of age? A Yes sir.
Q Unmarried? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the names of these children? A Laura H. Pate, 8 years old.
Q Is that your oldest child? A Yes sir.

Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 517 thereof, #2439, Delaware District, appears the name of Laura R. Pate)

Q Your next child? A Gracie F. Pate, 5 years old.

(Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 517 thereof, #2440, Delaware District appears the name of Gracie F. Pate)

Q Next Child? A Joseph E. Pate, 2 years old.

Q Is that your youngest child? A Yes sir.

Q Have you any children who are dead, who were on the roll of 1896?

A No sir. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 585 thereof, #431, Delaware District, appears the name of applicant's wife, Sallie M. Pate)

Q Now Mr. Pate, you and your wife are living together at this time?

A Yes sir.

Q Have lived together ever since your marriage? A Yes sir.

Q These children are all living with you? A Yes sir.

You being duly enrolled on the Roll of 1890, your marriage properly established, as shown in the testimony, and your two older children being identified on the Roll of 1896, you and they will be enrolled as Cherokees by blood, on the roll being prepared by this Commission. Your wife, being properly identified, will be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage. Your youngest child is not of record; you will be furnished a certificate of birth, which you will fill out, and when you hand that to the Commission, then ~~that~~ your youngest child, Joseph E. Pate will be also enrolled on the roll that is now being prepared by this Commission.

R. E. Cravens, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, I. T., October 25, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Albert N. Pate for the enrollment of himself and his four minor children, Laura R., Gracie E., Joseph E. and William C. Pate, as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Sallie M. Pate, as a citizen by intermarriage, of the Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS.

W. H. FORD, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

By the Commission,

- Q What is your name? A W. H. Ford.
Q Postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q What's your age, Mr. Ford? A Forty.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation or a white man? A I am a white man.
Q You don't claim any rights as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
A Only by adoption.
Q You're an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you already testified in your case? A No, sir.
Q Now, are you acquainted with Albert N. Pate? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a Cherokee or a white man? A He's a Cherokee.
Q Are you acquainted with his wife? A Yes, sir.
Q What's her name? A I don't know her given name; I only know her as Mrs. Pate.
Q Is she a white woman or Cherokee? A White woman.
Q Is she an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you known Albert N. Pate and his wife? A About four years.
Q About four years? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know anything of your own knowledge about them until four years ago? A No, sir.
Q Well, for the last four years have they been living together as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Never been separated during that time? A No, sir.
Q Were they living together as husband and wife on the first day of September, 1902? A Yes, sir.
Q Have both of them lived in the Cherokee Nation for the last four years? A Yes, sir.
Q Their children are living with them? A Yes, sir.
Q Are their children all alive? A Yes, sir.
Q How many have they got? A They have four, I believe.
Q Children lived with them all the time you have known them?
A Yes, sir, they are small; the oldest is about ten or eleven years old.

By Mr. Starr,

- Q Do you know when they returned from Texas? A No, sir, I do not.

Q Do you know if they were living in the Cherokee Nation in 1898?

A No, sir, I think probably they were; they have been right around Fairland for several years, about five miles or six.

Retta Chick, being first duly sworn, states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony and proceedings in the matter of the foregoing application, and that the above is a true and complete transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

SIGNED:

Tams Dixby.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF

Althea A. Cole

FOR ENROLLMENT AS

CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

Original testimony July 11
Memorandum recd

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
FAIRLAND, I. T., JULY 12th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF A. N. Pate for his mother, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A A. N. Pate.
Q What is your age? A Thirty nine.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Fairland, I. T.
Q Delaware District? A Yes sir.
Q How long has this been your residence? A Two years.
Q How long have you lived in the District? A Two years., I have lived here some twenty odd years.
Q Where do you live in the Territory? A I came from Vinita here.
Q How long did you live at Vinita? A About twenty years.
Q That has been your home continuously? A Except when I was out.
Q I understand you to say you have been living continuously here, except when temporarily out on business? You never made your home any where-else? Is that true? A Yes sir/
Q Did you ever vote in Texas? A No sir.
Q How long were you called out of the Territory from time to time; during a period of how long? A From 1890 to 1897, I was back and forth.
Q What took you out of the Territory at that time? A I went on account of my mother's health, and brother's.
Q Were you there looking after them? A Yes sir, working.
Q Making your regular home back here, is that true? A Yes sir.
Q And you came back in what year? A 1897.
Q Did you bring your mother back? A Yes sir.
Q You have been living here continuously ever since? A Yes sir.
Q What application do you desire to make here now? A A To enroll my mother.
Q You have made (already) application for yourself and family? A Yes sir.
Q Is your mother a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q What is her full name? A Aletha A. Pate.
(Roll of 1880 examined, and on Page 298 thereof, #1988, Delaware District appears the name of Aletha A. Pate)
Q Is your mother on the Roll of 1896? A Yes sir.
(Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 517 thereof, #2441, appears the name of Aletha A. Pate, Delaware District)
Q Why does not your mother appear here in person?
A She is not able.
Q What is her age? A Sixty three.
Q Is she an invalid? A She has been for ten years; she is sometimes better.
Q Physically unable to come? A Yes sir.
That seems to make your application complete Mr. Pate, and your mother, appearing on the Roll of 1880 and the Roll of 1896, as indicated in the testimony, and it appearing that she is still living and her residence being satisfactory, and no objection being made of any nature to the application, she will be enrolled on the roll this Commission is preparing.

R. R. Cravens, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of July, 1900.

C. R. Breckenridge
COMMISSIONER.

Albert H. Fate,

Marietta, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of November 23, stating that your mother, Alethia A. Fate, heretofore an applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, died subsequent to September 1, 1902, and asking what steps should be taken in order to secure her allotment in the Cherokee Nation.

In reply, there is quoted for your information section 20 of the Cherokee Agreement, proclaimed August 12, 1902, which is as follows:

"Sec. 20. If any person whose name appears upon the roll prepared as herein provided shall have died subsequent to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two, and before receiving his allotment, the lands to which such person would have been entitled if living shall be allotted in his name, and shall, with his proportionate share of other tribal property, descend to his heirs according to the laws of descent and distribution as provided in chapter forty-nine of Mansfield's Digest of the Statutes of Arkansas: Provided, That the allotment thus to be made shall be selected by a duly appointed administrator or executor; If, however, such administrator or executor be not duly and expeditiously appointed, or fails to act promptly when appointed, or for any other cause such selection be not so made within a reasonable and proper time, the Dawes Commission shall designate the lands thus to be allotted."

Albert E. Pate, -2.

There is enclosed you herewith blank form of affidavit, which you are requested to have properly executed and forward to the Commission at the earliest possible date, in order that the death of Althia A. Pate may be shown upon the Commission's records.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
FAIRLAND, I. T., JULY 12th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Joseph B. Pate et al, for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Joseph B. Pate.
Q What is your age? A Thirty three.
Q What is your Postoffice address? A Fairland.
Q What District? A Delaware.
Q Is this your permanent home? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived here? A About two years.
Q Where did you live before here? A Vinita.
Q How long did you live there? A I lived there off and on twenty years.
Q How long have you lived in the Territory? A About twenty-two or twenty three years, I guess.
Q Has it been your home right along for the last twenty three years? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been out of the Territory during that time? A Yes sir.
Q For a long or short time? A I have been out different times.
Q Have you ever voted any where-else? A No sir.
Q Always looked upon the Territory as your home? A Yes sir.
Q Are you on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q Do you make application for any one besides yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Whom? A I have a wife and two children; my wife is a white woman.
Q Are you married to her? A Yes sir.
Q You apply as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q And you want to apply for your wife and two children? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife is a white woman? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A I have been married twice; I was married the last time in 1897 (1897.)
Q When did you marry your present wife? A In 1897.
Q In view of your knowledge of the law of 1895, limiting the rights of women intermarrying as Cherokees; do you still make application for your wife? A No sir.
Q You apply then for yourself and children? A Yes sir.
My information is that it is entirely useless to make application ~~under that law~~ after that time? A Yes sir.
Q I understand you then that you do not want to make application for your wife, because you were married since 1895, is that correct? A Yes sir.
Q You have children you want to apply for? A Yes sir.
Q How many have you? A Two.
Q Have you any except by this last marriage? A One is by my first wife and one by my last wife.
Q Give me their ages please of your children; names first, then ages? A Mary A. Pate, 9 years old. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 229 thereof, #3677, appears the name of Mary E. Pate, Coosawadee District. -- properly Mary A. Pate) (Age at that time given as six years.) And Joseph B. Pate, father, is duly identified as indicated on the Roll of 1896.
Q Your next child? A My next child is dead. Aletha F. Pate.
Q Was that child on any record? A Yes sir, she was on the Roll of 1896.
Q Your other living child? A Sybble D. Pate.
Q Boy or girl? A Girl.
Q What age? A Just one year old.
(Page 298, #1990, Joseph Baxter Pate, Delaware District, identified on the Roll of 1880 as Joseph B. Pate)
Mr. Pate your application is for yourself and two children; you do not make application for your wife? because she does not come under the existing law; your name is duly identified on the Roll of 1880 and the Roll of 1896; your residence satisfactorily established and there is no objection urged against you.
Q Your children are living and live with you? These two? A Yes sir.

You are enrolled on the roll that is now being prepared by this Commission as dependent by blood. Your daughter, Mary A. Page is duly registered on the roll of 1900, and living with you, and is a child of the said deceased. And your daughter, Mary A. Page one year old is a child of the said deceased, and you are desired to have filled out a card for her, and that card is properly filled out and attached, and your child will be duly enrolled as a dependent by blood.

Q Your child is one year of age? A Yes sir.

R. R. Craven, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner the New Cleveland Prison, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.

FAIRLAND, I. T., JULY 12th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF B. T. Chandler et al for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, C. R. Breckenridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A B. T. Chandler.
Q What is your age? A Fifty three.
Q What is your Post-office address? A Ageechee.
Q What District? A Delaware District.
Q How long have you lived in this District? A Six years.
Q Have you lived here continuously six years? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Territory before that?
A I have been in the Territory twenty six years.
Q Altogether? A Yes sir.
Q Have been considering it your home for the last twenty six years?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
Q By inter-marriage? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A In 1880.
Q What is the name of your wife before marriage?
A Fannie E. Sharp.
Q Is your wife still living? A Yes sir.
Q Is her father still living? A No sir; her father is dead.
Q Was he on the Roll of 1880? A Yes sir, I think he was.
Q What is his name? A Edward Sharp.
Q Is your wife's mother living? A No sir.
Q When did she die? A She died about 1874; some where along there; she died before he did.
Q Have you any certificate of marriage to your present wife?
A Yes sir.
This appears to be a regularly executed and attested liscence for you, a citizen of the United States to marry Miss Fannie Sharp, a Cherokee by blood, signed by L. A. Bigby, clerk of Flint District, and that your marriage was performed by J. W. Bryant, a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and the certificate of marriage recorded October 7th, 1880; the liscence issued on the 2nd of October. Certificate of marriage recorded on the 7th day of October; clergyman states that marriage was solemnized on "this day", but does not mention the date; presumably it is the date of the issuance of the liscence.
Q Your wives full name please? A Fannie Elizabeth Sharp.
(Roll of 1880 examined, and on Page 390 thereof, #1160, Flint District appears the name of Fannie E. Sharp)
Q How old is she now? A Forty-three (43)
Q Is your name on the Roll of 1880? A No sir, I was married after the roll was made.
Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof #446, Delaware District, appears the name of Fannie Eliza Chandler)
(Benjamin T. Chandler duly identified on Page 567, #91, on the Roll of 1896)
Q Now Mr. Chandler, do you want to apply for any children?
A Yes sir.
Q Your children are all living with you? that you want to apply for? A Yes sir.
Q Unmarried? A Yes sir.
Q Under twenty one years of age? A Yes sir.
Q Please give the names of them?
A James Arthur Chandler, 19 years old. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof, #447, Delaware District, appears the name of James Arthur Chandler)
Rebecca Catherine Chandler. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof, #448, Delaware District, appears the name of Rebecca Catherine Chandler)
Q What age? A Seventeen.

Your next child? A Oliver Kent Chandler, 16 years old. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof, #449, Delaware District, appears the name of Oliver Kent Chandler)

Q Now your next child? A Jeanette Beone, 13 years old. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof, #450 appears the name of Jeanette Beone Chandler; on the roll as Janettie Boob Chandler - Delaware District)

Q Next child? A Benjamin Edward Chandler, 7 years old. (Roll of 1896 examined, and on Page 445 thereof, #452, Delaware District, appears the name of Benjamin Edward Chandler)

John Willie Chandler, 10 years old. (On Roll of 1896, Page 445, #451, Delaware District, John Willie Chandler.

Q Any more? A Yes sir: Ethel May Chandler.

Q Age? A Five years old.

(On the Roll of 1896, Ethel May Chandler, Page 445, #453, Delaware District)

Q Next child? A Ida Caldonia Chandler?

A Age? A Ten months.

The child, Ida Caldonia is identified in certificate of birth, made out according to the form supplied by this Commission, duly signed and attested, in which certificate the child is called Ida Caldonia; properly Caldonia; and the names of the parents are spelled Chandler; properly Chandler. This is examined and accepted as satisfactory evidence of the birth of the child.

Q Now Mr. Chandler, are all these children living at this time?

A Yes sir.

Q And live with you? A Yes sir.

Q Now for the purpose of checking up the tribal roll, have you any children on the roll of 1896 who have died? A No sir; I have two dead, but they were not on the Roll of 1896.

Mr. Chandler, your wife appearing duly enrolled on the official roll of the Cherokee Nation of 1880, and your marriage being duly established by the license and certificate of marriage, cited in the testimony, and your children all being duly identified as indicated in the testimony, your wife and children will be entered upon the roll now being prepared by this Commission, as Cherokee by blood; and you will be entered upon the same roll as an inter-married citizen.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

COMMISSIONER.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., September 23, 1902.

In the matter of the application of W. E. Rowsey for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The applicant presents and asks to be filed with the testimony in his case the original Cherokee license issued on the 2nd day of December, 1895, wherein license is granted to said W. E. Rowsey, a citizen of the United States, to marry Miss Eva Patton, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and also a certificate of marriage signed by B. H. Greathouse, a minister of the Gospel.

W. E. Rowsey, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

Q Have you and your wife been living together in the Cherokee Nation ever since your marriage on December 2, 1895? A We have been living together all the time.

Q Still living together and lived together on the first day of September, 1902? A Yes sir.

Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to this wife? A No sir.

Q Was she ever married prior to this marriage? A No sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation or the Indian Territory? A I lived there three years before I was married.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A At Vinita.

Q How long has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All her life. I think she came there when she was four years old.

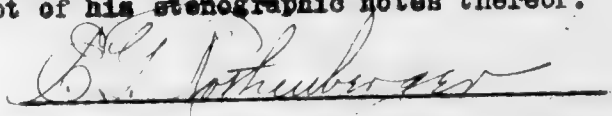

Q Have you and your wife ever lived out of the Indian Territory since your marriage? A No sir.

Q Still living in the Territory? A Yes sir.

Q What is your postoffice address at this time? A Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Q You are the same W. E. Rowsey who made application to the Commission on July 12, 1900, are you? A I presume, about that time at Fairland when they first went around.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of September, 1902.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 9, 1902.

William E. Rowsey,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

When you applied to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, you filed with your application marriage license and certificate showing your marriage, on December 2, 1895, to Miss Eva Patton.

The same is herewith returned to you, a copy having been made and retained in the Commission's files.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

RECEIVED

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
FAIRLAND, I. T., JULY 18th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Thomas J. Thornton, comes W. I. Thornton and makes application for his brother, T. J. Thornton, and William I. Thornton, being sworn by Commissioner, T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A William I. Thornton.
Q How old is Thomas J. Thornton? A He was born in 1854.
Q What is his Post-office address? A He lived at Talala.
Q Why is he not present himself? A He was convicted of murder, and sent to the penitentiary; he was sent to Columbus, Ohio, and was sent to the insane asylum at Washington.
Q And is there how? A Yes sir.
Q Did he make the Indian Territory his place of residence before he was convicted? A Yes sir.
Q How long did he live here? A About twenty five years.
Q Do you recollect when he was convicted? A April Term about three years ago I reckon.
Q Is he a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q And you make application for him as a Cherokee by blood?
A Yes sir.
Q Is his name on the tribal roll of 1880? A Yes sir. (Roll of 1880 examined, and on Page 388 thereof, #3704, appears the name of Thomas J. Thornton)
Q He is living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q To what District does he belong? A Cooweescoowee then; he used to live in Delaware.
Q Until the time of his conviction, was he a resident of the Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q A continuous resident? A Yes sir.
Q Does his name appear on the Roll of 1896? A. I expect not; he was not present then.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood does he claim? A His mother is a quarter and his father a white man? A Q That would make him one eighth? A Yes sir.
Q Has he any children? A He had one by another woman; she carried it off.
Q He has no wife at the present time? A No sir.
Q Is she dead (His former wife)? A No sir, they separated.
The name of Thomas J. Thornton appearing on the duly authenticated Roll of 1880, and he being incarcerated in an insane asylum, making it impossible for him to appear before the Commission; and the fact of his being on the 1880 roll being conclusive evidence as to his citizenship, and the fact of his residence being satisfactory, he is ordered enrolled as a Cherokee citizen by blood, and his name will be placed on the rolls now being made up by this Commission.

R. R. Gravens, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the foregoing case, and that the foregoing and above is a true, full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said case.
